The West End is one of the oldest parts of Boston. Sooner or later the old parts of a city wear out and have to be replaced. Sometimes this can be done, one building at a time, by the property owners, but most often, as in the West End, it is not. The old buildings that are worn out. The lots are too small; the streets are too narrow and crooked; the whole layout is out of date. The only way such an area can be soundly replaced is by tearing down several blocks at a time and rebuilding on a new and modern plan.

This kind of "urban redevelopment" means. The city government buys up the blocks, tears down the old buildings, lays out a new street plan, sets aside whatever land is needed for playgrounds, schools or places for recreation, and then sells the cleared areas to builders who will promise to put up new taxpaying buildings that conform to the new plan. In Boston this would be done by the Urban Redevelopment Division of the Boston Housing Authority (but urban redevelopment is not the same thing as the job of building and managing public housing, which is done by other divisions of the Authority).

State Law Controls Redevelopment.

Under State law, the City Council, the City Planning Board, and the State Housing Board must approve a redevelopment project before it can be started. But even before the City Council and these other agencies are asked to approve the project, a great deal of study is necessary, to make sure of two things:

1. Are the areas really substandard? Would it be better for the city, and for the people living there, to have it torn down?

2. Is the location good enough so that private money will be invested there in good new buildings?

The West End is one of three parts of Boston that are being studied to see if they would make good urban redevelopment projects. The other two areas are in the South End and in Mattapan. First studies of these last two areas have been completed and sent to the City Council, which has approved the making of further studies. The first report on the West End was sent to the Council in April, 1953. Further study is necessary to decide finally whether there should be a project in the West End, and if so, exactly what blocks should be cleared and how they should be rebuilt. After this final study, the Council must decide whether or not to approve a project before the Authority can start operations.

WHY REDEVELOP THE WEST END?

Why was the West End chosen for study as a place for redevelopment project, when it is not the oldest nor the most dilapidated part of Boston? This question has two answers. First, although it is not our worst residential area, it is the most substandard—no longer an asset to Boston but a liability.

Second, of the many areas that might have been studied, the West End seems to have the best chance of being rebuilt into a modern neighborhood because of its good location near the Charles River with its recreational areas, and near good transportation.

The first answer may cause argument: to people who have lived there a long time, the West End may not seem "substandard." But the preliminary studies made by the Housing Authority show that it is. Here are some of the results of this study:

1. The lots are too small, and the buildings are overcrowded on the land. They are so crowded that there is less sunlight and air in many dwellings than is needed for healthy living.

2. Only one out of every five apartments is in good condition inside. In spite of some remodeling and a few well-maintained buildings, three out of five apartments are in such poor condition that they are beyond repair. The streets are too narrow to handle the traffic; there is no room for all the parked and moving cars, and widening is impossible.

3. There are no places where play spaces for the children, many of whom must play in the streets. The schools are outdated and inadequate; the sharp drop in school enrollment shows that many families with children have moved out to less congested areas.

4. Almost the strongest proof is that only half as many people live in the West End now as did 1910: 100,000 people have moved out than have moved in. But still it is highly overcrowded.

These facts, and others like them, add up to a picture of a neighborhood that is not the fault of the people of the West End; it is not the people who are substandard, but their neighborhood. The only way it can be remade is by tearing down the heavy neighborhood as it is, moving many of its blocks and rebuilding with modern, well-spaced structures.

WHAT IS THE WEST END PROJECT?

After studying the existing substandard conditions in the West End, the Authority made a study of what kind of rebuilding could be done. Under the law the Authority cannot itself build the new structures needed. It is limited by law to buying substandard areas, clearing the buildings, and providing new streets and underground utilities. Then the land must be sold to private firms who agree to build the new buildings. The new construction will be carefully controlled so that the area will continue to be a good one in the future.

The studies showed that some parts of the West End did not need redevelopment, and that if the worst blocks were improved, these fairly good areas could be allowed to remain. The area that the Authority decided was the best to redevelop is outlined on the map on the opposite page.

A New Plan for the West End.

For this project area a plan was prepared showing the different uses to which the land could be put. The area along the Charles River is suitable for apartment houses. The area along Lowell street next to the Elevated is best for industry and light manufacturing. Other areas should be used for playgrounds, schools, or housing as shown on the "Re-use Plan" on the following page. The streets, streets, and streets, and streets, there are in the West End now. This plan was designed to make the West End into a pleasant, modern neighborhood.

It is not a final plan. Instead, it is a first sketch of what urban redevelopment can do to make the West End a better place to live in, both for the people in the new buildings and for those who remain in the blocks that will not be torn down. The Authority will ask the approval of the City Council to borrow money from the Federal Government to make the final studies needed.

Further study is now needed, not to prove that such a plan for the West End ought to be torn down, but to find out just what kind of rebuilding would be sound and practical, and to make sure that the project would result in a better living conditions for most of the people now living there.

The Reason for Redevelopment.

But the most important reason for redevelopment of the West End is to get rid of existing bad conditions—to improve the living conditions of people who now live there, and relieve the city of the expense of paying for fire protection and the like which go with substandard areas. Redevelopment is not undertaken for the benefit of new residents and new investors, but for the benefit of all the people of Boston. The best plan for rebuilding is needed so that the cost of the clearance operation will be as little as possible, so that the aid to the federal government, which contributes also.

What Will Happen to the People?

If this project were to go through as now planned, there would be only about 1,000 apartments in an area where there are nearly 2,300 families and 900 single persons now. Even if every person in the new buildings would be used for present residents of the area, there would be room only for one family in three. Unfortunately the present high cost of construction means that many of the new apartments would be too expensive for most of the people who now live in the West End. However, the Authority has made plans to move every family that would have to leave. If after final study the project goes ahead, this is what will happen:

First, apartments in public low-rent housing projects now operated by the Authority will be made available. Families displaced by the West End project will be given the priority to get into public housing. The income limits will be raised for them as well. Six out of every ten families will be eligible for public housing. A state law guarantees the priority to eligible families who are displaced.

Second, the Authority will find private apartment or house projects that can be moved at rents they can afford to pay for the remaining families. A special office will be set up in the West End to help these people, and also to help the single people who live in the project area to find new places to live. This relocation program is so large that it will take several years before it can be completed.

You do not have to worry about finding a new place to live. It is the responsibility of the Authority to do this for you, when and if it comes time for you to move. The Federal law requires that you must be relocated in a decent, safe, sanitary apartment at a price you can afford to pay, or there can be no project.

Owners Protected Also.

Those who own buildings in the West End project area are also protected. If a building is acquired by the Authority, the fair value will be paid for it. The price offered will not be the assessed value, which is often lower than what the building is worth. If the owner is not satisfied with the price offered, the courts will decide what is a fair price.

People who operate stores or businesses in the project area will be notified well in advance of when they have to move. They will be given an opportunity to bid on land in the proposed retail area of the project, but it must be recognized that with only the demand as many people in the redeveloped area, there just will not be enough business to support most of the retail stores in the West End now. The Authority will do its best to help storekeepers to find new locations elsewhere in the City where that is possible.

What Is Being Done Now?

At the present time the West End project is only a plan, and it is a preliminary plan that may be changed. There are several stages that an urban redevelopment project must go through before any houses can be bought or any people can be relocated.

1. The first stage of the preliminary study; this stage has been completed by the Housing Authority and a report on it has been sent to the City Council.

2. If the City Council is willing the Housing Authority can then begin the second stage, which is called the Final Study. In this stage, if the study proves that the project will be a success and the Authority decides to go ahead, the project boundaries will be set, the project will then be sent to the City Council for approval. A public hearing will be held.

3. After the Preliminary Study and the Final Plan have been approved, the Authority borrows money from the Federal Government and begins to lay out the project area in the project area, to relocate the families, and to clear the land. This loan will be paid back partly by the sale of project land to builders, partly by the city and partly by a grant from the U. S. Government itself.

What does all this mean? It means this to the people of the West End: Nothing will be done to the West End until the next year, at least, probably for two years. Final studies, approval of plans, and a loan contract take a long time. Before anything is done, the project is torn down. Before any one has to move, the Authority will tell you what is going to happen. This is what you should remember.

Tenants: The Housing Authority will find you a new place to live. Don't worry; don't move unless you planned to anyhow. You will be informed well before you have to move and helped to find a new and better home.

Owners: The Housing Authority will pay a fair price for any land or building it takes. You are protected.

Under the federal law it is the responsibility of the Housing Authority to place every family in a decent, safe, and sanitary dwelling at rents they can afford to pay or there won't be any project.

INFORMATION ON NEW SURGICAL SERVICES PROGRAM AT CITY HOSPITAL.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 6, 1953.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith, with reference to the order recently adopted by your Honorable Body, a general explanation of the organizational changes in the surgical service of the Boston City Hospital.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

The Boston City Hospital,

July 2, 1953.

James W. Manary, M.D.,
Superintendent and Medical Director.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

I am forwarding to you a communication concerning the reorganization of the Surgical Service at the Boston City Hospital.

Very truly yours,

RICHARD J. CONDON,
President, Board of Trustees.

The Boston City Hospital, desirous of giving the best possible care to the patient has, like many large municipal hospitals throughout the country, been identified with medical schools and medical teaching almost since its inception. It has been affiliated with Harvard Medical School for approximately 80 years, with Tufts Medical School for 60 years and with Boston University School of Medicine for 20 years. As time has gone on, this affiliation with medical schools has become closer and closer. At the present time all the medical services, all the specialty services and two surgical services are closely allied with medical schools. It has been and is the belief of the Trustees of the Boston City Hospital, as well as of trustees of other leading hospitals, that the best care is rendered the patient by close affiliation with teaching institutions.

The best patient care is closely associated with medical education and research. This is particularly true in the field of surgery. It is important that reorganization take place from time to time in order to effect an efficient working program. The recent surgical reorganization is an important step in this direction.

A few years ago the surgical services at the Boston City Hospital lost "full approval" as training centers for "resident surgeons." This phrase "full approval" needs further elaboration. "Approval" is given by an organization called the American Board of Surgery formed by the American Surgical Association, the American College of Surgeons, and the Surgical Section of the American Medical Association. This Board was founded in 1898 for the purpose of approving surgical residents training programs in hospitals throughout the United States. At the end of World War II the armed forces needed more surgeons than could be trained in civilian surgery before starting practice. In addition, hundreds of other men graduating from medical schools needed further intensive training to bring the new knowledge of surgery to the public on a nation-wide basis. In order to stimulate hospitals to make the best of their opportunities the Board set up various committees to grade the training of all hospital programs. When the Boston City Hospital was graded in 1949 by the surgical services were given less than "full approval." Previously Harvard Medical School had withdrawn its supervision of surgical teaching at the Boston City Hospital because of dissatisfaction with the organization of its surgical service although it retained its affiliation with the hospital. Following certain changes in personnel and in supervision of the Boston University teaching service and the Tufts Medical School teaching service and the former Harvard teaching service, "full approval" was given to these three services between 1950-1952.

Two other surgical services were improved. In order to obtain approval for the entire surgical side of the hospital, having in mind the best possible care of the patients, a plan was suggested whereby the general services would be reorganized. After a series of surgical staff and committee meetings and consultation with other department heads in the hospital, as well as with the administrative heads and the trustees, such a reorganization was recommended and approved by the Board at a full surgical staff meeting (30 to 60).

There has been no change so far as the surgical staff roster of the hospital is concerned with this reorganization. The structure of the surgical services has been withdrawn from the general surgical services and incorporated in the Orthopedic Service. No staff members have been dropped. It is expected that every staff member will do as much work as he did before.

It is believed that a higher quality of intern and resident will be attracted to the approved services. This has already worked out favorably on services that have been previously approved.

It is believed that this plan of reorganization will result in greater economy. With both the general services and the concentration of responsibility, and a higher type of resident surgeon available within the hospital, it is fair to assume that the surgical care of the patients will continue to improve.

Referred to the Committee on Hospitals.

DEMONSTRATIONS OF SAILING PROGRAM IN CERTAIN SECTIONS.

Coun. FOLEY offered the following:

Whereas, Constant experimentation with new forms of recreational activities is the only practical method of assuring that the recreational program of the Park Department is in constant adjustment with changing conditions, habits and interests of the people; and

Whereas, It appears possible to determine experimentally at very little, if any, cost to the City of Boston whether an expansive sailing program in areas of high population density would be of substantial service to those areas and whether it would excite interest in the said districts; and

Whereas, A brief demonstration of the Park Department Sailing Program in the Bayswater Section of East Boston and the Pleasure Bay Section of South Boston would be but a negligible subtraction from the Charles River and Jamaica Pond Program; be it therefore

Resolved, That the Boston City Council is of the opinion that the Park Department could and should conduct this year brief two- or three-day demonstrations of its sailing program in the Bayswater Section of East Boston and the Pleasure Bay Section of South Boston.

OFFICIAL CHRONICLE OF BOSTON MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS.

Vol. 45

SATURDAY, JULY 25, 1953.

No. 30

ALL BOSTON, THE STATE, AND THE NATION BOWED SORROWING HEADS WITH GRIEVING HEARTS TO MOURN THE SUDDEN DEMISE OF FORMER MAYOR MAURICE J. TOBIN—PRESIDENT TRUMAN AND OTHER NATIONAL LEADERS JOINED WITH HUMBLEST FELLOW CITIZENS IN PAYING TRIBUTE TO MAN ARCHBISHOP CUSHING TERMED "A GREAT, GOOD MAN"—SYMPATHY EXTENDED TO FAMILY THROUGHOUT LONG HOURS OF VIGIL FROM DEATH TO LAST RITES AT GRAVE.

All Boston bowed its head in grief. All the state and the nation shared the grief of the family of Maurice J. Tobin, whose earthly remains were laid tenderly away on Wednesday in their last resting place, the burial lot of the family in Holyhood Cemetery, Brookline. Boston's beloved and much honored citizen was called away from all earthly cares suddenly on Sunday morning, leaving behind him a name and memories that will last however many years come and go. He was, as Archbishop Richard J. Cushing said in his eulogy, "a great and a good man."

Distinguished men and women from former President Harry S. Truman down to the humblest citizen whose good fortune it was to meet and know Boston's former Mayor, the state's former Governor, and the nation's Secretary of Labor, shocked at the news of the death as they were, with grieving hearts gave the family their sympathy and urged courage and faith in God to bear them up in this their darkest hour, at the late home, at the services at the Cathedral of the Holy Cross, and at the interment in the cemetery. Grief and tears filled the hearts of all.

3,000 in Church.

Burial services followed a pontifical mass of requiem at the Cathedral, with thousands filling the church and all adjacent space that was available. At least 3,000 persons packed the church to share in the ceremonies, featured by the presence of His Eminence Cardinal Spellman, former President Truman, Secretary of Labor Martin Durkin, Governor Herter, United States Senators John P. Kennedy and Leverett Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Senator James Murray of Montana, former Navy Secretary John J. Sullivan, former Attorneys General James P. McGranary and Howard McGrath, and representatives of labor unions and veteran and fraternal and military organizations who had special places in the Cathedral reserved for their units.

Governor Dennis J. Roberts of Rhode Island attended with a delegation of public officials from his state. More than 50 priests from Greater Boston churches were on the altar.

At the Cemetery.

The funeral cortege arrived in Holyhood Cemetery at 12:20. At the grave responses were chanted by St. John's Seminary Choir. The seminarians had motored from their summer camp in Meredith, New Hampshire, to do final honor.

The firing squad was in charge of Col. John Pickett, chief of staff of the 26th Division. The bugler was from the 26th Division band, and Lt. Col. Leo Donovan, chaplain of the division, assisted in the services.

The Tobin family stood alone at one side of the grave—Mrs. Tobin, her daughters, Helen Louise, Carol Ann, and her son, Maurice, Jr. Near them were Mayor John B. Hynes, former Mayor James M. Curley, his son, George, and former Governor Dever. More than 3,000 other mourners were present.

Cardinal Spellman and ex-President Truman stood openly weeping at the other side of the grave. When the final commitment prayers had ended, before leaving the grave, both ex-President Truman and Cardinal Spellman, tears in their eyes, turned to Mrs. Tobin. The former President pressed her hand warmly, and that of her son, and spoke a few quiet words of sympathy.

William Arthur Reilly, chairman of the Boston Traffic Commission, headed a list of ushers who carried out their duties with the aid of Thomas J. Hagerty, cathedral chief usher and his staff.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,
Ensured by thy sons' and thy daughters' unselfish devotion."

NATHAN HASKELL DOLE.

MAJOR HYNES VETOES INCREASE IN VACATION TIME FOR POLICE AND FIREMEN.

On July 15 the following communication was made public by the Mayor's office:
To the City Council.

GENTLEMEN:

I return herewith, without my signature and disapproval, the order adopted by your Honorable Body of July 13, 1953, accepting chapter 384 of the Acts of 1949. This act provides for the liberalizing of vacations for policemen and firemen. Acceptance of this statute would, normally, result in the liberalizing of vacation allowances for all city employees. In my opinion, the present vacation allowances are generous and any further liberalizing of the vacation period for city employees would, necessarily, result in increased expenses to the city which the city cannot, at this time, assume.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with business firms and contractors for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from heads of departments interested were as follows:

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, May 15, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Board of Assessors is desirous of entering into a contract with Remington Rand, Inc., for furnishing accessory tabulating equipment for the department. The total cost would not exceed $1,985.50. Inasmuch as this accessory equipment is to be used on Remington Rand punched card accounting machines owned by the Assessing Department and Remington Rand, Inc., is the only company which can provide this additional equipment upon its own machines, no purpose will be served by advertising for bids.

Therefore, your consent for this department to enter into a contract with this company, without publicly advertising for bids, is hereby requested.

Very truly yours,

BOARD OF ASSESSORS,
by EDMUND J. BURKE,
Chairman.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, July 2, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

I respectfully request your Honor's approval to award a contract, without advertising, to Samuel J. Hingston, 326 Medford street, Charlestown, Mass., to repair and refinish pupils' furniture in the English High School.

This work includes repairs to approximately 1,300 pieces of pupils' furniture and teachers' furniture (approximately 200 of the repaired desks will have to have the lids removed, replaned, and reset) and the refinishing of approximately 700 pieces of pupils' and teachers' furniture, all in accordance with the standard specifications of the Department of School Buildings for such work.

Although it is practically impossible to determine the exact amount of work required, it is estimated, based on survey conducted at the building, that the cost will not exceed $3,000. A resident inspector will be assigned to this work; he will be required to keep a force account of the operation. The contractor shall submit an itemized bill covering all phases of the work, and approval of this account shall be in the customary manner.

It is my opinion that in this particular instance the best interests of the City of Boston are being preserved by awarding a contract, without advertising, and I respectfully request your permission so to do.

As many weeks will be required to perform this work and as it must be completed not later than September 4, 1953, it is imperative that the contract be awarded without delay.

Respectfully yours,

EDWARD M. O'FLAHERTY,
Acting Superintendent of Construction.

BOSTON, July 10, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your permission is respectfully requested to amend the contract of William L. Murray, 125 Hewlett street, Roslindale, to do, plastering, carpentry, masonry, reinforcing, and other work incidental to the emergency work described in my letter of June 10, 1953, at the John A. Andrew School. The amount of the amendment is for $1,800, to be added to $4,900, the amount of the original contract which was approved by your Honor on June 11, 1953.

As stated in the letter of June 10, 1953, the estimate for the work was based on conditions which were exposed only in part, and as additional work has been found necessary as the investigation progressed, I now deem it imperative and in the best interest of the city to ask permission to amend his contract. The building is to be painted in its entirety during the summer vacation, and, as many cracks and bulges in the plaster have been found throughout the building, it is good judgment that they should be corrected at this time. Also I request your approval to omit public advertising.

Respectfully yours,

EDWARD M. O'FLAHERTY,
Acting Superintendent of Construction.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

BOSTON, July 14, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The Board of Overseers of the Public Welfare respectfully requests your permission to award a contract for a period of 12 months from July 15, 1953, for expert services as consultant to the Board.

For the past year Miss Hardwick has served as consultant to the Board, and her services have been of inestimable value. Miss Hardwick has been actively engaged in social work for many years, and her ability and reputation in the social work field are widely recognized.

The amount of the contract will not exceed $3,000 for the 12-month period. Due to the nature of the services to be performed, public advertising would not be advisable.

Very truly yours,

JOSEPH K. COLLINS,
Chairman.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 7, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The Board of Park Commissioners respectfully requests your permission to enter into a contract, without advertising, with the Congan Engineering Company, 9 Pleasant street, Malden, Mass., for the seal coat surfacing of the McArthur and Beacon Street Malls on Boston Common.

The Congan Company will pressure wash the entire area of the existing surfaces of the malls, will clean and repair all holes, cracks, and other defects prior to applying the seal coat surfacing. They will then apply two separate coats of Jennite J-16, at the total uniform rate of two gallons per 100 square feet of pavement surface. The total price for this work, including all materials, labor, trucking, etc., is figured on a unit price of 45 cents per square yard, for an approximate area of 10,200 square yards, at a total cost not to exceed $4,650.

The Congan Engineering Company is the exclusive agent for Jennite surface preparation in this part of the country, and therefore it is not possible to obtain quotations from any other source. We have had experience with this company in the past and are satisfied that the product which they manufacture is as fine a road surfacing product and preservative as has come to our attention.

We therefore believe that nothing will be gained by advertising for bids and respectfully request that we be allowed to dispense with public advertising for this work and to award a contract to the Congan Engineering Company for doing the above-described work at a price not to exceed $4,650, to be charged to the regular budget appropriation Item 266.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Chairman.

BOSTON, July 14, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

This year we again expect exceptionally large crowds to attend our night baseball and football games and our Sunday football games. It therefore becomes a necessity that some of these fields be roped, particularly those fields where games in our top league are to be played.

From our experience we find that it is more satisfactory and economical to employ a contractor to rope off the playgrounds for these games. If the Park Department purchased all the ropes and stakes that are required, it would be quite expensive. In addition to the costs of the ropes and stakes, we would be required to operate at least six department trucks on each Sunday, with a crew of three men to a truck, all of whom would have to be paid overtime. Also, we would probably suffer the loss of ropes and stakes.

Last year we obtained bids from various contractors to do this work and the low bidder who performed this work was F. C. Dolan & Sons.

They have offered to do the work this year at the same unit prices bid on last year's contract.

As they did an excellent job on this type of work last year and have the necessary experience and equipment to do the work, we feel that it would be in the best interest of the city to accept their offer.

Therefore, it is respectfully requested that the Board of Park Commissioners be allowed to award a contract, without advertising publicly, for roping and staking playgrounds, as explained above, to F. C. Dolan & Sons, 18 Aldworth street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for a sum not to exceed $4,970, same to be charged to the regular budget Item 299, Park Department.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, July 15, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Public Works Department has submitted a requisition for two Teller & Cooper four contact treadles, 9 feet 0 inches long, for the Sumner Tunnel.

Teller & Cooper, Inc., the manufacturer of the above treadles, has submitted an informal quotation. Inasmuch as this company is the manufacturer, authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and to award a contract, without public advertisement, to Teller & Cooper, Inc. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,500, net.

Respectfully yours,

EUGENE K. WELSH,
Acting Superintendent of Supplies.

EXTENSION OF CONTRACTS.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Approval has been given for an extension of time for the completion of the contract with S. Rosenthal & Son, Inc., for painting fire escapes, etc., at various schools in District 4, from June 30, 1953, to August 31, 1953. This extension was requested because of a misunderstanding in the interpretation of specifications which delayed completion of the work.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Domenick Puleo has been allowed to amend the contract for additions and alterations to fire house, Long Island Hospital, as follows:

By substituting as the date of completion of the work "July 15, 1953," in place of June 29, 1953.

The reason for this extension was the delay in receiving underground pipe and three steel lockers, which are special made and mistake was made by locker company for the amount needed.

All provisions of the said contract, except as specifically modified by this agreement, shall continue in full force and effect.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given for an extension of time for the completion of the contract with John McCourt Company, 910 Huntington avenue, Boston, for bituminous concrete pavement in Clement avenue, Farmington road, and Westbourne street, from May 31, 1953, to June 10, 1953. This extension was requested because of inclement weather in early spring and delayed the completion of Westbourne street.

Approval has been given for an extension of time for the completion of the contract with D. A. Rossano Construction Company, Inc., 401 Border street, East Boston, for safety barriers in Wards 1, 3, 6, 13, 16, 18, 19, 20, and 22, from June 30, 1953, to August 1, 1953. This extension was requested because the contractor was required to perform additional work under the contract.

OMIT AND SUBSTITUTE WORK UNDER CONTRACT.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Daddario-Piatelli has been directed to omit and substitute the following work under the contract for section 17, Stony Brook, Hyde Park, dated May 29, 1953:

Start jacked section of 24-inch diameter reinforced concrete pipe at Stations 23 and 47 instead of at Stations 23 and 62 as shown on the contract plan. This will increase Item 4 of the contract by 15 feet at $300 per foot, an increase of $4,500. It will decrease Item 2 of the contract by 15 feet at $58 per foot, a decrease of $870. Estimated net increase in contract, $3,630.

ADDITIONS TO CONTRACT.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

John J. Botli has been ordered to make the following additions to the contract for the E. P. Tilston School:

Remove present asphalt footpath from yard paving to Fremont Place entrance and do necessary excavation and grading to replace same with driveway 12 feet wide. New drive to be constructed to grades established by engineer and is to have 6-inch gravel base course with 1½-inch asphalt binder and 1½-inch asphalt rice mix top, all as per contract specifications.

Furnish and set 2 P. W. D. regulation granite corners, remove present granolithic sidewalk and estestone and construct standard flush-type drive over sidewalk, 6-inch concrete, 1:2 ½:5 mix, with 2-inch granolithic top.

Do all necessary grading to sides of driveway and remove all debris and excess materials from premises.

Total additions, $700, and the amount of $700 will be added thereto, making the account as follows: contract price, $6,575; total additions, $700; amount of contract, $7,575.

FIRE DEPARTMENT ORDERS.

General Order No. 35.

MAYOR'S CHARITY FIELD DAY—APPRECIATION.

Under date of June 9 my first General Order was issued asking for the support of the members of the Boston Fire Department for the Mayor's Charity Field Day held July 6, 1953, at Fenway Park.

At that time a pledge was made that the show would be as good as we had ever seen in New England. It was also stated that all of the funds realized from this show would go directly into the channels of aiding our ailing and afflicted neighbors, and particularly little children, as well as to organized charities ministering to all races and creeds.

All of the reports of the quantity and quality of the entertainment and sports program indicate that it was the best show ever. Furthermore, it appears that it was the largest and best attended show of its kind, and we do know that it showed a greater profit than at any time previously.

You may be certain that under Mayor John B. Hynes' direction the funds will be dispersed carefully and with justice.

It is with some measure of pride that I report to you of the splendid record of support given by the members of our department. We exceeded our quota by more than 35 per cent, selling more than 3,000 tickets in all divisions of the Fire Department, which represents an all-time record.

Although a member of our companion force won the Cadillac convertible sedan, we did succeed in winning the Tug-of-War, and we believe every patron enjoyed the evening.

I know you will feel gratified to share in the blessings which come to those who aid in helping our needy ones.

In behalf of Mayor Hynes and the Field Day Committee, I extend my deep-felt gratitude for your loyal and generous assistance.

By order of Fire Commissioner
JOHN F. COTTER.

JOHN V. STAPLETON,
Chief of Department.

General Order No. 36.

Company commanders will make the above change in designation for Box 12-7136 on assignment card for Box 7136.

MR. JOHN F. COTTER,
Fire Commissioner.

DEAR MR. COTTER:

I wish to express my appreciation and that of Mrs. Howard for the efficiency with which the officers and men of your department fought the fire at our house at 124 Beacon street. We are deeply grateful for their good work. We shall also appreciate it if you will convey our thanks to them.

Very sincerely,

CHARLES F. HOWARD.

The Reverend Emmet Mulligan, O.F.M., of St. Anthony's Catholic Shrine, Boston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. EMMET MULLIGAN.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Almighty and Eternal God, Merciful Father, heed us gathered in Thy Name to seek Thy blessing; hear our prayer, we beseech Thee.

Ever mindful of our sinfulness and our human frailties, we beg Thee by Thy Grace to make up for our deficiencies that we may faithfully and sincerely fulfill the responsibilities of our office.

Send Thy Spirit to enlighten our hearts, so that we may not be swayed by selfish human considerations or desire for worldly gain.

Illumine our minds, that we may see the problems on which we are about to act in their true perspective. May our judgments be impartial and just in imitation of Thee, Thou all just Judge of the living and the dead. Strengthen our wills, that we may have the courage steadfastly to follow our judgments and always choose what is pleasing in Thy sight, for Thy greater honor and glory and for the good of the people of this city.

Direct us, O Lord, who are ever conscious that what power we exercise comes from Thee. Help us never to abuse the confidence placed in us by those who have elected us to this position of trust. May our wills be ever in conformity with Thine, Who liveth and reigneth with the Son and the Holy Spirit, forever and ever. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

NEW ENGLAND IN FEDERAL SAVINGS ASSOCIATIONS.

All of the 54 Federal savings associations in New England are part of a nation-wide thrift system which includes some 1,500 institutions whose total resources exceeded $5,000,000,000 as of December 31, 1950. Each association is a truly mutual institution owned by its members. All members share in the net earnings of the association in proportion to their holdings, after operating expenses and legal reserves have been allocated in accordance with charter regulations.

Funds in these Federal savings and loan associations are legal investments for trusts and are widely used by trustees, conservators and attorneys, as well as by credit unions, cemetery associations, and municipal fund investors. No fines or fees or any other assessment may be levied against savings funds in these institutions.

BOSTON MAKES PLANS TO REPAIR 1,000 MORE WATER METERS AT SAVING TO CITY—MAYOR HYNES HAS APPROVED REQUEST OF COMMISSIONER OF PUBLIC WORKS TO HAVE WORK DONE BY WORTHINGTON CORPORATION AT $10.60 PER METER.

The City of Boston is undertaking to repair 1,000 more of the so-called "Watch Dog" water meters, and Mayor Hynes has approved the request of the Public Works Commissioner to award the contract without advertising. The contract is awarded to the Worthington-Gamon Division of the Worthington Corporation at the same price per meter as the first 1,000.

The request for approval is contained in the following communication:

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT.

Boston, July 16, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under date of November 26, 1952, the authority of your Honor was obtained to dispense with advertising and to award a contract in the amount of $10,600 to the Worthington-Gamon Meter Division of the Worthington Corporation, to repair 1,000 so-called "Watch Dog" water meters at $10.60 each. It was advisable to award this contract to the above-referenced manufacturer, as the "Watch Dog" meter is a product of the Worthington Corporation, and it would be most impractical to attempt to obtain publicly advertised proposals for repairing the meters. The price of $10.60, in our opinion, was reasonable and represented a substantial saving to the city over and

ANNUAL BOAT SAIL FOR PATIENTS AT LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL.

Mayor Hynes sponsored, on Thursday, July 30, through the Health and Recreation Committee at Long Island Hospital, a boat sail for the patients at the hospital. This is the third annual sail, and 300 patients are expected to enjoy the sail.

Music, entertainment, and a buffet lunch will feature the occasion. Doctors and nurses will be in attendance.

In the past, sailing under the Long Island Viaduct and the Mystic River Bridge has thrilled the patients. Recently 150 patients enjoyed a bus ride sponsored by Mrs. John B. Hynes, to various spots of interest around the city.

PLANS UNDER WAY TO MAKE ZOO AT FRANKLIN PARK EQUAL OF ANY LIKE INSTITUTION IN COUNTRY—MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES HAS APPROVED REQUEST OF CHAIRMAN KELLEY OF PARK DEPARTMENT TO RETAIN FIRM OF ARCHITECTS TO MAKE PLANS FOR REHABILITATION AND RESTOCKING OF BOSTON'S BEST PUBLIC AMUSEMENT SPOT.

If the plans of Mayor John B. Hynes and the Park Commissioners for the zoo at Franklin Park are completed as outlined in a matter of a few years, that public amusement institution will be fully as complete in animal specimens and zoological specimens as any like institution in the entire country.

Up until Mayor Hynes took office the zoo, its exhibits, and buildings had been allowed to deteriorate and fall into disrepair until it was no longer an interesting spot for both citizens and visitors. In the intervening years, however, structures have been substantially rehabilitated—and corrals and cages have been restocked.

The Board has been encouraged to hope that in the immediate future public interest will be so awakened that charitable gifts and moneys will be made available for an ambitious program of expansion.

In anticipating this possibility, Mayor Hynes has approved the request of Commissioner Chairman Kelley to secure the services of a distinguished firm of architects, Arthur A. Shurcliff and Sidney N. Shurcliff, to draft the plans for the improvements contemplated. The communication seeking authority for the work reads as follows:

PARK DEPARTMENT.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

When your Honor took office in 1950, you found the Franklin Park Zoo with a paucity of exhibits and its buildings in disrepair. In the intervening years the structures have been substantially rehabilitated and, so far as financially possible, the corrals and cages have been restocked. The Board of Park Commissioners hopes that in the years that lie immediately ahead there will be sufficient charitable gifts and public moneys available to embark upon a program of expansion. If these funds are to be actually attracted and wisely spent, the expansion program should be soundly planned by landscape architects who have some knowledge of zoos.

Investigation has disclosed the firm of Arthur A. Shurcliff and Sidney N. Shurcliff, doing business as partners, with offices at 14 Beacon street, Boston, to be eminently qualified in this field. The original Franklin Park Zoo was planned by the senior member of the firm, and in recent years the junior member has visited the zoos at New Orleans, Louisiana; San Antonio, Texas; Stockholm, Sweden; Copenhagen, Denmark; Paris, France; and in Regents Park and Whipsnade, London, England.

Because of the highly professional nature of the services involved, no useful purpose would appear to be served by inviting bids for the work by advertisement in the City Record. Accordingly, authority is hereby respectfully requested to dispense with advertising in awarding a contract to Arthur A. Shurcliff and Sidney N. Shurcliff, doing business as partners, with offices at 14 Beacon street, Boston, for making, at a cost to the city of $9,500, a study of the zoo area of Franklin Park (other than Long Crouch Woods) and a report recommending a plan for the improvement and expansion thereof over a twelve-year period.

Respectfully,

BOARD OF PARK COMMISSIONERS,

by FRANK R. KELLEY,
Chairman.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,

above the amount that new meters would cost. The above-referenced manufacturer has satisfactorily completed the work provided in the above-referenced contract and has submitted another proposal, agreeing to repair an additional 1,000 meters at the same unit price of $10.60 each.

As no advantage would accrue to the city by publicly advertising for proposals, and as the price submitted is reasonable, I respectfully request that you authorize me to dispense with advertising and to award a contract in the amount of $10,600 to the Worthington-Gamon Meter Division of the Worthington Corporation, for the repairing of 1,000 "Watch Dog" meters at $10.60 each. It is understood that the City of Boston will pay the transportation charges for delivery of meters to the plant of the Worthington Corporation, and that said corporation, in turn, will prepay the freight of the rebuilt meters to Boston.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Upon July 22 the Mayor approved a contract with William R. Wheeler, Jr., for installation of synchronous clock system at the Roxbury Memorial High School for Girls. Bids, opened July 20, were as follows:

William R. Wheeler, Jr., $1,823; John R. Lentine, $1,875; Ralph E. Dixon, $2,300; Aetna Electric Company, $3,180.

Upon July 23 the Mayor approved a contract with contractors as indicated in the following letter:

Boston, July 20, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

In response to an advertisement in the City Record of June 20, 1953, the following list of bids for installing manhole and manhole plates and fusible plugs on steam boilers in various schools was received and publicly opened and read aloud on June 29, 1953:

District 1—Patrick Ross Company, $1,874; Joseph F. Dwyer, $2,375; Joseph P. O'Hearn, $2,465; Powers & Mehegan Company, $2,335; Herbert E. McCarron Company, $2,587.

District 2—Patrick Ross Company, $1,874; Joseph F. Dwyer, $2,345; Joseph

P. O'Hearn, $2,495; Powers & Mehegan Company, $2,390; Herbert E. McCarron Company, $2,634.

District 3.—Patrick Ross Company, $1,450; Joseph F. Dwyer, $2,160; Joseph P. O'Hearn, $2,135; Powers & Mehegan Company, $2,180; Herbert E. McCarron Company, $2,495.

* Awarded by district.

Inasmuch as work of this description has always been performed by heating contractors, under the supervision of the Chief Engineer of the Heating and Ventilating Division of this department, and because of the safety of the boilers involved, it is my opinion that to award the contract to the second lowest responsible bidder in each district would be to the best interests of the City of Boston. The lowest bidder in each district, Patrick Ross Company, has submitted no evidence of having performed work of similar character.

Therefore, I request your approval to award contracts to the following bidders:

District 1. to Powers & Mehegan Company, 500 Broadway, South Boston, in the sum of $2,335.

District 2. to Joseph F. Dwyer, 103 Park street, West Roxbury, in the sum of $2,345.

District 3. to Joseph P. O'Hearn, 9 Columbia place, Dorchester, in the sum of $2,135.

Very truly yours,

EDWARD M. O'FLAHERTY,
Acting Superintendent of Construction.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Upon July 23 the Mayor approved a contract with contractor as requested in the following letter:

Boston, July 21, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

A serious condition has arisen at the L Street Bathhouse, relative to the heating plant, which has made necessary the installation of a new heating plant in the men's section of the bathhouse. Because of the emergency nature of the work, we asked for invitation proposals from five outstanding plumbing and heating concerns, rather than follow the lengthy procedure of having the work done under advertised contract.

The following bids were received and were opened at this office on July 20, 1953:

P. J. Riley & Co., $9,973; J. L. Sullivan & Co., $10,165; Fred Williams, Inc., $10,640; J. M. McCusker Company, $10,875; Joseph P. O'Hearn, $10,963.

The prices bid were very fair and within the estimate of the engineering division of this department. We believe the low bidder is well qualified to do the work required and that nothing would be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

We therefore respectfully request your authorization to dispense with public advertising for bids and to enter into a contract with the lowest invitation bidder, P. J. Riley & Co., 295 Highland street, Roxbury, for furnishing and installing a new heating plant at the men's section, L Street Bathhouse, South Boston, Mass., for the sum of $9,973, to be charged to the regular budget item 264, Park Department.

Respectfully yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY,
Chairman.

RECENT FEDERAL ACTIONS AFFECTING CITIES.

The Housing Act of 1949, approved on July 15, authorized a uniform 10 per cent payment to cities in lieu of taxes on housing projects, but the independent offices appropriation bill passed on August 15 contains a provision that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, only payments provided for in the original contract between the housing authority and the city are authorized for federal reimbursement.

Federal aid for hospital construction has been approved for nearly 800 projects; more than 600 are general hospitals and the great majority are in towns of under 10,000 population.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, July 20, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 p.m. President AHEARN in the chair, and all the members present.

The Reverend Justin O'Brien, C.P., of the Catholic Information Center, Boston, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. JUSTIN O'BRIEN.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. Amen.

O God, Who art in heaven, we realize only too well from the beginning of time all the troubles and woes of the human race have been due to the fact that men as individuals or as groups have wanted their own will and their own way upon earth rather than Thy will.

We beg Thee, therefore, to come to our assistance, to enlighten our minds, strengthen our wills and reinforce our determinations so that in these our deliberations we will strive to accomplish Thy will in all things for Thy greater glory and for the good of all who will in any way be affected by the exercise of our official duties. Through Christ Our Lord. Amen.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

DEATH OF MAURICE J. TOBIN.

President AHEARN—Gentlemen of the City Council, together with the City of Boston, our state and our nation, we grieve on the passing of Maurice J. Tobin, a fine citizen, a devoted public servant, a famous son of Massachusetts, and a great American, and out of respect to his memory, I now call upon you and all present to please rise to observe one minute of silent prayer. (A minute of silence was observed.)

The following resolution was offered by all the members of the City Council:

Whereas, The members of the Boston City Council have learned with deep regret and sorrow of the sudden and untimely death of Maurice J. Tobin, former Secretary of Labor of the United States, former Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, former Mayor of the City of Boston, former Chairman of the Boston School Committee, and former member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives; and

Whereas, The example he set of noble manhood and high achievement may well be emulated by the youth of our country; and

Whereas, He was a man of unswerving honesty, of high ability, of absolute fearlessness, sincerity and directness, whose motives and actions throughout a long and useful career were never even questioned, his life will remain an inspiration to his fellow citizens; and

Whereas, His life and achievements are a striking illustration of what may be accomplished in our country by courage and determination; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, hereby extends its sincere sympathy and condolence to the members of his family and prays God will give them the strength to carry on despite their tremendous loss.

The resolution was adopted by a unanimous rising vote.

President AHEARN—The Chair will state provision has been made for the transportation of the members of the City Council to the home of the former governor. We are honored to have joining with us Father O'Brien.

MAYOR APPROVES PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER'S PLANS FOR SURVEY OF JOHN F. FITZGERALD HIGHWAY.

and MacDonald has been chosen. The Mayor has approved. The letter from the Commissioner to the Mayor reads as follows:

CITY OF BOSTON,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, July 17, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts and the City of Boston have come to an agreement whereby a consulting engineer will be engaged to conduct an independent and objective study to determine the most practical route in which to construct the John F. Fitzgerald Overhead Highway, between Fort Hill square, City Proper, and Broadway. As you well know, the selection of the route of the overhead artery between the above-referenced points has been the subject of a great deal of discussion between the State Public Works Department and the officials of the City of Boston over the past several months. The majority of the city officials are in agreement with your Honor that, if possible, a satisfactory route should be selected, other than the one proposed through the leather district. However, the State Department leans heavily towards the leather district route, and Commissioner Volpe agreed to join with the city and have the entire subject matter reviewed by a third party.

We have jointly selected the eminent consulting engineering firm of Parsons, Brinkerhoff, Hall and MacDonald of 51 Broadway, New York City, to conduct the study and submit a report on this matter. We reached an agreement with the latter-referenced consultant this morning to the effect that said firm will undertake the study for a fixed fee of $12,500, of which the State will pay $6,250 and the City of Boston $6,250. The contract provides that the consultant will submit a report on this controversial subject within one month after the signing of the contract document. The actual contract will be between the consulting engineer and the State Department of Public Works, and the City of Boston and the State will enter into a separate agreement whereby Boston will agree to pay 50 per cent of the cost of the study and the State the remaining 50 per cent.

Because of the special, peculiar and unique nature of the proposed agreement, no useful purpose would be served by inviting bids by advertisement in the City Record. Accordingly, authority is hereby respectfully requested to dispense with advertising in making a contract whereby the city would agree to pay the Commonwealth $6,250 and the Commonwealth would agree to require the consultant, without cost or expense to the city, to confer with city officials, and take into account certain factors of great importance to the city, in formulating its report. It is further agreed that the consultant will include in the written report a full statement concerning the impact of the expressway on the surface street system of the city in the vicinity of the ramps and will furnish the city with copies of its report and confer with city officials relative to the same.

Respectfully yours,
GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

OVERSEERS OF PUBLIC WELFARE.

PARK DEPARTMENT.

Geraldine M. Campbell, 252 Eustis street, Roxbury, matron, $46.17 a week.

DEPARTMENTAL PROMOTION.

FIRE DEPARTMENT.

Approval has been given to the request contained in the following letter:

Boston, May 21, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

I note that in the City of Boston Fire Department Fire Fighting Force Compensation Plan under Group B the superintendent of maintenance is to be paid only $300 more than a district chief in the Fire Department.

For many years it has been the custom to assign a district chief from the Fire Fighting Force as superintendent of maintenance and because of the responsibility of the position he has been granted the pay of a deputy chief. In accordance with the proposed pay schedule his salary, if equal to a deputy chief, would be $7,500 per annum.

The present superintendent of maintenance, District Chief John A. Martin, has been assigned to that position since May 31, 1950.

He has full charge of the Maintenance Division and supervision over more than 100 employees, including civilian and uniformed members. He is responsible for the maintenance and repair of 55 Fire Department buildings, and all fire apparatus and other automobiles in the department. He is also charged with keeping the department supplied with all types of operating supplies and equipment, such as hose, fire fighting appliances, household supplies, automobile supplies and equipment, and other materials too numerous to mention.

I note that the Superintendent of the Fire Alarm Division has been granted the same salary as that of a deputy chief. In my opinion, the position of superintendent of maintenance carries responsibility at least equal to that of the Superintendent of Fire Alarm, and the superintendent of maintenance should, as has been the custom, be granted the same rate of pay as that of deputy chiefs and the Superintendent of Fire Alarm.

Respectfully yours,

MICHAEL T. KELLEHER,
Fire Commissioner.

The Mayor has approved the following veterans' applications for retirement:

John L. Fitzpatrick, 867 East Broadway, South Boston, laborer, Sanitary Division, Public Works Department.

Frank Amato, 375 Lovell street, East Boston, laborer, Tunnel Division, Public Works Department.

Timothy J. Leonard, 12 Withington street, Dorchester, junior building custodian, Dorchester High School for Boys.

John F. Gallagher, 29 Driscoll Drive, Dorchester, patrolman, Police Department.

CONTRACTS AWARDED.

Permission to award the contracts for work, materials, and supplies, in accordance with recommendations of department heads, has been approved by the Mayor.

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Upon July 27 the Mayor approved a contract with Atlas Roofing and Skylight Works for roofing work at the Rice School. Bids, opened July 26, were as follows:

In connection with the award the following explanation was given:

Burgess & Blacher Company was the lowest bidder. However, after bids were opened, Burgess & Blacher Company advised the department in writing that they had left out a large item from their bid and that they did not wish to negotiate a contract for this work, with the understanding they would forfeit their bid deposit check of $250 submitted with their proposal. The contract was then awarded to Cavanaugh & Earley, Inc., the second lowest bidder, in the amount of $5,375, and this award was approved by the Mayor on July 20, 1953.

After notifying Cavanaugh & Earley, Inc., of the award, a letter was received from them dated July 23, 1953, advising that in view of the fact that they were the second lowest bidders they felt that they would not get the contract and they have made commitments for work which will occupy their available manpower for the next two months. If work was not done until September it would present a serious problem of protection to school children playing around the building while work is being done and they do not wish to assume the responsibility this entails. Therefore, Cavanaugh & Earley, Inc., decline to sign the contract and are forfeiting their bid deposit check in the amount of $250.

After consulting with the Law Department, and with the approval of the Mayor, the contract was awarded to Atlas Roofing & Skylight Works, 151 Leverett street, the next lowest and eligible bidder, in the amount of $7,925.

Upon July 28 the Mayor approved a contract with Nicholas Bello for interior and exterior painting at the Agassiz School. Bids, opened July 27, were as follows:

Nicholas Bello, $7,205; R. Tweed & Son, $8,473; R & F Painting Company, $9,400; John M. Kennedy & Co., Inc., $10,290; General Painting Company, $10,700.

Upon July 28 the Mayor approved a contract with John F. Shea Company, Inc., for gutter and cornice renewal and related work at the W. L. P. Boardman School. Bids, opened July 27, were as follows:

John F. Shea Company, Inc., $3,405; Burgess & Blacher Company, $4,636; B. Feneno Company, $5,330; Atlas Roofing & Skylight Works, $5,792.

Upon July 28 the Mayor approved a contract with Nicholas Bello for interior and exterior painting, including fire escapas, at the Michelangelo School. Bids, opened July 27, were as follows:

Upon July 30 the Mayor approved a contract with John M. Kennedy & Co., Inc., for interior and exterior painting, including fire escapes, at the John G. Whittier School. Bids, opened July 28, were as follows:

John M. Kennedy & Co., Inc., $4,848; Joseph G. Gazzola, Inc., $5,260; R & F Painting Company, $5,455; John A. Ahern Company, $5,820; Nicholas Bello, $6,600.

Upon July 30 the Mayor approved a contract with John M. Kennedy & Co., Inc., for interior and exterior painting at the Ellen H. Richards School. Bids, opened July 26, were as follows:

John M. Kennedy & Co., Inc., $4,000; John D. Ahern Company, $4,628; Joseph G. Gazzola, Inc., $4,685; R & F Painting Company, $4,795; H. Piken & Co., $4,800; R. Tweed & Son, $4,864; Nicholas Bello, $6,475; Master Craft Company, $5,225.

APPOINTMENT BY THE MAYOR.

VETO OF ORDER RE VACATIONS FOR POLICEMEN AND FIREMEN.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 15, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I return herewith, without my signature and disapproval, the order adopted by your Honorable Body of July 13, 1933, accepting chapter 384 of the Acts of 1949. This act provides for the liberalization of vacations for policemen and firemen. Acceptance of this statute would, normally, result in the liberalizing of vacation allowances for all city employees. In my opinion, the present vacation allowances are generous and any further liberalizing of the vacation period for city employees would, necessarily, result in increased expense to the city which the city cannot at the time assume.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

The message and order were referred to the Executive Committee.

DEMONSTRATIONS OF SAILING PROGRAM IN CERTAIN SECTIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 20, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Park Department relative to your Resolve of July 6, 1933, that the department could and should conduct, this year, brief two- or three-day demonstrations of its sailing program in the Baywater Section of East Boston and the Pleasure Bay Section of South Boston.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, July 10, 1933.
Thomas G. J. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir: This will acknowledge memo from your office with attached enclosure. City Council order requesting that the Park Department conduct two- or three-day demonstrations of its sailing program in the Baywater Section of East Boston and the Pleasure Bay Section of South Boston, during this year.

We only have sufficient boats to operate the program in the Charles River Basin. Funds for the purchase of new boats, equipment, and the hiring of personnel were deleted from this year's budget.

To transfer the boats from the Charles River to these other locations would result in protest from the several hundred sailors who are now in the city to take part in our boating program on the Charles River.

The extension of this program to these other sections is worthy of consideration, but I believe it would be a mistake to start the program in these sections and then take it away from the citizens because of inability to operate the program for lack of equipment and personnel.

If funds are provided in the future you may be sure that we will be only too pleased to give serious consideration to the extension of the program.

Very truly yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY, Chairman.

THREE-DAY DEMONSTRATION OF PARK DEPARTMENT SAILING PROGRAM.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 20, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Acting Chairman of the Board of Recreation relative to your order of June 1, 1933, requesting a three-day demonstration of the Park Department sailing program in both the Baywater Section of East Boston water front and Pleasure Bay Section of the South Boston water front during the summer months.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Recreation, July 17, 1933.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Pursuant to your communication bearing date of June 3, 1933, with respect to the order of the Boston City Council of June 1, 1933, suggesting that some of the Park Department's fleet of sailboats be brought to South Boston and again to East Boston for a few days' demonstration in those waters, as an introduction to the youngsters of those districts of what a sailing program is, the better to gauge the worth-whileness of establishing permanent sailing playgrounds in those districts in future years, we wish to say that the effects of such demonstrations would be unkind and empty—even though the practical difficulties in the way of such demonstrations might be overcome.

The reasons for this judgment by the Recreation Board are as follows: The suggestion of the Council—on a motion by Councillor Foley—the Recreation Board revitalized its old recommendation that a sailing playground be established on Jamaica Pond.

The Park Department complied with the suggestion. Six sailboats—from its fleet of 16 on the Charles River Basin—were moved out to Jamaica Pond for the summer. Approximately 400 boys and girls enrolled and participated in this sailing school last summer on Jamaica Pond. About $2,000 was spent for salaries of supervisors.

The response from the community was enthusiastic, many local residents also writing or telephoning to the Park Department to applaud the beauty of the colored sails.

Accordingly, the Recreation Board last winter recommended in its annual report that the Park Department procure a fleet of 10 sailboats for Jamaica Pond at a cost of $5,000 and also spend up to $3,000 on a proper landing for these boats. The Park Department put these sums in its budget.

His Honor the Mayor allowed the taxpayers for that he believed that the taxpayers would not want to spend the $5,000 for the new sailboats, and he struck the item from the budget. Accordingly, the city, by raising, should also continue Jamaica Pond as a sailing playground this summer.

An eminently satisfactory demonstration through the whole of last summer has borne no fruit.

Sailing for children can only continue on Jamaica Pond this summer at the expense of again taking boats from the Charles River Basin project. Very inadvisable, then, to give the children of East Boston and South Boston a taste of a sailing playground in their home waters and then snatch it away again after a few days, with no prospect of its becoming a reality even in later years. The great mechanical and administrative difficulties of such demonstrations would bring no real follow fruit.

The Recreation Board does not believe that the taxpayers are wise in withholding $5,000 from new sailboats for Jamaica Pond. Properly considered as distributed over the 10-year or 20-year life of such sailboats, the original capital outlay would amount to only $250 or less per year.

In short, a full-scale sailing program on Jamaica Pond would cost $3,000 a year, including salaries, upkeep, and depreciation. This is less than half the annual cost of one of our 40 grass-coated baseball playgrounds.

About as many children will be found at any one time using a sailing playground as using a grass-covered playground ashore—with the exception of the twilight baseball games ashore that draw many spectators and justify the greater cost of a shore playground.

To create a playground ashore as big as Jamaica Pond would cost well over $1,000,000. Yet Jamaica Pond can be turned into a sailing playground for children for $5,000.

The Recreation Board is mindful that the roadmaps that fill Jamaica Pond make no charge upon delivery. They are cheaper than loam.

How can we justify sailing ventures in the waters of South Boston and East Boston, which are admittedly greater cost of landing facilities in tidal conditions, when simple and ideal Jamaica Pond has not yet gained the sailing flag?

Respectfully submitted,

O. PHILLIP SNOWDEN,
Acting Chairman.

COOPERATION BETWEEN CITY OF BOSTON AND "LITTLE LEAGUES."

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 17, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Acting Chairman of the Board of Recreation relative to your order of June 8, 1933, requesting to survey briefly the matter of cooperation between the City of Boston and the various Little Leagues throughout the city, that the opinion be furnished as to the advisability of the use of names "Little League," "Tony League," etc., by the city in its baseball program for juveniles and that such report be forwarded when available.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Board of Recreation, July 15, 1933.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor: Pursuant to your communication bearing date of June 24, 1933, with respect to the order of the Boston City Council of June 8, 1933, requesting that the Board of Recreation briefly survey the matter of cooperation between the City of Boston and the various Little Leagues throughout the city, that the Board of Recreation furnish its opinion as to the advisability of the use of names "Little League," "Tony League," etc., by the city in its baseball program for juveniles, we submit the following in answer thereto.

Our findings show that the Boston Park Department has been more than generous in cooperating with the Little Leagues and that further effort should emphasize adherence to the department's policy of building up teen-age ballplaying outside of the so-called Little Leagues, under any terminology for such teams as the Park Department wishes to use.

Respectfully submitted,

O. PHILLIP SNOWDEN,
Acting Chairman.

Referred to the Committee on Public Services and Recreation.

CONVEYANCE OF MARTIN J. RYAN PLAYGROUND, CHARLESTOWN, TO MTA.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, July 23, 1933.
To the City Council.
Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of July 13, 1933, requesting that no action whatsoever be taken in regard to the sale, lease, transfer or conveyance of any type of the Martin J. Ryan Playground, Sullivan square, Charlestown, to the MTA, as was requested by Mr. Dana,

General Manager of the MTA, according to the newspapers last week, and that any hearings in connection with same be public hearings.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston.

Park Department, July 21, 1953.

Thomas G. J. Shannon,

Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:

I am in receipt of a memo from your office, with attached enclosure, City Council order requesting that the Board of Park Commissioners take no action in regard to the sale, lease or transfer of the Ryan Playground, Charlestown, to the Metropolitan Transit Authority.

I might inform the Council that at a meeting of the Board of Park Commissioners held on July 20 the Board voted unanimously to give no consideration to the request of the Metropolitan Transit Authority for this property as it is vitally needed for park and playground purposes and for the development of a new playground with equipment, etc., which will be built by the Commonwealth of Massachusetts Public Works Department in agreement with that department which was made in 1950.

Very truly yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY, Chairman.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON 1953 TAX RATE.

The following was received:

City of Boston.

Finance Commission, July 20, 1953.
To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council.

There is little comfort for the Boston taxpayers in the result of the 1953 Finance Commission report on property taxation. Two years ago, when the rate reached $62.50, the Finance Commission's comment was that a rate as high as $70.00 was forecast at that time as a rate warranted by the existing circumstances "would have been little short of a disaster." The disastrous $70 has even been exceeded in 1953. A rate of $70.70 has been promulgated.

This new rate is $28.70 higher than it was in 1946, when World War II had not yet begun. The staggering increase in the light of the fact that the federal and state income tax rates have likewise been greatly increased in the same length of time. Boston has lost considerable valuation in the past few years due to public improvements of one kind or another. The total valuation on which the city requirements are spread is therefore $5,000,000 less than a year ago. The only semblance of comfort to many in the 1953 rate is that, though the rate is higher, the valuation remains at 1953.

It is plainly obvious that in a reduction of expenditure there is the most hope of lower taxes. This means reduction in expenditure on the part of the city. For instance, the possibilities of retrenchment in school costs must be carefully considered. The findings in each of two survey reports of the past ten years, the 1944 Strayer Survey for the Finance Commission and the 1953 Sargent Survey for the School Committee, have been that the school plant and the number of school children are increasing at the number of pupils warping. In each of these surveys a program of closings, consolidations, and transfers was developed by an unbiased group of experts. It is to be expected that the School Committee will hear many objections to adoption of the newer Sargent plan. Nevertheless, the financial plight of the city is such that every advantage should be taken of opportunities to reduce school costs. The aim should be to eliminate unnecessary spending. The school people owe it to the city to give the Sargent Report better consideration than was given to the Strayer Report.

It is now well known that the city is the highest taxed of the larger cities of the country. A principal reason for it is, as Mayor Hynes has recently emphasized, that normal service requirements for Boston taxpayers are substantially augmented by the necessity to serve many who do not contribute to the cost of those services. This includes residents of the city as well as non-residents.

However, excessive service cost is also a principal reason for Boston eminence in spending rate. Its efforts to improve its services are the highest taxed of the larger cities of the country. A principal reason for it is, as Mayor Hynes has recently emphasized, that normal service requirements for Boston taxpayers are substantially augmented by the necessity to serve many who do not contribute to the cost of those services. This includes residents of the city as well as non-residents.

The present city government has made a sincere effort to hold the line. Appropriation requests for city services were treated by the Mayor and Budget Commissioner and later by the City Council with a degree of "prove to me the need philosophically seldom before seen in City Hall." As the Finance Commission pointed out in its report upon the budget, if the existing services and organization are to be continued there is not much opportunity for reducing the tax bill. However, the Commission has had a report before the city government during the past two years recommending a new organization of services, which, if adopted, the Commission believes would lead to lower figures in the city's share of the tax rate requirements.

The compensation and classification plan instituted by the Mayor to equalize and stabilize the personnel situation undoubtedly was done in good faith and should show good results in the future. It is now apparent that this step has cost more than the Mayor and city officials originally estimated. Although city employees will probably not agree, the liberality of the plan is a major cause of the increase in the tax rate in the past two years, and hence of the tax rate increase. The more important job of evaluating positions remains to be done. The little understood distinction is that a classification determines proper ratings and salaries, but an evaluation job determines the number of positions necessary. Despite the unreliability of comparison with other cities merely by number of employees, in which Boston usually tops the list, careful analysis of the local situation is convincing that Boston carries a greater number on the payroll than is necessary. Every survey has ended with this conclusion. It is comforting to realize that although the number is being reduced, and that Mayor Hynes has directed department heads to rearrange assignments of work so that positions vacated by retirement may be eliminated.

If city operation costs and assessments upon the city can be reduced and property generally revalued for taxation purposes, even with a more nearly justifiable valuation on residential property the individual tax bill can conceivably be reduced. Hence, it is not in new taxes, alone, that the city should seek relief. The real remedy lies first in spending less; and secondly in spreading the cost of service proportionately among those who benefit from it. The Finance Commission has advised for many years a metropolitan participation in bearing the cost of services in Boston. It is worthy of note that a sample valuation of property in a residential section of the city, which was made by a voluntary committee of professional appraisers within the past year, furnishes evidence of the long-standing claim of the Finance Commission that residential property is substantially undervalued and commercial and industrial property overvalued. Let it be so.

The largest single expense group is that for city departments; this group is analyzed in detail in a subsequent tabular statement under "Appropriations." The appropriation for general maintenance (operation) of city departments for 1953 is $1,800,000 plus $1,800,000 in 1952, in addition to city debt requirements dropped by over $300,000. Pensions, an ever-increasing item, however, rose approximately $100,000. Essentially, the same relative pattern is true of county appropriations for general maintenance, debt, and pensions. Appropriations for school purposes fall into three groups: general school purposes, building, and debt requirements. The major group appropriation, general school purposes, not inclusive of building appropriation, for 1953 is $24,927,788 in 1952 to $24,769,752 in 1953; this includes a special appropriation by the City of $2,949,064 in 1952 compared with a similar assistance of $2,204,576 in 1951. The School Committee is limited in this item to the statutory appropriation limit, $21,200,000 plus unexpended loan balances plus estimated income; additionally needed income must come from the city in the form of a special appropriation.

The appropriation for school buildings falls into two parts: alterations and repairs and buildings (new construction). In the former the 1953 appropriation is $70,347,000, less than in 1952; in the latter group the 1953 appropriation is $58,982,156. However, the School Committee now has available the proceeds of a $3,000,000 loan recently authorized for the construction of new school buildings. It is apparent, therefore, that though the total of school appropriations in 1953 is $1,453,265.94 less than in not all owners of commercial and industrial properties are treated alike. This report gave new evidence of the need for a revaluation of property in the city.

The Commission recognizes that to authorize a revaluation when the tax rate is at a record high for the residential property owners is unpopular with elective officers, particularly in an election year; nevertheless, the fact must be faced that a revaluation is the first step in an effort to quiet the rising resentment against high municipal taxes. The high Boston rate is the greatest obstacle to favorable reception of the substance of the idea of establishing a metropolitan city.

Detail of Rate Making.

The figures in the analysis which follows of the computation of the tax rate are as given by the Board of Assessors and checked and classified by the City Auditor.

The increased cost of running the departments of the city has followed the same general course percentage-wise as the total warrants and appropriations which the city must meet each year. The latter include such fixed charges as pension funds, debt service, MTA assessments, overlay deficit financing, and state and metropolitan assessments. The 1953 figure of department appropriations was $131,639,250.81, as against that for 1950; in the case of the total warrants and appropriations the increase was 15.6 per cent. The year-to-year increases in city department charges since 1950 have been 5.3 per cent, 6.7 per cent, and 7.2 per cent. In the case of total warrants and appropriations, corresponding figures are 4.4 per cent, 7.3 per cent, and 3.2 per cent.

Proposals have already been made to achieve the maximum of reduced department costs. A plan of departmental reorganization has been offered, and the legislative way has been cleared to produce a streamlined framework in which to render municipal services. A complete description of a proper procurement and control of supplies and materials has been furnished. An ordinance which will secure the maximum value for the city's contract dollar has been proposed, but rejected by the City Council. Commendably, the Mayor has persisted in obtaining reform in this matter by issuance of a directive to department heads requiring the procedure which the Finance Commission has recommended.

1952, the actual decrease in appropriation for general educational purposes is only $133,066.26. The balance of the reduction of the total school bill is made up of the reduction of $1,320,229 in the appropriation for repairs and alterations and buildings and pensions.

DEBT SERVICE. The appropriation for 1953 for debt service continued the downward trend, reflecting the debt reduction policy of recent years.

MTA. The MTA deficit figure includes both $5,019,330 in operating deficit and $479,380 in debt requirements. The former is the amount of current operating deficit assessed on Boston on the basis of a formula which the Finance Commission has recommended. The latter is unfair to this city. The debt requirement figure is the city's share of the charge on all the cities in the state in the transportation trust funds when the MTA took over the city's subway properties under the 1940 act.

Besides these two amounts, there is also an amount of $1,010,000 in the debt requirements for the annual payment toward the $10,150,000 borrowed to fund the Boston Elevated Railway deficits accumulated before the state purchase of the railway.

OVERLAY DEFICITS. Other examples of current appropriations for school buildings are "Appropriations: 'Overlay Deficit Funding' ($2,000,000) and 'Overlay Deficits, 1950 and 1951' ($2,494,064). The former refers to the amount appropriated annually since 1950 to finance the overlay deficits which had accumulated by the end of 1949 (approximately $12,560,000). However, the annual appropriation of $2,000,000 in each of three years has hardly made a dent in the original figure. At the end of 1950, in spite of the appropriation of $2,000,000, the deficit stood at $12,293,533; another $2,000,000 in 1951 failed to reduce it much, for at year's end it was $12,205,026; and notwithstanding the $2,000,000 appropriated in 1952, the deficit figure on December 31, 1952, was $12,158,680. In other words, the annual $2,000,000 appropriation just about covered the abatements granted during the current year on assessments made before 1950 and had little net reducing effect on the original accumulated deficit.

The item "Overlay Deficits, 1950 and 1951" is an amount appropriated to meet the deficits resulting from abatements on 1950 and 1951 assessments.

Neither state nor metropolitan assessments played a substantial part in the total of warrants and appropriations. The state assessment was approximately $150,000 more than in 1952, while the metropolitan assessment was $141,237.83 less.

Credits and Deductions.

The area of credits and deductions must always be speculative, because it is a matter of estimating revenue to be received during the year.

The largest single source of revenue, apart from taxes, is from the group of city and county departments. The 1953 estimate of revenue is $1,205,985.92 over the estimate for 1952. The actual receipts during 1952 exceeded the estimated figure which went into 1952 tax rate computation by $760,537.66. The estimate for 1953 exceeds the 1952 actual receipts by $445,448.26, and totals $23,551,855.92. The most significant increases in the 1953 estimates occur in the anticipated increases in the Hospital Department ($250,000), Institutions ($415,000), and Public Welfare ($250,000). These large increases are offset by an estimated decrease of $325,000 in the Housing Authority figure. The increase in the estimate in school Department revenue for 1953 over the 1952 estimate is $308,733.70. This is accounted for by the larger balances in the Alterations and Repairs Fund (School Buildings) of approximately $186,000 and the General School Purposes Fund of approximately $170,000. There is a reduction in miscellaneous revenue from state aid, vocational aid, tuition, etc., of approximately $47,000.

The second largest source of income, apart from the tax levy, is the state-shared corporation and income taxes. In 1952 it was estimated that the city would receive $4,264,200.34 from the income tax; actually, $4,932,034.70 was received. It was estimated that the city would receive $4,106,309.70 from the corporation tax; actually, $6,662,115.41 was received. However, this combined excess of $3,163,640.07 from these two sources fell far short of the $7,140,000 additional amount authorized by the Tax Commissioner, which the city was permitted to add to its figure of estimated revenue.

For 1953 the city has been permitted to insert an additional authorization of $2,250,000 in the estimate of income. It is now questionable if the city can count on actually receiving more than a fraction of this additional authorization.

Expressed in another way, the city hopes to secure in 1953 a total of $12,881,899.81 in revenue

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 349 of the Acts of 1953, entitled "An Act Further Regulating the Licensing of Dealers in Second-hand Motor Vehicles in the City of Boston," be, and hereby is, accepted.

from state income tax, corporation tax, and additional authorization by the State Tax Commissioner; in 1952 the city hoped to secure a total of $15,510,510 from these same sources, but actually received $11,534,150, a reduction of 25 per cent.

The difference between warrants and appropriations (the anticipated expenditures) and credits and deductions (the anticipated income) is the figure of net requirements, before the overlay is added and the estimated poll tax receipts are credited. The overlay is the theoretical cushion against abatements. The following table shows the calculation of the final figure which must be raised by taxation levy on real estate and personal property. The valuation of the property is shown in the figure for assessed valuation. The tax levy figure, the amount to be raised by taxes, is divided by the number of thousands of dollars in the figure of assessed valuation, and the result is the tax rate per $1,000 of valuation.

Assessed Valuation.

The total assessable valuation in 1953 is lower than the comparable figure in 1952, 11 per cent, in two years this phenomenon has occurred. Nevertheless, in the instance of the previous reductions ($1,601,432,000 in 1949 to $1,567,500,000 in 1950) increased total valuations in 1951 ($1,570,760,000) and in 1952 ($1,573,516,000) offset the 1950 reduction. It is significant, however, that the 1953 total ($1,565,666,000) is lower than the 1950 figure. Yet, this cannot be said to be a trend to lower valuations. It is rather a reflection of the eliminated valuations due to the central artery construction and other public improvements.

Moreover, figures used at tax rate determination time must be taken with skepticism. The higher figure of 1952 had been reduced more than $40,000,000 by abatements before June 9, 1953. Therefore, at the time (June 15, 1953) the assessors were using the June 15, 1952, figure of valuation in comparison with the 1953 established total, that 1952 total had been whittled down very substantially. Hence, what appears to be a $8,000,000 reduced total valuation in 1953 is actually about $35,000,000 higher than the 1952 total as of June 1, 1952.

There is, however, a definite trend discernible in the figures of the valuations by wards. The so-called "downward" wards, 3, 4, and 5, again appear to be carrying less of the tax burden in percentage. Where formerly the combined valuation of these wards was well over one half the total valuation of the city for the second year in succession the combined valuation of Wards 3, 4, and 5 has been less than half the total valuation of the city. The percentage of the total valuation in these wards has been 50.45 in 1950, 50.24 in 1951, 49.81 in 1952, and 49.43 in 1953. Less building, downward, less taxable property, and the effect of the proposed abatements of recent years have tended to lower downtown valuations; residential sections have benefited from new home building and some accompanying commercial expansion.

The valuation by wards follows:

A simple explanation of the increase in the Boston tax rate during the past 15 years emphasizes three factors: appropriations (or estimated expenses), revenue other than property taxes, and the assessed valuation of property. Appropriations increased 81.0 per cent between 1939 and 1953; revenue other than taxes kept pace, with an increase of 76 per cent. But such revenues represented only 29 per cent of the appropriations in both years. Accordingly the property tax levy, which must supply the rest of the needed revenue, increased in similar fashion.

But the valuation of the city was only 2.6 per cent higher in 1953 than in 1939; thus the tax rate was forced up from $39.90 in 1939 to $70.70 in 1953.

During the 15-year period the valuation of property in the city fluctuated appreciably, being reduced gradually from $1,524,806,000 in 1939 to $1,442,008,000 in 1944, and then rising to a high of $1,601,432,000 in 1949. The figure today is $1,565,666,000. Not much relief to meet increased appropriations may be expected unless new real values are created.

The following exhibit reveals the growth in the annual number of appeals to the State Board:

Fiscal year July 1 - June 30.

While this table shows that more appeals were filed with the Tax Board during the 1952-53 fiscal year (July 1-June 30) than in any year since 1946, the records of the Board also reveal that the number of cases decided by the Board in that year was the largest of the last four years; and that the number withdrawn from consideration of the Board and settled by the Assessors remains at the 3,000-3,500 level.

To repeat, with increased valuations more or less shut off as an avenue of relief, it has been urged that new revenues in the form of taxes be sought other than property taxes. Before new sources are sought, as previously stated, consideration should be given to reduce appropriations.

All proposals must be from bidders of record on file at Room 508, City Hall Annex. There will be a charge of two dollars ($2) for each set of plans and specifications taken out. MAYOR HYNES APPROVES ACTION OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE IN CLOSING 21 BOSTON SCHOOLS—ACTION PREDICATED ON COMMON SENSE AND DEMAND FOR MUNICIPAL ECONOMY—PRESENT PLANT LARGER THAN NEEDED—BOSTON NOT IN POSITION TO MAINTAIN BUILDINGS FOR 130,000 IF ONLY 90,000 PUPILS ARE IN ATTENDANCE.

Mayor Hynes, on August 12, issued the following statement concerning the closing of certain schools by the School Committee:

The closing of 21 Boston schools should be viewed as an action predicated upon common sense, and upon the general demand for municipal economy.

It is clearly obvious that the present school plant is considerably larger than needed.

It is also clearly obvious that the strain on the financial status of the city government can be lessened if the physical plant of the school system is adapted

MAYOR HYNES AND BOSTON CITIZENS THANKED BY WORCESTER AND VICINITY VICTIMS OF TORNADO OF JUNE 9—CITY MANAGER ADDRESSES LETTER OF GRATITUDE TO MAYOR FOR AID EXTENDED IN THAT CITY'S TIME OF CALAMITY—CONTRIBUTIONS OF EQUIPMENT AND SUPPLIES TREMENDOUS.

The following communication has been received at the office of the Mayor from the City Manager of Worcester:

MAYOR JOHN HYNES,
City Hall, Boston, Mass.

DEAR SIR:

The tornado that swept through Worcester County on June 9 brought with it death, personal injury, and property destruction. It brought a situation that tested the character of our citizenry, particularly those associated with Civil Defense.

The Civil Defense Agencies responded in a most creditable manner, instilling

BOSTON IS NOT DYING AND IS NOT HEADED FOR THE ROCKS OF DISASTER—MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES, IN ARTICLE PUBLISHED IN BOSTON SUNDAY POST, TELLS CITIZENS OF NEW ENGLAND AND THE WORLD THAT CITY, WHILE PASSING THROUGH TRYING PERIOD, AS ARE MOST OF OLDER CITIES OF COUNTRY, IS FAR FROM MORIBUND AND IS STILL AND WILL BE GREAT CENTER AND PULSATING HEART OF NORTHERN NEW ENGLAND AREA—THERE WILL ALWAYS BE A BOSTON, THE HUB OF NORTHEAST SECTION OF OUR COUNTRY.

The following article was prepared and published in the Boston Post, Sunday, August 9, by Mayor John B. Hynes to still critics of Boston and set the world right as to the future of the city:

Frequently I am asked, "What is Boston headed for?" The implication in this question is that Boston is headed for the rocks of disaster. My answer to this query is this—Boston is most assuredly going through a trying period, as are most of the older and larger American cities, but Boston is not dying. We are not thinking of weaving a shroud for our own memorial exercises. I hope we never will.

For over 300 years Boston has been a great center, the pulsating heart of the northern New England area. Three hundred years hence, come atomic bombs or no, Boston will still be standing with her face to the sea, and the spires of her buildings, her churches, and her temples reaching to the heavens. Indeed, if Boston were destroyed in this year of our Lord 1953, a new Boston would arise from the rubble, and quickly, for unless man undergoes a stupendous metamorphosis in his thinking and his habits in the years to come, there will always be a Boston, the great market place, the great meeting house, the social and economic hub of the northeast section of our country.

In Midst of Changing Times.

It is true that Boston at the present time, insofar as its government is concerned, is caught in the web of changing times, changing conditions, changing habits. It is also true that Boston in the past has had to meet the challenge of change, and we have survived.

The municipal government of Boston is now going through the throes of severe pains which are acute, but not necessarily chronic. Most certainly they will not be fatal. They will pass away and leave our body politic in a stronger state than it has been for many years. The automobile age, which has brought on decentralization, and all the problems which flow from this modern tendency, has raised havoc with our tight little city, but the bottom can be seen. We are convinced that the tide is on the ebb. We have not been swamped. We shall shortly be on high dry land once again.

It has been my fortune to be Mayor during a period when the backlash of war precipitated skyward all costs of municipal service. With no substantial income other than from the tax on real property, the tax rate has reached an alarmingly high figure, and the owners of real estate, commercial and residential, have been forced, inequitably, to bear the full burden of the inflationary spiral. Unless we enter another period of inflation, I look forward to a gradual and welcome reduction in the rate for next year and the years immediately following.

Were Boston, like most of the large cities in the United States, the recipient of income from a sales tax, or a payroll tax, or other forms of taxes not available to our city, the tax rate of Boston would be no higher, and perhaps lower, than that of the average large American city. Appropos the tax rate, if the recent increase in fares on the MTA had been approved, such increase would have represented a reduction of about $3 in the rate. The MTA is a major expense to the city. It represents in 1953 about $5 in the rate. In 1954 it will very likely represent about $6 in the rate.

Better Days Ahead.

While Boston is making the turn toward brighter and better days, the municipal government will avoid any substantial expenditures not of vital necessity. We must, and will, resist pleas to expand and broaden our activities. We shall cut our cloth according to the bolt.

I am hopeful that the new Central Artery, which has destroyed many millions of dollars of valuation and will destroy more, will have an eventual beneficial effect upon our city.

I am more than hopeful that the proposed development of the site of the B & A Yards at Exeter street will give to our city a new lease of life, a new impetus to face the future with courage.

I look at the new market center arising at Southampton street, in the South End, and I realize that Boston is going to have the finest, most modern, largest, wholesale market place in the country.

I look to the classification and compensation plan for employees, now in effect, to eliminate inequities and to make personnel adjustments a matter of settled policy rather than political vagaries.

I look to a revaluation of all properties in the city, in order to have, once and for all, a sound basis for assessing real properties in our city.

I look to a reorganization of city departments, and a reduction in the number of departments, to lead to substantial future savings in personnel costs.

I look to the stoppage of decay and blight in the older sections of the city through the efforts of enthusiastic local rehabilitation committees, and through the machinery of urban redevelopment, which involves the joint action of the municipality and private enterprise.

I look to the establishment of more and more businesslike methods in the operation of the big enterprise called the City of Boston.

BOSTON VIGOROUS AND ROBUST.

Boston has troubles, it is true, but its future is not entirely immersed in dark clouds. There are gleams of bright sunshine to be seen. We need, all of us, to shy away from the predictions of the prophets of doom. Boston is basically a vigorous, robust city afflicted with a combination of minor ailments. We can cure those ailments. We can have more faith in the sterling character of our people. We can be like the late Maurice Tobin, good salesmen for the greatest city of all the cities of our country.

The whole of the United States looks upon Boston as the founding stone on which has been built this great edifice we call the home of the brave and the free. Let us all, bedroom Bostonians and suburban Bostonians alike, sing our praises a little louder, and with greater confidence.

I am reminded of the story of the two world travelers who met in far-off Timbuktu. Said one to the other—"Sir, your face seems vaguely familiar." Said the other—"I was thinking the same about you, sir; where is your home?" Said the first traveler—"I come from the finest city in the world, the very hub of the universe—Boston." "How exciting," said the other. "Boston is also my home." It made no difference that one traveler came from Dedham and the other from Beverly. Essentially, they were Bostonians, and as they embraced, they tolled off the glories of Boston. This is good. We are happy that our suburban neighbors have an instinctive pride in and love for Boston. We would be just a bit happier if our suburban friends, to whom we open the gates of the city daily, thought of Boston as the mother city needing a little help from its progeny if it is to retain the characteristics which have made the name of Boston a byword for over three centuries.

In days of old the citizen of Rome was an outstanding personality. In our day the citizen of Greater Boston is, believe it or not, an outstanding personality. He is considered by his fellow Americans to be representative of all the basic attributes which have made our country strong and great. It is time for all of us to change our tune, to realize that our assets far outweigh our deficiencies. Boston will be as strong, and great, and lasting as we will have it. Let's push together. We cannot fail if we do.

MAYOR APPROVES ACTION OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

to meet the actual requirements of the enrollment in the school system.

No amount of political haranguing can alter the fact that Boston is in no position financially to maintain school buildings accommodating 130,000 students if only 90,000 students are in school attendance.

I am in no position to determine what schools should be closed. That determination is a responsibility of the School Committee. I have requested, however, that all city and county departments, including the School Department, reduce maintenance costs by at least 5 per cent in the year 1954. The action of the majority of the School Committee will enable the School Department to reach that goal.

The closing of school buildings will be opposed on many sides. Everybody wants economy until it strikes home.

The present high tax rate makes it imperative that severe economies be made in the school, and all other departments of the city government, even though those economies are unpopular, and even though they provide grist for the political mill.

WORCESTER TORNADO VICTIMS THANK MAYOR HYNES AND CITIZENS.

confidence in our citizens in our ability to not only meet disaster but to help each other.

I am proud of the dispatch and skill with which our local Civil Defense Department and all the Civil Defense Agencies of the surrounding communities came to the assistance of our people.

I know that each and every official and civil defense volunteer must have experienced a great thrill of self-satisfaction in a job well done. I am fully cognizant of the innumerable hours of volunteer effort given to the cause of Civil Defense and its plans. As Defense Director of Region Three, I appreciate the work of my assistant Harold Rossi and all those who cooperated so fully with us to meet this emergency.

The contribution of equipment and supplies was tremendous, but the personal assistance and aid of many individuals reflect due credit not only on these citizens, but on the communities in which we live.

For all this I am grateful. I am sure that I express the sentiment of not only the tornado victims, but of all our citizens as well as our city government for your efforts in our behalf.

Gratefully,

FRANCIS J. MCGRATH,
City Manager.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, August 3, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the City Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M., President AHRHARR in the chair. Absent, Councilor Hurler.

The Reverend Fidelis Connolly, C.P., of St. Gabriel's Monastery, Brighton, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. FIDELIS CONNOLLY.

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

Honorable members of the Boston City Council, let us recall to mind that we are in God's Holy Presence.

Dear Lord, You have declared it Yourself, "We are two, or three are gathered together for My sake, there am I in the midst of them." Your Presence is felt here at the beginning of this Council session. We beg You to make Your Presence felt in all its deliberations. Make its honorable members realize that to govern others is the art of arts. In establishing order, design, and beauty throughout the vast universe You worked alone. But in establishing harmony and order among men You chose to work through men. It is, then, an honorable thing to govern well. It is a fearful thing to govern badly.

Make each person here realize, dear Lord, that You stand behind the deliberations of this Council. You are present at the Council's tables. You walk in the very midst of the Councilors. Unseen, unheard, but ever present, You will reward their sincere efforts to dispense prudently and justly their duties. You will punish their deliberate failures. Make these honorable members of the Boston City Council realize, dear God, that governing others is not merely a means of livelihood, nor simply a profession. It is the art of art. It is a sharing in Your Governing Providence for the people of Boston.

Through the mercy of Your Divine Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord, we beg You to enlighten the minds of these Councilors that they may know truth; move their wills that they may choose good. Weided to truth and goodness they will, under Your Beneficent Providence and in Your Presence, work for the prosperity of Boston, the lasting good of its citizens, and Your Glory, Who is One God yet Three Divine Persons, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost.

Make the inspiration of the Holy Mother, we ask You to bless this assembly.

Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee; blessed art thou amongst women, and blessed is the Fruit of thy womb, Jesus. Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners, now and at the hour of our death. Amen. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

On July 16, 1953, by reason of an order passed by the Council on July 13, 1953, your Honor requested that I determine the language of the City Council's order, "an ordinance which will give the Commissioner of Public Works the right to cause a Comptroller's audit to regulate the prices charged to private companies using disposal facilities which the city, through the Public Works Department, makes available to given contractor on an annual bid contract basis."

As your Honor will have noticed, the proposed ordinance would purport, in essence, to enable the Commissioner of Public Works to conduct a monthly audit of contractors' receipts under certain disposal contracts made by the city. Such ordinance would have to be passed under the power conferred by St. 1821, c. 110, § 15, and reaffirmed by St. 1854, c. 448, § 35, for in Massachusetts, a municipality possesses only such powers as are conferred upon it either in terms or by necessary implication. The enabling statute, Burnham v. Mayor and Aldermen of Beverly, 303 Mass. 388, 389, and cases cited. It is no longer open to question that municipal legislation passed under legislative authority from the state is within the prohibition of the Federal Constitution and void if it impairs the obligation of contracts of the United States. 11 Stat. v. Columbus, 203 U.S. 311-320, and cases cited. Northern Pacific R.R. Co. v. Duluth, 208 U.S. 583, 590. Accordingly, the proposed ordinance could have no effect on existing contracts.

Under the amendment to the City Charter effected by St. 1855, c. 266, § 6, the several boards and officers of the city are, in their respective departments, given the power to contract on behalf of the city. For present purposes, this power may truly be said to be unlimited in scope; for none of the divers restrictions imposed by the statute just cited or other provisions of law regarding availability of appropriation, advertisement for bids, reduction to writing, approval by Mayor, inclusion of provisions concerning contractor's employment of labor, and the proposed amendment to the matter in question. In other words, by virtue of the statutes presently constituting the City of Boston, the Commissioner of Public Works now has, and it may not be inappropriate for me to add, on suitable occasions in the past has exercised, the very power which the proposed ordinance would purport to give him. The proposed ordinance would thus be barren of accomplishment and so, fully required to be excused from drafting it.

Respectfully,

WILLIAM L. BAXTER,

City of Boston Corporation Counsel.
Referred to the Executive Committee.

REORGANIZATION OF CITY DEPARTMENTS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
To the Office of the Mayor, August 3, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

Among the statutes passed by the General Court of Massachusetts in the current session was an act relative to the establishment, reorganization, and abolition of executive departments and administrative boards and commissions of the City of Boston. Enactment of this legislation was sought by me in order to clear the way for the impending reorganization of municipal departments by removing doubts as to the meaning of the word "department" and other like matters. In other words, the effect of this legislation is simply to clarify existing conditions, without any major substantive change, the phraseology of a provision which has been a part of the City Charter ever since Chapter 481 of the Acts of 1822.

One of the provisions of the recent act is that it shall take effect upon its acceptance by the Mayor and City Council, but not otherwise. I transmit herewith is an order accepting the act. I recommend its immediate adoption in order that your Honorable Body may, in an early date, be submitted to it, and begin the consideration of, the first of the series of ordinances necessary to effectuate the long planned reorganization of municipal departments.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Ordered, That chapter 473 of the Acts of 1953, entitled "An Act Relative to the Establishment, Reorganization, and Abolition of Executive Departments and Administrative Boards and Officers of the City of Boston," be, and the same hereby is, accepted.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

TRANSFER OF APPROPRIATION TO PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:
City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 3, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
The enclosed request for transfer of appropriations, together with the accompanying order, is recommended for adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Ordered, That in accordance with the provisions of section 3B of chapter 486 of the Acts of 1909, as amended by chapter 504 of the Acts of 1941, the City Auditor be, and hereby is, authorized to transfer:

From the appropriation for Reserve Fund, $10,000, to the appropriation for Public Buildings Department, 2, Contractual Services, $10,000.

Referred to the Executive Committee.

Later in the session Councillor Kerrigan moved to reconsider reference of the order to the Executive Committee.

The motion to reconsider was carried. The question then came on the passage of the order, and the order was passed, yeas 7, nays 1.

1,268 HOUSES AND BUILDINGS IN "PILOT AREA" OF SOUTH BOSTON NEIGHBORHOOD AND CONSERVATION DISTRICT NOT COMPLYING WITH CITY'S BUILDING CODE — ORDERED CORRECTED BY MAYOR TO INSURE SAFETY FOR OCCUPANTS.

A systematic study made by the Boston Building Department of 1,268 houses and buildings in the "Pilot Area" of the South Boston Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation District reveals that egress at 294 properties is not in compliance with the Building Code and must be corrected to assure complete safety for the occupants. The area is bounded by Broadway on the north; Dorchester Bay on the south; I street on the east; and F street on the west.

Most gratifying to Building Commissioner Harry J. Keefe and to Health Commissioner Dr. John A. Cauley is the fact that the plumbing equipment and gas fixtures in all of the 1,268 houses and buildings inspected were found to meet full legal requirements. However, the department inspectors found four abandoned buildings in the area that had been damaged by vandals and took immediate steps to have them boarded up.

Another unoccupied building was found to be in such a state of decay that the Building Department has taken steps to have it immediately razed. The Building Department has also declared the rear porch of an occupied house as unsafe and has ordered it repaired before further use.

"It is my hope," said Mayor Hynes upon receiving the detailed report of the study, "that similar studies will be made in all of the 15 health and welfare districts of the city. It is only through such procedure that we can hope to check blight, restore our physical assets to

MORE THAN 12 MILES OF BOSTON STREETS TO BE REPAIRED IN NEXT TWO YEARS — WORK TO RUN INTO 1955 AT A COST OF MORE THAN $1,000,000.

Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland has announced the program for street repair work for the balance of this year and for the years 1954 and 1955. Work has already begun on some of the streets included in the list for the present year. There will be a grand total of 83,000 feet or more than 12 miles at a cost of more than $1,000,000.

WATER RATES FOR CITIZENS OF BOSTON AND OTHER MUNICIPALITIES BOOSTED TO DOUBLE PRESENT COST BY METROPOLITAN DISTRICT COMMISSION — $80 PER MILLION GALLONS — INCREASE OF APPROXIMATELY $1,700,000 ANNUALLY — TAX RATE TO BE AFFECTED UNLESS MAYOR CAN FIND MEANS FOR OFFSETTING IT — MAYOR IS INFORMED BY PUBLIC WORKS COMMISSIONER.

The following communication has been received at the Mayor's office from the Commissioner of Public Works:

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Under the provisions of chapter 618 of the current Acts of 1953, the cost of water delivered by the Metropolitan District Commission to the City of Boston and all other communities in the Water District has been increased from $40 to $80 per million gallons. This new rate will have the effect of increasing the annual amount assessed against Boston by the Metropolitan District Commission from $1,637,000 to approximately $3,336,000, or an increase of approximately $1,700,000 annually.

For your information, I submit herewith a tabulation showing the expenditures and surplus resulting from last year's operation:

YEAR	Total Amount Collected	General Departmental Expenditures	Metropolitan Assessments	Total Expenditures	Surplus
1952 . . .	$4,796,064 52	$2,812,767 98	$1,636,959 98	$4,449,727 96	$346,336 56

The above-referenced surplus of approximately $346,000 should be considered as a minimum cushion to guard against possible deficits that might otherwise result, due to several factors, one of which involves increased costs of labor, materials, supplies, and equipment used in connection with the operation of the Water Division. Another factor involves the substantial amounts that we will be required to expend in the near future to provide for extensions to our underground water system in excess of our normal annual program. For instance, it will be necessary for the department, within the next year, to provide for extensions to our water system to provide an adequate supply to the Columbia Point Housing Project, and also to the new wholesale market area. In addition, we will be required to undertake a major program to relay existing defective and inadequate water mains and to provide for additional supply mains to areas where the present supply is inadequate.

These factors referred to will have the effect of increasing our departmental expenditures in the next four or five years over and above our normal expenditures, and, therefore, it is absolutely necessary to provide for a substantial surplus to offset the possibility of a deficit in the Water Account. As you well know, any deficit will have to be made up entirely from real estate taxes. In establishing a new schedule of rates, therefore, I have considered increased operation costs, the new MDC assessment, and the necessity of providing a reasonably substantial surplus.

WATER RATES TO BE ADVANCED—TAX RATE MAY BE AFFECTED IN 1954.

SCHEDULE PROPOSED.

The schedule that I am recommending for adoption will, we estimate, provide an approximate surplus ranging from $150,000 to $200,000 a year. The latter-referenced surplus, which is obtained from the sale of water only, when added to the revenue of approximately $100,000 obtained from other sources, will result in a total estimated surplus of from $250,000 to $300,000 a year. This is much lower than desirable, but the recommended schedule has provided for increases ranging from 25 to 36.9 per cent, and I feel that no higher rates should be established at this time.

The following is a schedule showing the present rates, the proposed rates in the various classifications, and the percentage of increase in each classification:

Meter Rates for Each 1,000 Cubic Feet, Computed Quarterly	Present Rate *	Proposed Rate *	Per Cent of Increase
First 20,000 cubic feet	$1 50	$2 00	33½
Second 20,000 cubic feet	1 40	1 90	35.7
Third 20,000 cubic feet and up to 1,000,000	1 25	1 70	36
All over 1,000,000 cubic feet	.84	1 15	36.9
Minimum rate (per annum)	8 00	10 00	25-33½
	(Allowance of 5,300 cubic feet.)	(Allowance of 5,000 cubic feet.)

* (Per Thousand Cubic Feet)

Based on the amount of water sold in 1942, and taking into consideration the increased MDC assessment, it is estimated that the adoption of the above schedule will produce the surplus indicated below:

City of Boston assessment against consumer, approximately		$6,358 119
MDC assessment at $80 per million gallons, approximately	$3,336,250
Water Account expenditures (current), approximately	2,843,606
	$6,179,860	6,179,860
Approximate surplus (sale of water)		$178,259
Approximate revenue (other sources — i.e., fire pipes, service pipes, etc.)		100,000
Total approximate surplus		$278,259

The latter-referenced estimated surplus is the lowest of any since 1940. Between 1941 and 1952 the annual surplus in the Water Division ranged from a minimum of $320,000 to a maximum of $2,474,000. However, it appears that the new schedule of rates is the lowest practical of adoption at this time, in order to keep the charges within reason and, at the same time, to establish rates that, we hope, will result in keeping the Water Division self-supporting for the next five years. The above-referenced estimated surplus of 270-odd thousand dollars unquestionably is smaller than business practice dictates, but, at the same time, I feel that the rates as proposed are the maximum that should be assessed against our 90,000 water customers.

In accordance with the provisions of section 22 of chapter 27 of the Revised Ordinances of 1947, I respectfully request your approval to the establishment of the following schedule of water rates, with the understanding that the new schedule will be effective on all bills rendered after next October 1:

Meter Rates for Each 1,000 Cubic Feet, Computed Quarterly	Rate per Thousand Cubic Feet
First 20,000 cubic feet	$2 00
Second 20,000 cubic feet	1 90
Third 20,000 cubic feet and up to 1,000,000 cubic feet	1 70
All over 1,000,000 cubic feet	1 15
Minimum rate (per annum)	10 00
	(Allowance of 5,000 cubic feet)

The average home owner will pay the rates included in the first and fifth classification, which provide for maximum increases of 33½ per cent. Subsequent to the approval of the above-referenced new schedule by your Honor it will be necessary to obtain the approval of said schedule by the Metropolitan District Commission, in accordance with the provisions of section 27 of chapter 92 of the General Laws.

Respectfully,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

CIRCULAR LETTER NO. 23.

CITY OF BOSTON,
MAYOR'S OFFICE, August 17, 1953.
To All Department Heads.

GENTLEMEN:

In the past year, you have been exceedingly generous in cooperating with me whenever I have called upon you to help out civic welfare projects.

I am sincerely grateful, and presume once again upon your kindness.

The Catholic Guild for the Blind, headed by its very able and popular chaplain, Father Thomas Carroll, is now conducting the "1953 Odd Change Harvest"—its annual appeal for funds.

Many of you doubtlessly know the splendid work the Catholic Guild for the Blind has done in the past for its 4,000 blind members—in training, rehabilitation, and otherwise helping the blind become self-supporting, self-respecting, and productive citizens.

To continue its work, the Guild needs funds. It would be most unfortunate if its work had to be slowed down, or one blind person miss the opportunity to make his life more worth-while, because the Guild need money.

Col. Timothy J. O'Leary, of the Public Works Department, will contact you in the near future to explain the method of contribution. I respectfully urge you to give him all the help you can.

Thank you again for your kind cooperation in the past, and thank you also for helping make the "Odd Change Harvest for 1953" a success.

Very truly yours,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT TO COLLECT ALL ABANDONED ICEBOXES.

Commissioner of Public Works George G. Hyland has issued a plea to householders of Boston:

We earnestly solicit the cooperation of the general public to eliminate the abandoned icebox menace.

All discarded iceboxes should be placed on the sidewalk for collection on the regular weekly refuse collection day. They will be picked up and taken to the nearest dump by the refuse contractor.

If there are any abandoned iceboxes located in backyards, empty lots, or the like, anywhere in this city, they will be removed by department employees, if we are informed as to the location. We request, therefore, that all residents make a survey of their neighborhood, and inform us of any such abandoned iceboxes.

Incidentally, we have made a survey of all the refuse dumps located in this city that are under the jurisdiction of this department, and have found only one empty icebox. The doors of this icebox were removed and covered with refuse material.

All of our Sanitary District foremen have been instructed to make an immediate survey of their respective districts for any discarded, empty iceboxes, either on private or public property. All such boxes will be taken by city trucks to disposal points and destroyed.

I would appreciate your cooperation in giving this important matter a little publicity.

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

a sound and healthy condition, and to safeguard the health and lives of our residents."

The city-wide Rehabilitation and Conservation Program goes steadily forward. Already district committees have been set up in South Boston, South End, Roxbury, and Dorchester, and it is the hope of the Mayor that similar committees will have been established in all of the 15 districts before the end of the year.

"This program should have been started 30 years ago," says the Mayor. "Had it been done thousands of additional desirable citizens would still be living within the confines of Boston and the assessed valuations of the city would not have shrunk to their present low level."

"However, better now than never. It may take several years before the Rehabilitation and Conservation Program achieves substantial results, but with the enthusiastic cooperation the program is receiving among the property owners throughout the city, success is certain. The program will receive its biggest impetus when the Legislature fully realizes the unjust tax burden being imposed upon Boston real estate and adopts adequate measures to give it relief."

DEPARTMENT CHANGES.

The following changes in the number, rating and compensation of city employees have been made:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

Approval has been given for a further extension of time, for a period of six months, for the temporary employment of Joseph M. Eich, 23 Maxfield street, West Roxbury, as electrical draftsman at $68.29 a week.

HEALTH DEPARTMENT.

The resignation of Mary J. Gilkey, medical social worker (volunteer) assigned to the Harvard Field Training Unit at Whittier street, has been approved.

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

The following personnel changes in the Billing Office have been approved:

Create one permanent position of principal clerk, minimum salary, $65.50 a week, maximum salary, $80 a week.

Decrease the number of permanent senior clerks by one.

The establishment of the above position of principal clerk will provide for a supervisor for the Dowling Building Billing Section to have a designated individual to take the place of the head clerk during periods of vacation and absence.

Increase the quota of permanent senior accounting machine operators, minimum salary, $55.50 a week, maximum salary, $68 a week, from three to four, and decrease the number of permanent clerks and typists by one.

This corrects the present plan of having two employees doing precisely the same work, one with a senior accounting machine operator's title and one with a clerk typist rating.

STATE AND CITY OFFICIALS CONFER WITH ENGINEERS ON MATTER OF SOUTHERLY EXTENSION OF CENTRAL ARTERY—RECOMMENDATIONS EXPECTED ABOUT SEPTEMBER 15.

State Public Works Commissioner John A. Volpe and Boston Public Works Commissioner George Hyland have conferred with Charles Louis and Allan Snyder of the engineering firm of Parsons, Brinkerhoff, Hall, and McDonald of New York, engaged by mutual agreement between the city and the state to make recommendations for a final determination of the southerly extension of the Central Artery. Both Commissioner Volpe and Commissioner Hyland emphasized that the matters under discussion were merely tentative appraisals of part of the engineering firm's study up to this point. MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES WELCOMES CHIEF JUSTICES TO CONVENTION OF AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION—REMINDS AUDIENCE OF CHANGES WROUGHT BY COLONISTS AND THEIR DESCENDANTS IN NEW CONCEPTION OF CODE OF LAWS TO GOVERN MEN OF A FREE LAND—LAWS OF RIGHT, DIVINITY, AND REASON MUST AND ALWAYS SHALL RULE, MAYOR AVERS.

On August 29, at the dinner of the chief justices, attending the convention of the American Bar Association, in his address of welcome Mayor John B. Hynes spoke as follows:

I am honored to welcome this conference of chief justices of the American Bar Association to the old, history-steeped City of Boston—to the new, flourishing, law-abiding City of Boston.

There was a time, close to two centuries ago, when the men of Boston chose not to abide by certain laws then in force.

To their minds, and to the minds of kindred spirits throughout the thirteen colonies, the laws of the mother country for the government of the colonies were oppressive, coercive, even tyrannous, and indeed they were, for they were not in harmony with the eternal laws of the Eternal God, and when any law or code of laws is contra to the law of right reason, the natural law, the divine law, that law or that code of laws cannot long endure.

The men of Boston were not content to fulminate against these obnoxious laws. They were men of courage, determination, and action, and so, one cold night in December of 1773, garbed as ferocious Indians, and perhaps fortified with a little firewater, they boarded a British ship and dumped its full load of tea into the waters of Boston Harbor.

Ended Pacific Remonstrance.

The sound of the splash reverberated throughout the colonies. It was heard in the mother country. It signaled the end of pacific remonstrance. It was the forerunner of the fabled shot at Lexington Green heard 'round the world. It was the prelude to the Battle of Bunker Hill. It was the beginning of a different concept of the rights of man, and man's place in the structure of government.

In the name of the modern City of Boston, and in the name of the old City of Boston—the old mother city which gave success to the laws and liberties which have made our nation the wonder of civilization, past and present, I greet you and welcome you, and I am happy to inform you that except for that brief lapse some two centuries ago, we are an exceedingly law-abiding city.

"O Boston, fair City enthroned like a radiant queen,
From thy hills looking down on the ship-teeming plain of the ocean;
May thy future be bright, thy skies beam with light all serene,

MAYOR APPROVES OFF-STREET PARKING CONTRACT.

 Eliot-Carver Company, Inc., $8,000.*
 Eli J. Ames, $7,600.*
 Federal Parking, Inc., $7,550.*
 Parking Development Company, Inc., $6,852.*
 Marvin J. Baker, $6,706.67.*
 Kendall Square Garage Company, Inc., $6,416.80.*

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
 Chairman.

* Deposit of $5,000.

By this contract the city will receive $20,000 more a year for the rental of its garage at Lincoln and Essex streets, in the leather district, than it has for the past three years. The bid was accepted at $8,000 per month or $96,000 for the year.

The highest of six bids was offered by the Eliot-Carver Corporation that has leased the garage since it was built three years ago.

Under its present lease, that which expires on August 31, the Eliot-Carver Corporation paid $52,000 a year plus 50 per cent of all gross receipts in excess of $104,000 annually.

For three years this averaged a total payment to the city of $76,404.

The new lease will not carry this clause, but will be leased at the straight $96,000 a year.

The Eliot-Carver Corporation did not file a written guarantee of evidence to furnish a performance bond or cash in lieu of such a bond.

Chairman Carp agrees that such a written guarantee was not offered. But the Corporation has on deposit $52,000 with the City Treasurer as a performance bond on the old lease.

Mr. Carp said his Board "rightfully assumed" that the Corporation would be ready to post the new amount when the lease comes up for signing. Mayor Hynes agreed.

MAYOR HYNES NOTES ANNIVERSARY OF FOUNDING OF BOSTON NAVY YARD—NAMES "SHIPYARD DAY."

Mayor John B. Hynes, at the request of the Boston Naval Shipyard Betterment Association designated Wednesday, August 26, the 153d anniversary of the founding of the Navy Yard, as "Boston Naval Shipyard Day," and of his own accord congratulated both the Naval and the civilian personnel employed there on the high state of efficiency of the yard. The Naval Shipyard Betterment Association, composed of labor, veteran and fraternal organizations, is dedicated to keeping a steady year-round flow of naval construction and ship repairs at the Navy Yard. The Navy payroll in Boston is $50,000,000 per year.

"Boston has long been a leader in the shipbuilding field," stated the Mayor in his public message. "Its Navy Yard has served the nation since 1800. The type of service given by both the Naval and civilian employees at the Navy Yards in both Charlestown and South Boston has been unsurpassed. Proof of that is the many commendations that have been given the personnel at the yards by the Navy Department.

"The annual payroll of more than $50,000,000 plays a most important role in our Boston way of life. Without it Boston would soon become another so-called 'Distress Area.' This must not happen. All of our Boston and Massachusetts Congressmen should lend their efforts to prevent it.

"We have a natural harbor and splendid docking facilities. Our skilled shipbuilders can construct all types of crafts, ranging from a dinghy to a first line fighting ship. Our drydock in South Boston can service the largest ship that sails the seven seas. We have the equipment, the tools, and last, but not least, we have the best shipbuilding forces in the United States.

"These employees, many of them with families, are an asset to Boston and Massachusetts. Each person's salary adds to the economic development of the Bay State and New England. Slashing the Navy civilian payroll of over $50,000,000 must be stopped if New England's progress is not to be impeded."

Forms of proposals may be obtained at Room 508 (Contract Office), City Hall Annex. Each proposal should be enclosed in an envelope, sealed, marked "Proposal for Sewerage Works and Excavation and Gravel Backfill in Theodore A. The rate per hour of the wages to be paid to mechanics, teamsters, chauffeurs and laborers in the work to be performed under the contract shall not be less than the rate in the schedule as determined by the Commissioner of Labor and Industries of the Commonwealth, a copy of which schedule is annexed to the form of contract referred to herein. DISABLED ELEVATOR IN CITY HALL SOON TO SEE SERVICE AGAIN—CONTRACT FOR REPAIR WORK HAS BEEN LET—BECKWITH ELEVATOR COMPANY WILL DO WORK AT PRICE OF $7,100—MAYOR HYNES HAS APPROVED CONTRACT.

The disabled elevator in City Hall, which has been unavailable for service for a number of weeks, is expected to be in use again before long. Superintendent George P. Donovan of the Public Buildings Department has sought the services of two elevator companies located in Boston by means of advertising.

Mayor Hynes has approved the acceptance of the informal bid of the Beckwith Elevator Company at a price of $7,100. The lift will require extensive repairs before it is ready for service to the public but, when the work is completed, is expected to provide service without future breakdowns which might endanger lives of passengers. Work is expected to begin in a short time. The letter requesting Mayor Hynes to approve the awarding of the contract reads as follows:

PUBLIC BUILDINGS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, August 13, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

This department extended invitations to several elevator companies located in

MORE WORK WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE THE CHARLESTOWN BRIDGE, OVER CHARLES RIVER, CAN BE RETURNED TO SERVICE—ADDITIONAL DEFECTS IN PIERS DISCLOSED IN PROCESS OF REPAIRS UNDERTAKEN—CONDITION MADE KNOWN BY COMMISSIONER TO MAYOR HYNES.

The work of strengthening the piers of the Charlestown Bridge, over the Charles River, has disclosed additional defects to the structure that will add $50,000 to the original contract for the work as had been contemplated, bringing the ultimate cost to approximately $371,960.

This was made known in a letter to Mayor John B. Hynes, from Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland, asking for the additional cost to the contract.

BIG IMPROVEMENTS IN CARE OF ILL AT LONG ISLAND CONTEMPLATED BY MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES AND INSTITUTIONS COMMISSIONER JOHN R. MCGILLIVRAY—ARCHITECT SECURED TO MAKE STUDY AND REPORT RECOMMENDATIONS—NEW 500-BED HOSPITAL, TO COST OVER $5,000,000, AMONG PROPOSALS CONTEMPLATED IN RECOMMENDATIONS MADE BY CITY PLANNING BOARD—ALL MADE POSSIBLE BY MAYOR HYNES' CONSTRUCTION OF NEW VIADUCT CONNECTING ISLAND WITH MAINLAND.

Plans under way for improvements in the facilities at Long Island now contemplate the erection, among other improvements, of a new 500-bed hospital at a cost of $5,340,000, for the chronically ill, now less adequately cared for at other hospitals of the city. The plans under consideration have been the outgrowth of the construction of the viaduct from the mainland to the island by Mayor John B. Hynes, which has made the island more accessible, both for inmates and relatives of the officials and workers who care for them.

The program as contemplated and outlined in a letter from the Institutions Commissioner John McGillivray to Mayor Hynes will extend over through 1955 and possibly 1957. Architect John M. Gray and his staff have been retained to make a study of the needs and to report to the Mayor and the Commissioner.

The letter announcing the plans and the retention of the architectural staff reads as follows:

INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

BOSTON, August 19, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The construction of the viaduct from Moon Island to Long Island in Boston Harbor under chapter 480 of the Acts of 1949 not only gives a new perspective to the future development of the city's hospital institution at Long Island, but also prompts a consideration of the advisability of changes in the buildings presently constituting that institution as well as in the utilities servicing the same. It would seem that if maximum advantage is to be gained from this new viaduct, an expert study of the situation should be obtained. Investigation has disclosed John M. Gray, doing business as John M. Gray Company, with offices at 175 High street, Boston, to be eminently qualified to make such a study. Mr. Gray was the architect for and supervised the construction of the State Cancer Hospital at Westfield, Mass., as well as the additions to the Peabody Hospital in Peabody, Mass., and the Salem Hospital in Salem, Mass. He has rendered architectural services in connection with the Long Island Hospital, the Boston City Hospital, and the Mattapan Sanatorium. He has also rendered services as a member of a state commission in connection with a planning survey made for the State Mental Health Department.

The City Planning Board has voted a recommendation that a survey be made which will show how Long Island may be developed to take full advantage of its possibilities as a hospital ground for the chronic sick of

NEW 500-BED HOSPITAL PLANNED FOR LONG ISLAND—TO COST OVER $5,000,000.

Boston. During the progress of the survey, both Mr. Gray and myself will consult with the Planning Board.

Because of the highly professional nature of the services involved, no useful purpose would appear to be served by inviting bids for the study by advertising in the City Record. Accordingly, authority is hereby respectfully requested to dispense with advertising in awarding a contract to John M. Gray, doing business as John M. Gray Company, with offices at 175 High street, Boston, Mass., for making, at a cost to the city of $15,000, a comprehensive report discussing the advisability of, and making a definite recommendation with respect to, the future development of the estate on Long Island in Boston Harbor belonging to the city and under the control of the Institutions Department, including changes in existing buildings, structures, and utilities on said estate.

Respectfully,

JOHN R. MCGILLIVRAY,
Commissioner.

The Planning Board, which was called into consultation on work of improvement, has commented and explained in the following statement:

The completion of the bridge to Long Island allows more intensive use of the island. The Institutions Department has proposed significant modernization and expansion of hospital facilities. Before this is done, however, the Planning Board suggests that a development and site plan of the island be worked out to guide the construction that will take place. It is proposed, therefore, that such a plan, costing an estimated $15,000, be formulated during the early part of 1953.

NEW HOSPITAL NEEDED.

The greatest current medical need is for a new chronic disease hospital. The Institutions Department now has a waiting list of patients who cannot be accommodated because of lack of beds. This list will grow significantly when many convalescent homes which do not meet minimum building and health requirements are closed in the near future. Furthermore, a new hospital will allow the transfer of at least 250 chronically ill patients from the City Hospital, releasing those beds for more acutely ill patients. Investigation reveals that the Chronic Disease Hospital under construction on Morton street, Forest Hills, by the Commonwealth, will not provide the same kind of services as those proposed for Long Island. The design of a 500-bed hospital at Long Island is programmed for the later months in 1953, and its construction for 1954 and 1955. The total cost is estimated to be about $5,340,000.

OTHER IMPROVEMENTS.

The conversion of the electrical system from direct current to alternating current should be undertaken simultaneously with the erection of the hospital, thereby simplifying construction and minimizing expense. This project has been scheduled for 1954 and 1955.

A new reservoir designed to keep impurities out of the water supply, a function the existing reservoir does not accomplish, is scheduled for 1957; and a new pumping station, which will provide a more adequate water supply for consumption and fire fighting, is scheduled for 1958.

ADDITIONAL WORK ON CHARLESTOWN BRIDGE ORDERED.

The Mayor has approved. In the process of repairing the bridge it was discovered that some of the bridge piers were far more defective than had been disclosed. This was especially true in the case of pier No. 9.

The letter in which approval was sought for the addition and the explanatory reasons reads as follows:

CITY OF BOSTON,
PUBLIC WORKS DEPARTMENT,
BOSTON, August 24, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The city is currently under contract with the Crandall Engineering Company for strengthening the piers of the Charlestown Bridge, over the Charles River, which contract was approved by you on September 22, 1952, in the amount of $321,900.

Under this contract it was expected to complete all work necessary to correct the defective foundations of the bridge piers and the contractor is now in the process of strengthening a portion of pier No. 9, the last pier to be done. However, it is now found that the defective conditions of the concrete foundation of Pier 9 are much more extensive and progressive than indicated in the original inspections made in connection with this work. These conditions could not have been determined in the original inspections because the wooden sheathing, bolts, etc., which retained and protected the original concrete foundation in the areas referred to herein were still in place but have since deteriorated sufficiently to fall away, disclosing the conditions noted.

Therefore, your authority is requested to dispense with public advertising and to extend this contract by making available an amount of $50,000 over and above the original bid price plus 25 per cent.

This amount is necessary to perform the additional work required over and above the estimated quantities set out in the proposal, the additional work being incidental to the work covered by the contract.

The contractor is ready and willing to perform the additional work under the prices bid in his existing 1952 contract.

The prices contained in the contract are fair and reasonable; and in view of the fact that the contractor's total bid was $93,460 less than the second bidder, who in turn was $112,230 less than the third bidder, I consider it to be to the best interests of the city to extend this contract as requested at the current unit prices of the contract.

The work to be done under this extension of contract will complete all necessary repairs and strengthening of the piers of this bridge; and if not done now will have to be done later at prices unquestionably higher than those under the existing contract.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,
Commissioner of Public Works.

DISABLED ELEVATOR IN CITY HALL TO BE RE-PAIRED.

the city to submit bids on making extensive repairs on disabled elevator located in the old City Hall Building.

Only two companies seemed to be interested and filed bids with us on this proposed work as follows:

Beckwith Elevator Company, 151 Pearl street, $7,100; P. S. Payne Company, 291 Congress street, $8,190.

As time is an important factor in this situation, and in my opinion nothing could be gained by publicly advertising, and as the Beckwith Elevator Company has been servicing our elevators for a number of years and has always rendered satisfactory service, I respectfully request that permission be granted to award a contract for repairing disabled elevator in City Hall to the low bidder, Beckwith Elevator Company, in the sum of $7,100.

Very truly yours,

GEORGE P. DONOVAN,
Superintendent of Public Buildings.

ROAD TESTS FOR CITY AUTO DRIVERS CONDUCTED.

The Mayor's Automotive Advisory Committee invited experts of the Traffic Safety Education Division of the Atlantic Refining Company to road-test approximately 100 drivers of the City of Boston Public Works Department, during the week of August 31.

A year ago these men were trained under the direction of the Mayor's Automotive Advisory Committee's Safety Director, Theodore J. Hoppe, and have driven ever since without an accident, and will now take the road test as a refresher course.

Each man will drive a dual-controlled car for 45 minutes, under actual road conditions, and will be checked by Henry F. Pratt and John A. Gillis of the Traffic Safety Education Division of the Atlantic Refining Company on driving proficiency.

This activity will enable drivers to continue their fine safety record for another year, thereby eliminating accidents and reducing automotive costs, in accordance with the Mayor's plans.

ROADWAY OPENED FOR TRAVEL.

The Mayor has approved the following vote of the Board of Street Commissioners:

Voted, That in accordance with the provisions of chapter 117, Acts of 1947, the location, direction, width, and grade having been approved by the Board of Street Commissioners, permission is hereby granted to Julius Koroday to open for public travel David road, West Roxbury district, from Moss Hill road to Mossbank Footway, as shown on plan by Henry F. Bryant & Son, Inc., dated June 28, 1951, and on file with this Board.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

SHERIFF'S OFFICE.

Bids, opened August 6, were as follows: Flynn Roofing and Sheet Metal Works, $5,465; John F. Shea Company, Inc., $7,358; Burgess & Blacher Company, $7,695; Bogue Roofers, $7,951; John J. Hourihan, $9,310.

On August 11, 1953, the Mayor approved a request for the award of this roofing contract to the lowest bidder, Flynn Roofing and Sheet Metal Works in the sum of $5,465. Mr. J. Henry Flynn, owner of the Flynn Roofing and Sheet Metal Works, had stated by letter that he was unable to secure the necessary performance bond in compliance with the terms of the contract.

WITHOUT ADVERTISING.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with firms, contractors and commercial houses for furnishing labor, supplies, etc. Communications from heads of the departments interested were as follows:

HOSPITAL DEPARTMENT.

Boston, August 18, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

On July 15, 1953, after publicly advertising for proposals for certain needed repairs to brick work in No. 5 and No. 6 boilers, Power Plant, Boston City Hospital, a contract was awarded to Patrick Ross Company, 175 Webster avenue, Cambridge, Mass., the lowest bidder, in the sum of $2,374.

In the course of doing the work it was unexpectedly discovered that the lining on the top of the front wall on No. 6 boiler is badly bulged out and ready to drop into the furnace. It is imperative for the protection of the boiler supports from the intense heat of the fire that this lining be removed immediately and new lining installed, including the necessary rows of bonding tie to hold this wall in position. Therefore, as the aforementioned condition must be corrected at once, and as this contractor is capable of performing the work promptly and proposes to do it at a fair price, your authorization is requested to dispense with advertising and to amend the aforesaid contract by an additional $285 to allow and cover the cost of the extra work involved in furnishing and installing the new lining in No. 6 boiler at Power Plant, Boston City Hospital as aforesaid mentioned. The total contract price not to exceed the sum of $2,659.

The Board is of the view that public advertising will be of little avail under the circumstances.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF TRUSTEES, BOSTON CITY HOSPITAL,
by RICHARD J. CONDON,
President.

LIBRARY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, August 6, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The trustees respectfully request that your Honor approve the award of a contract, without public advertising, to the Massachusetts Envelope Company, 641-643 Atlantic avenue, Boston, Mass., for 500,000 printed book pockets and 100,000 plain book pockets. The printed book pockets are to be placed in those books of the Library's Division of Reference and Research Services which may be borrowed by the public. These books must be provided with a new type of book pocket in order that the library may put into operation a plan for the centralized charging of books which will result ultimately in savings in personnel. Because of a time element in the availability of individuals for this book pocketing project, bids were invited from five companies. The Massachusetts Envelope Company was the lowest bidder on both the printed and the plain book pockets and is able to deliver the book pockets within the required period. The trustees have therefore

"Voted, That there be entered into, without public advertising, with the Massachusetts Envelope Company, 641-

643 Atlantic avenue, Boston, a contract for the provision of 500,000 printed book pockets and for 100,000 plain book pockets in accordance with the specifications, at a price of $3.72 per thousand for the printed book pockets and $3.45 per thousand for the plain book pockets."

Inasmuch as the total cost of the work will exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000), there is requested the permission of your Honor to enter into this contract, without publicly advertising for bids.

Respectfully,

THE TRUSTEES OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON

by MILTON E. LORD,
Director.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, August 27, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

From time to time, the Automotive Division and Sanitary Division of the Public Works Department require replacement parts for Elgin sweepers being operated by their divisions.

Ernest J. Bleiler, doing business as E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, the distributor for Elgin Sweeper Parts, is the only source of supply in this area. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Ernest J. Bleiler, doing business as E. J. Bleiler Equipment Company, for furnishing replacement parts to the Public Works Department for the divisions as mentioned above from September 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954 inclusive. It is my opinion, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Prices to be quoted by this company will be net prices at time of delivery. Approximate total amount of contract will be $6,000, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

REPAIRS TO FORT HILL MONUMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 10, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Chairman of the Park Department relative to your order of August 3, 1953, concerning the request to repair and remodel all benches and lawns and repaint the Fort Hill Monument.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Park Department, August 6, 1953.
Thomas G. J. Shannon,
Chief Clerk, Mayor's Office.

Dear Sir:
This will acknowledge memo from your office with attached enclosure, City Council order requesting the repainting of the Fort Hill Monument in Roxbury and the repair of the benches and general rehabilitation of the park area in the vicinity of the monument.

It was only a matter of a few years ago that this monument was painted at considerable expense, but, because of the interest of Councillor Ward and the order that was submitted to the Council, I have referred the matter to the General Superintendent as to the possibility of making some of the improvements that have been requested in the Council order.

Very truly yours,

FRANK R. KELLEY, Chairman.

TRAFFIC LIGHTS AT HARRISON AVENUE AND EUSTIS STREET.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 13, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:
I transmit herewith communication from the Commissioner of the Boston Traffic Commission relative to your order of August 3, 1953, concerning the installation of traffic signal lights at Harrison avenue and Eustis street, Ward 8.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

Boston Traffic Commission,

August 10, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:
With reference to Council order of August 3, 1953, requesting the installation of traffic signal lights at Harrison avenue and Eustis street in this intersection, we find that there is a heavy volume of traffic at this intersection.

A recent count shows over 10,500 vehicles passing through Eustis street and Harrison avenue from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m., approximately 7,400 being on Harrison avenue and 3,100 on Eustis street.

According to our records there were three accidents in that area in 1952; and one each during 1951, 1950, and 1949. This location is at the corner of the Orchard Park Housing Project and, accordingly, there seem to be enough warrants available to justify the installation of a traffic signal.

As all past appropriations for signal lights have been committed for other locations, we cannot promise immediate action in response to this request. However, we are adding this location to our list for consideration when we make up the next list based upon the next appropriation which may be made available to us.

Respectfully yours,

Wm. ARTHUR REILLY, Commissioner.

Dear Mr. Shannon:

Re: Council Order of July 27, 1953, Requesting Chairman of the Board of Real Estate Commissioners to Negotiate with MTA Trustees with View of Purchasing or Renting Area of MTA Property in Fields Corner for Off-Street Parking Purposes.

At the request of the City Council Committee on Appropriations, I, on July 20, 1953, wrote to the Trustees of the MTA concerning the above-captioned premises, and received the following reply, a copy of which I forwarded to said committee on July 24:

Mr. Herman Carp, Chairman,

Board of Real Estate Commissioners.

Dear Sir:

In reply to your letter of July 20, wherein you state that it has been called to the attention of your department that the Authority intends to abandon the area on Park street in Dorchester, at Fields Corner, presently used for the storage of MTA buses, I wish to inform you that it is not our intention to relinquish any part of this property.

Very truly yours,

J. J. SULLIVAN,

Administrative Authority,

METROPOLITAN TRANSIT AUTHORITY.

If the property had been available, and of sufficient size, our engineers would have made a study of it to utilize it for off-street parking purposes.

However, since the property is not available, we cannot proceed along the lines suggested in the Council order.

Very truly yours,

HERMAN CARP, Chairman.

Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

Under date of August 1, 1919, the Post Publishing Company filed a so-called street permit bond, in the amount of $20,000, with the Permit Office of this department, to protect the interests of the public and the City of Boston in connection with a spur track crossing Rutherford avenue, Charlestown, to their property. The United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company acted as surety on this bond.

Inasmuch as the Post Publishing Company has sold its building on Rutherford avenue to the American Flour Company, the Post Publishing Company requests that they be relieved of their liability in connection with the use and maintenance of the spur track.

The new owner of the building, the American Flour Company, has submitted a new $20,000 bond, with the Providence Washington Indemnity Company as surety, to replace the previous bond deposited with the department by the Post Publishing Company. The bond submitted by the American Flour Company is satisfactory to this department and, therefore, I submit—for submission to the City Council for the approval of that body—an order prepared by the Corporation Counsel, which, in effect, cancels the previous bond left by the Post Publishing Company and substitutes the bond deposited by the American Flour Company.

Respectfully yours,

GEORGE G. HYLAND,

Commissioner of Public Works.

Whereas, The Post Publishing Company on August 1, 1919, filed a bond in the amount of $20,000 under chapter 28, section 10, of the Revised Ordinances of 1914, with the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company as surety, in connection with a spur track crossing Rutherford avenue, Charlestown; and

Whereas, The American Flour Company has succeeded to the rights and obligations of the Post Publishing Company with respect to said spur track; and

Whereas, The said American Flour Company has furnished a bond in the amount of $20,000 with the Providence Washington Indemnity Company as surety, which surety is satisfactory to the Commissioner of Public Works; now, therefore, be it Ordered, That the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company be, and it hereby is, released from its liability as surety for the Post Publishing Company, effective upon the passage of this order.

SALE OF PIGS BY PENAL INSTITUTIONS DEPARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 13, 1953.
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I transmit herewith communication from the Penal Institutions Commissioner relative to the approval of your Honorable Body for the public sale of the 100 pigs at the House of Correction, Deer Island, that are surplus.

Respectfully,

J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Penal Institutions Department,
August 13, 1953.

Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir,

This department has a surplus of 100 pigs at the House of Correction, Deer Island, which we would like to sell. These pigs weigh about 150 pounds each, a total of 15,000 pounds. At the present market price the City of Boston should receive approximately $3,000 from this sale. If approved, it is my intention to advertise this sale in the City Record and sell to the highest bidder, with a representative of the Sealer of Weights and Measures Department to supervise the weighing.

Authority by the City Council and your Honor's approval of this public sale is respectfully requested.

Very truly yours,
EDWARD L. FRIEL,
Penal Institutions Commissioner.

Ordered, That the Penal Institutions Commissioner is hereby authorized to sell to the highest bidder 100 surplus pigs at the House of Correction, Deer Island.

APPROPRIATION FOR PURCHASE OF MOTORCYCLES FOR POLICE DE-PARTMENT.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Office of the Mayor, August 5, 1953.
To the City Council,
Gentlemen:

I am in receipt of the attached communication from the Police Commissioner in which he requests an appropriation of $12,842 to permit the purchase of ten motorcycles to be used by the Police Department in connection with the supervision of parking meters.

Under the provisions of section 22A of chapter 40 of the General Laws, revenue received from parking meter fees may be used to meet necessary expenses incurred for the regulation of parking and other traffic activities incident thereto.

Since proper supervision of the use of parking meters will assure a full return to the city of established parking meter fees, I submit herewith an order providing for the appropriation of the amount requested by the Police Commissioner, and respectfully recommend its adoption by your Honorable Body.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Police Department, July 30, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Mr. Mayor:

When the Police Department budget for 1953 was caused by the Mayor and the Budget Commissioner, it was agreed that under Item 502, Automotive Equipment, that portion required for motorcycles would be eliminated from the budget, with the understanding that the necessary amount would be appropriated from revenue received from parking meter fees, as has been the custom.

We have recently publicly advertised for bids for the replacement of ten motorcycles with sidecars, and the lowest bid is $12,842, which includes the trade-in allowance for the old motorcycles. List of bids is enclosed.

I respectfully recommend that an appropriation be made from the parking fees account to meet this cost, namely, $12,842.

Very truly yours,
T. F. SULLIVAN,
Police Commissioner.

Proposals—Ten Motorcycles and Sidecars.—Phillips Brothers, $13,187; Harley-Davidson Motor Company, $13,037; Cyclo-Craft, $12,842.

Ordered, That the sum of $12,842 be, and the same hereby is, appropriated from the revenue received from parking meter fees to be expended by the Police Commissioner for the purchase of motorcycles to be used in the supervision of the use of parking meters.

REPORT OF FINANCE COMMISSION ON TAX VALUATIONS.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
Finance Commission, August 11, 1953.
To the Honorable the Mayor and City Council:

In its recent report analyzing the computations of the Board of Assessors in the 1953 tax rate determination, the Finance Commission referred to the number of appeals from the Board's decisions to the State Appellate Tax Board in the last fiscal year. Such appeals are, of course, the result of the dissatisfaction of the taxpayers with the valuations placed upon their properties and, if successful, lead to a refund of part of the taxes paid.

At this time the Commission reveals the valuations represented in those appeals. In the cases appealed in the year 1952-53 (July 1, 1952, to June 30, 1953), valuations totaling $603,674,520 were disputed. This meant that approximately 38 per cent of the 1952 total valuations of $1,573,516,000 were subsequently disputed by the property owners. More strikingly, the Tax Appellate Board rendered decisions in the year in appeals involving $74,340,000 valuation of previous years and held, in effect, that this was $17,376,900 too high.

As is well known, the Assessors add to the net requirements of cities of anticipated expenditures less anticipated revenues a sum labeled "overlay" in order to arrive at the total sum to be levied against assessable property. By statute this sum must be a minimum of 3 per cent of the net requirements. For years past and in 1953 the minimum figure has been used, though in not one year in a generation has the minimum been enough. Charges to this item are the refunds of taxes which have been paid, but are later determined to have been in excess of proper valuations, plus the amount of taxes represented in adjustments to a lower level of taxes assessed but not actually paid.

Indicating that more and more taxpayers are becoming aggrieved by Boston assessments, the number of appeals from the Assessors' decisions increased from 3,184 in 1949 to 4,526 in 1950; there were 4,673 in 1951 and 4,791 in 1952. In each of these years the figures given are of new appeals. The number of cases pending at the end of each fiscal year (June 30), which closely approximated tax rate determination time, has been: June 30, 1949, 5,812; 1950, 5,383; 1951, 6,768; 1952, 7,530; 1953, 8,365. It is apparent that the number of owners who are dissatisfied with the Assessors' decisions has been steadily increasing.

In number of cases of appeals decided by the Appellate Tax Board, the trend is even more ominous. The Board decided 99 Boston cases in 1949, 195 in 1950, 327 in 1951, and 512 in 1952. This does not mean that the decisions necessarily applied to the valuation originally set in the year of the decision; the decisions in 1952 were in practically all instances in cases which originated from Assessors' determination in preceding years, many of them going back to the late 40's. It is significant that the number of cases settled by the Assessors after appeal had been made to the State Appellate Tax Board has remained almost constant; 3,414 in 1949; 2,936 in 1950; 3,484 in 1951; and 3,636 in 1952. Therefore, there has been little change in the number of cases disposed of after the appeal, while the number tried and decided by the Board has increased.

The meaning in property valuations of these numbers of cases may be seen in the following tabulation:

In re Massachusetts Appellate Tax Board Record of Boston Cases.

The following inferences may be drawn from the table and from previous Appellate Board reports:

Notwithstanding the increase in the number of cases decided by the Appellate Tax Board, the number of cases pending at the end of the fiscal year of the Board of June 30, 1953, is one of the highest on record; and the amount of valuation involved in these cases is the highest of any year. This amount is $1,448,118,981. It includes, mostly, successive petitions relating to valuations of the same properties for more than one year.

The percentage of the entire valuation of the city involved in the cases filed during the fiscal year, a factor which may be taken as some indication of taxpayer reaction, was the highest of recent years. (If the assessed valuation were related only to the real estate valuation of the city, the percentage would be even higher. However, the combined real estate and personal property figure is taken as a base because personal property is involved sometimes in the cases.)

The amount of valuation involved in the cases withdrawn and settled with the local assessors during last fiscal year is substantial; it is more than four times the amount involved in the cases decided by the Board of Tax Appeal. The number of cases is more than six times the number decided by the Appellate Board. The average amount of valuation involved in the cases decided by the Appellate Board during the fiscal year just closed was $145,198; the average valuation of the cases settled by the Assessors was $95,314.

The margin of difference between the judgment of the Appellate Board and that of the local assessors during the fiscal year ended June 30, 1953, is indicated by the amount of overvaluation found by the Board in the 512 cases decided; it was 23.4 per cent, a figure above the average for the past four years.

The cumulative deficit in the annual overvals stands, as of June 30, 1953, at $12,786,807.95. Pursuant of the tax rate analysis recently released by the Finance Commission will show that besides carrying an appropriation of $3,238,937.62 for overlay to cover the 1953 levy, the commission also includes an amount of $2,663,986.94 to cover deficits in the overlay of 1950 and 1951; and this despite the fact that in 1950 and 1951 a total of $5,771,298.64 had been appropriated for the purpose of meeting abatements. Moreover, the indirect costs to the city which flow from abatements, although not amenable to precise accounting, must in the aggregate amount to a formidable sum.

REQUEST OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE TO RECONSIDER CLOSING OF SCHOOLS.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:

Whereas, The School Committee of the City of Boston has voted for the closing of certain schools in the city and for the consolidation of other schools; and

Whereas, This program of closings and consolidation was considered in group fashion rather than as individual cases; and

Whereas, The families whose children are affected were not given an opportunity to present their case at a public hearing on these matters, which is the procedure which best expresses the American way of life; and

Whereas, The vote for these group closings and consolidation was 3 to 2, with two committee members unconvinced of the desirability of carrying out these proposals in mass form and unaware that the matters were to be considered at the time, and they expressed a desire for additional information;

Resolved, That the able and accomplished Superintendent of the Boston Schools, Mr. Dennis Haley, has presented the facts regarding the orderly and methodical manner in which such closings and consolidations have been accomplished over a period of years, and the same manner should be applied at this time; and

Whereas, The health and safety of the children involved should be the paramount consideration, rather than a financial one; be it therefore Resolved, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, calls upon the School Committee to reconsider the vote on the program of closings and consolidation and to hold individual public hearings regarding each school involved.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

STATUS OF CONSTRUCTION WORK AT SUMNER TUNNEL.

Coun. HURLEY offered the following:
Ordered, That the Boston City Council, in meeting assembled, calls upon the Governor to instruct the Commissioner of the Department of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts to order the contractors doing work in areas such as the Summer

REQUEST AS TO PROGRESS ON DRAFTING FIRE CODE.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:
Whereas, There is an urgent need for an adequate Fire Code for the City of Boston; and
Whereas, The lack of such a Fire Code is a definite threat to the safety, health, and welfare of the citizens of Boston; and
Whereas, The institution of a proper Fire Code has been in preparation for many years without completion; now, therefore, be it
Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor be requested to direct the Corporation Counsel to inform the City Council of Boston as to the progress and present status of the preparation of an adequate Fire Code for the City of Boston.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION TO CERTAIN POLICE OFFICERS.

Coun. AHEARN offered the following:

REPORT REQUESTED ON STATUS OF FIRE CODE.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:
Resolved, That the Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston is hereby authorized and directed to file a report with the Clerk of the Boston City Council of the result of his study and investigation and his recommendations, if any, relative to the Fire Code in Boston, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry its recommendations into effect.

The resolution was adopted under suspension of the rules.

PROGRAM TO INCREASE SALES ACTIVITY OF CITY-OWNED PROPERTY.

Coun. PIEMONTE offered the following:
Whereas, There are now approximately 4,000 parcels of city-owned real estate held by the Board of Real Estate Commissioners of the City of Boston; and
Whereas, The assessed valuation of said parcels is in the vicinity of $3,000,000; and
Whereas, The sale of these parcels would bring additional income to the City of Boston and also be an annual income to the city from the money in the form of real estate taxes; and
Whereas, The City of Boston would save the money now expended to clean, police, and care for these lots; now, therefore, be it
Resolved, That his Honor the Mayor request the Board of Real Estate Commissioners to plan and carry out a program designed to create more sales activity such as establishing and publishing a minimum price for each parcel, and setting a date and time for an auction to be held in each section of the city for a given number of parcels in said section, and preferably at an hour when the average working man might be able to attend without loss of time from work, and posting the date and time of such auction and the parcels to be sold on the bulletin board of the library and on the municipal bulletin in the various sections of the city, and also consider the advisability of distributing copies of the notice in the upper grades of the schools in each section in which the sale is to take place.

(1) The underlying object of reorganization must be to secure effective executive action through the medium of budgetary control;

(2) The number of agencies performing like functions reporting directly to the executive must be set at a minimum; and
(3) The executive must have direct control of one executive (Mayor or proposed Deputy Mayor);

(3) Providing the executive with a budgetary staff which will permit him to intelligently exercise his executive authority; and be it further

BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS.

Boston, August 24, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

The Board of Election Commissioners respectfully requests that permission be given them to award the contract for printing the preliminary municipal election ballots to the firm of Wright & Potter Printing Company, of 32 Derne street, Boston, without advertising for bids, at the following prices:

For 111,000 official paper ballots (104 precincts), including specimen ballots (10 for each precinct) boxed in open window cartons, $2,585.75.* For 21,800 "Challenged" ballots (100 for each of the 218 voting machine precincts) printed "Challenged Ballot" in red ink across filing, $287.50. For voting machine cards and specimen ballots for 218 precincts (3 cards each for 715 Shoup and 690 automatic voting machines), with 10 specimen ballots for each precinct, $4,358.60. Two thousand ballot strips for Shoup machines (no printing), $41.75. Total, $7,273.60.

The ballots for the preliminary election will contain 322 precinct changes and 22 ward changes in the make-up. Great care will be required on the part of the printer, as the time for printing such ballots and ballot labels and making a delivery to this office is very limited.

The Wright & Potter Printing Company is the only printing concern especially equipped to do this work, having printed the state and City of Boston ballots for a long period of years. For this reason, and to safeguard the voters of the city as far as possible against error, this request is made.

Respectfully yours,

BOARD OF ELECTION COMMISSIONERS,
PERLIE DYAR CHASE,
Chairman.

*In the event that additional ballots are necessary in excess of the 111,000, ballots will be supplied at the rate of $6.75 per M.

Upon varying dates as indicated the Mayor approved contracts with commercial houses, contractors, etc., for furnishing labor and supplies. Communications from heads of the various departments interested were as follows:

DEPARTMENT OF SCHOOL BUILDINGS.

BOSTON, August 19, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,

Mayor of Boston.

SUBJECT: Washington Irving School.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Department of School Buildings is making an extended effort to cooperate with the School Committee of the City of Boston in its effort to have schools requiring alterations due to changes authorized by the School Committee available for the opening of school on September 14, 1953.

To obtain public bids and negotiate contracts would consume a period of weeks and therefore I consider it would be in the best interests of the City of Boston and all persons involved to arrange to have the work done on order with competent contractors, with the understanding that in each instance, where practical, the lowest of three bidders solicited will be awarded the work.

I estimate that the total cost of work in the Washington Irving School will not exceed thirty-five hundred dollars ($3,500), but this amount would be broken down into a number of items on orders issued to contractors involving the many trades that would perform the work.

May I obtain your approval of such procedure.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

SUBJECT: Bunker Hill School.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Due to the receipt of an unprecedented number of requisitions for trucking school building furniture and furnishings from building to building since April 1 of this year, as compared to previous years, I find that the amount of moneys contracted for with the Rodgers Motor Lines of Boston, Inc., 57 Wachusett street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for the trucking work is not sufficient to pay for the unanticipated increase in the volume of such work.

The increase in the volume of trucking work has been occasioned by the closing and the change in status of a number of school buildings, involving changes in furniture to satisfy newly established conditions. Hence the following request:

That the advertised contract for trucking, negotiated by this department with Rodgers Motor Lines of Boston, Inc., 57 Wachusett street, Jamaica Plain, Mass., for the period beginning April 1, 1953, and ending March 31, 1954, "in an amount not to exceed $12,000," predicated on "normal expenditures for this kind of work, be amended to read "in an amount not to exceed $27,000."

I would like to point out that this contractor performs its services in a highly satisfactory manner and that the existing rates which are to continue in effect are fair.

The additional amount of $15,000 necessary is available in the 1953 budget of this department.

Your consideration and approval is requested.

Respectfully yours,

JAMES H. MOONEY,
Superintendent of Construction.

REAL ESTATE COMMISSION.

Boston, September 1, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Board of Real Estate Commissioners proposes to engage the services of Mr. John Guarino, 2 Lexington street, East Boston, as architect for the engineering and architectural services in connection with the proposed construction of an open-air off-street parking facility at Dudley street, Roxbury.

The estimated cost of the proposed parking facility is approximately $27,500, and the architect shall be paid a fee equal to 5 per cent of the full amount of the cost of the construction, not to exceed $1,350; his contract to include supervision of the work to be done.

In view of the nature of the professional services involved, no benefit would be gained by advertising for bids, and it is respectfully requested that permission be given to award the contract to John Guarino, without public advertising.

Respectfully yours,

HERMAN CARP,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, August 28, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Informal requests for prices on 35,000 purchase order forms to be used by this department during the year 1954 have been solicited among seven companies. American Register Company has submitted the lowest price.

Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to American Register Company at an approximate total amount of $1,074.50, less 1 per cent discount for payment within ten days. It is my opinion that, in this way, the best interests of the city will be served.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

SUFFOLK COUNTY.

REGISTRY OF DEEDS.

Boston, August 25, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

Your approval is respectfully requested to dispense with public advertising and, following the effective date of the 1953 budget, to enter into a contract with Graphic Microfilm of New England, Inc., 806 Massachusetts avenue, Cambridge, Mass., to deliver to the Suffolk Registry of Deeds, 41,000 tabulating, size 1/35, C. L. Filmort card jackets at $59.45 per thousand, as required and requested during the period April 1, 1953, to March 31, 1954, at a total cost not to exceed $2,437.45.

The subject "card jackets" are to be used to store film prints which will make for a more efficient use of the prints by the public and, in addition, by employing them, we will save considerable space which is a most important factor in entering into the proposed contract. Furthermore, Graphic Microfilm of New England, Inc., is the only concern manufacturing these items and as a result public advertising would appear to serve no useful purpose.

Respectfully yours,

LEO J. SULLIVAN,
Register of Deeds.

RECENT FEDERAL ACTIONS AFFECTING CITIES.

The Housing Act of 1949, approved on July 15, authorized a uniform 10 per cent payment to cities in lieu of taxes on housing projects, but the independent offices appropriation bill passed on August 15 contains a provision that for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1950, only payments provided for in the original contract between the housing authority and the city are authorized for federal reimbursement.

Federal aid for hospital construction has been approved for nearly 800 projects; more than 600 are general hospitals and the great majority are in towns of under 10,000 population.

AMERICAN CITY NOT DOOMED TO DISAPPEAR DESPITE SPREAD OF SUBURBAN AREAS ADJACENT TO AND BECOMING PART OF SUCH THROUGH WIDENING OF BOUNDARIES AND ATTRACTIONS OF SUBURBAN LIVING — MAYOR JOHN B. HYNES DISCUSSES GROWTH AND EXPANSION OF URBAN CENTERS FROM SETTLEMENT OF COUNTRY TO PRESENT TIME — ADDRESSES LEAGUE OF VIRGINIA MUNICIPALITIES IN ASSEMBLY AT RICHMOND — DELIVERS MAIN ADDRESS.

At League of Virginia Municipalities at Richmond, Virginia, on September 14, 1953, Mayor John B. Hynes delivered the following address:

I am happy to be in this old historic city of Richmond. I am happy, too, that I come from a great commonwealth which, coupled with your commonwealth, is a cornerstone in this great structure we have built — this wonder of ancient and modern civilization — the United States of America.

The old patriots of your state and mine, who founded this nation of free men, would be surprised and astounded were they to return to earth in this year of 1953 — surprised at the mammoth oak which has grown from the little acorn they planted — astounded to see the crowded, congested, teeming cities that dot our country from coast to coast.

The idea of big, crowded cities was repugnant to the founding fathers. Your own Thomas Jefferson spoke out in no uncertain terms against the packing of humanity into one small area, warning that it would lead to the same kind of corruption which had rotted, degraded, and destroyed cities of an earlier civilization.

MAYOR HYNES CITES NEED FOR NEIGHBORHOOD REHABILITATION COMMITTEES TO REVIVE LIVING CONDITIONS AND PREVENT MUNICIPAL DECAY—ADDRESSES ORGANIZATIONAL MEETING OF NEWLY CHOSEN DISTRICT COMMITTEES AND THEIR PROGRAMS.

Following are remarks by Mayor John B. Hynes before the organizational meeting of the Charlestown, East Boston, North End and West End Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program Committees, at the Parker House, Wednesday, September 16:

The Boston Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program was inaugurated in May of this year. At that time I named several of my department heads and my industrial advisor as an Advisory Committee to survey the blighted areas of the city and to serve as a steering committee. As a result of their conferences, it was decided that the practical approach to the problem was to set up a committee of interested parties in each of the 15 health and welfare districts which, as you know, cover the entire city. Already eight committees, including the four meeting here, Government of Laws.

Despite the fears of Jefferson and others of his time, the inborn desire of man to associate with his fellow man — to join with his fellow man in a society for mutual help and protection — has resulted in the American city, as we know it today. What has saved the American city — and, indeed, our nation itself — from the dire fate predicted by the statesmen of an earlier era is the farseeing wisdom of these same statesmen who built even better than they knew — who built here a government of laws, not of men.

The growth and development of the American city is as startling and exciting as the history and growth of the development of our country itself, and we of this generation have experienced and have been witnesses to more growth, more change, more development than any other generation since the days of Patrick Henry and Daniel Webster.

The process of growth of the urban centers of America still goes on, but at a slower pace. There is a shadow in the offing. There is a great change taking place in our way of living and even in our way of thinking. Today, the erstwhile magnetic attractions of city life are in mortal combat with the attractions of suburban living. Indeed, many of the older American cities — Boston especially — have already begun to be seriously concerned with, and affected by, this revolution in the living habits of the American people.

Man's Inborn Trait.

What is causing this change from the security of urban living to the delights of suburban living? Again, we can point, and with seeming contradiction, to another inborn trait of man — a desire to have a little piece of land he can call his own, to have more freedom of movement, to share more fully in the beauties and the fruits of mother nature.

This he can do today with little loss of security, for by his side is the telephone, that magic, remarkable instrument which bridges the chasms of time and space, and which can bring almost instant response in time of need or distress. In his yard or in his garage is a four-wheeled vehicle which can propel him, in a matter of minutes, to places which were separated by hours before the advent of the automobile. Within a stone's throw of his home is a highway, broad and long, which enables him to go farther in a day than his grandfather could travel in a week; and not too far away is an airport, the open door to the far-distant places of the world.

MAYOR HYNES' ADDRESS BEFORE LEAGUE OF VIRGINIA MUNICIPALITIES.

Rapid transportation, rapid transmission, labor-saving devices, educational and entertainment outlets, the modern home conveniences, are but a few of the factors causing decentralization from our urban centers, and from present indications this decentralization, this flight, if you will, of business, industry, and the successful type of citizen from our traffic-clogged and crowded cities, is bound to bring a problem of growing dimensions to every large, and even medium-sized, city in our land.

Throughout our country, wherever expressways, throughways, or arterial highways have cut through the countryside, we have witnessed the awakening of sedate, even sleepy-looking little towns, into dynamic, bustling communities. We have seen shopping centers arise, almost overnight, in areas removed from the city, yet easily reached by automobile.

FACES SERIOUS PROBLEMS.

We, the administrators of big cities, are now in competition for industry and business with towns outside our borders which heretofore have been strictly residential in character but which, because of their proximity to rail and modern highway facilities, have blossomed forth as desirable business locations. I need not emphasize that commerce is the economic lifeblood of a city, and I need not labor the point that when a city begins to lose out in the competition for new business, or, indeed, to lose old established businesses to neighboring towns, that city—and there are many of them—is faced with a serious problem.

It is not my premise that the city is doomed—that it will disappear from the face of America. Not by any means. There must be, and always will be, an urban center—a hard core which can provide for almost every conceivable desire of man in his business, social, and religious relationships. No, the American city is not going to disappear. To be sure, it no longer has that come-hither, irresistible look in its eyes. It may have lost some of its old allure, but the American city is still a necessity in our modern life, and without it the satellite communities which surround it would soon find that the pleasures and attractions of suburban living are predicated on the healthy survival of the urban center.

If, then, we acknowledge that the American city—and I speak more especially of the older and larger cities—has reached a stage of suspended animation, as it were, and if we acknowledge, too, that the continuance of the American city is a modern necessity, what must be done, what steps must be taken, so that the city will not languish, falter, and become decrepit with a hardening of its economic arteries?

This is a problem which, in my opinion, we cannot expect the federal government to solve. It is a community or regional problem, the solution of which must be found on that level, or on the level no higher than the state government.

It seems to me that we must explore our accepted and time-worn conceptions of local government, and especially that bland assurance, which seems to be prevalent, that a big city bearing the full cost of a multitude of functions of benefit to a whole community can somehow, in some mysterious way, fight off the effects of decentralization and change, and continue to be a thriving, prosperous, healthy, not too expensive agency of government.

It cannot be, and unless there is an intelligent, thoughtful realization of what is taking place in America, it may well be that big cities will become entirely too expensive to do business in, or even to live in. If this should come to pass, it would really be a tragedy of far-reaching significance.

VARIED INCOME SOURCES NEEDED.

Only because of the income received by certain cities from sales taxes, payroll taxes, occupational and other so-called nuisance taxes, is it possible for those cities to establish a tax rate which is not a depressing burden on the owners of real estate, both commercial and residential. It is because Boston does not have the benefit of varied and substantial sources of income that my city has the unwanted and unfortunate distinction of having one of the highest tax rates of any large city. But, even in those cities which have access to substantial revenues, notably New York City, there are signs of trouble ahead. As it casts its nightly glow upon our cities, we can see that there are spots of blood on the moon.

What, then, are some of the means by which cities can meet the challenge of change, meet the ordinary demands placed upon them, and yet be centers where it is possible to live and do business at a cost which is not unreasonable?

In the first place, cities themselves must conform to the changing pattern of life. They must put their houses in order. They must beware of lavish expenditures prompted in many instances by articulate minorities. They must plan not for one year—but for ten, or at least five, years. They must be careful of expanding services which add to yearly maintenance costs, unless those new and greater services are of vital necessity. They must recognize that the big city is no longer, in these days of the A-bomb and the H-bomb, the tremendous attraction to business or to people that it was even a short generation ago. They must seek to make those improvements and changes which will restore the city's attractiveness. There must be a continuity of design. There must be less political expediency and more business management.

The amalgamation of closely-knit cities and towns into one corporate government is one of the sensible approaches to civic problems, and yet it is here that local pride, local tradition, local custom, and political, religious, and social differences form an almost impassable barrier. To my mind, the formation of a metropolitan city in instances where there are overlapping and duplicate functions is not only desirable but, from a logical and practical viewpoint, an economic necessity. From the viewpoint of efficiency and economy it is not sensible that 40 cities and towns within a radius of 25 miles—a situation which obtains in my area—all having the same basic problems, should each operate a separate fire, police, public works, park, library, hospital, and civil defense department, not to mention numerous other duplicate municipal activities. The days of the horse and buggy are gone, but the local government structure of the era of high button shoes still lingers on.

This situation is not peculiar to the Boston area. In varying degrees it is typical of the condition which exists within the orbit of many other large cities. In this respect local government has not kept pace with the example set by business in the elimination of efficient, wasteful, outmoded practices.

Here and there in our country annexation or amalgamation is taking place to some extent, and always for the general betterment of an entire area. I understand your annexation law is a good one. Atlanta, Georgia, has recently taken over some of its neighboring communities—a move which opens the way for healthy, desirable growth and development for that very progressive municipality of the old South.

AMALGAMATION OF INTERESTS.

North of us, in that great land now fast coming into economic maturity, the city of Toronto—a comparatively new city by American standards—has become a metropolitan city by the incorporation of 13 local municipalities into a form of government which allows each separate municipality to preserve its local autonomy in respect to matters purely local in nature, and which combines them into one municipality in those fields of service which are metropolitan in character.

This is the type of amalgamation which arouses the least opposition, and yet accomplishes the main objective sought after. It is the type of amalgamation I would like to see in my area, where for over 40 years we have talked about the possibilities of amalgamation, but where, I regretfully state, we are still in the stage of talk, with little prospect of action.

Until there is an enlightened demand for, and positive action toward, the establishment of the metropolitan type of government, cities must be given consideration and help beyond that which is now afforded to them.

The state governments, which in most instances have pre-empted lucrative sources of income, should share that income more equitably with local governments, or permit local governments, through the prudent exercise of home rule, to establish broader bases of taxation. School costs and welfare costs are also heavy drains on local treasuries. These costs could properly be borne, to a greater extent than at present, by the state government.

I am pleased to report that in my own Commonwealth there is a more wholesome and more refreshing attitude on the part of the state government toward its municipalities. The old "stew-in-your-own-juice" attitude—the old presumption that all cities are seats of iniquity—has disappeared to a great extent in Massachusetts, in favor of a more clear-eyed, unpolitical realization that the ship of state itself cannot long remain in a seaworthy condition if some of its component parts are in sad need of replacement or repair. In this light, Governor Christian Herter of Massachusetts has called a general conference for next month, at which time the problems of the state with relation to its counties and its municipalities will be given a thorough airing in an atmosphere of understanding.

HOME RULE ADVOCATED.

A number of things can and should be done to give cities a greater measure of home rule over their own affairs. State legislatures, or assemblies, should not pass any laws increasing costs of local governments unless the local government is given the right to approve or reject such law, or unless the legislature provides the means to meet the costs of the law. Any material change in city charters should also provide for local approval.

The federal government should make a payment, in lieu of taxes, for federal property in a city or town. It should also recompense any local agency put to extraordinary expense because of defense establishments. I do not subscribe to the school of thought which believes the federal government is the great white father, and should supply us with medicine for all our ills and aches, but I do believe that the federal government should not ignore the justice of the claims of local government, especially if it can be shown that the federal government is the cause of unusual expense to a city or town.

In this regard, I am hopeful that the Intergovernmental Relations Commission, recently established by the Congress, will make a report and recommendation which will eliminate the sources of irritation which have arisen between various levels of government, and which will, at the same time, give long-delayed consideration to the significant and necessary part played by our cities in our own form of government.

I am hopeful that this commission will make suitable recommendations which will unfetter some of the interminable delays now encountered in the statutory provisions relating to urban redevelopment and slum clearance. Under the present, rigid provisions of the urban redevelopment slum clearance law, and the usual red-tape procedures which run hand in hand with it, it is almost a discouraging prospect to hope for any appreciable progress in wiping out whole areas of blight in our older cities.

More important to my city, and perhaps to many other cities, would be federal legislation which would provide incentive and help in the rehabilitation of these blighted spots in the city which, if not eradicated, sooner or later contaminate and blight an entire section or district. Such rehabilitation aid, beyond, and more direct than, that now provided for in Title I of the Slum Clearance Act, would stop the advance of decay and prevent new slum areas from developing. Within our limited resources my city, with the cooperation of local committees, is now engaged in a Rehabilitation Program. What we can now do is limited and pre-rible. What we could do with direct federal aid in cases where individuals do not or will not take advantage of present provisions of law, could, undoubtedly, preserve our city from further encroachments of that dread disease of blight—which is the bane of all the older and larger cities. I shall suggest to the American Municipal Association that it prepare and present that sort of legislation for the consideration of the Congress.

MASS TRANSPORTATION SYSTEMS.

Another problem of growing magnitude to cities is the solvency of mass transportation systems. If it is not now a problem in your cities, it may well be before long. This year, in Boston's tax rate, $5 was provided for the support and maintenance of the transportation authority which operates the subways, the elevated lines, the street-cars, trolleys, and buses in our transportation district, which includes 14 cities and towns. Over a period of some 25 years, Boston has contributed about $30,000,000 to the annual deficits of the road. The contributions get larger each year. It amounted in 1953 to $65,000,000 dollars. Next year it may be more.

The fare on the road is 15 cents. Just recently its petition to increase the fare to 20 cents was disapproved by the State Department of Public Utilities. The road is caught on the horns of a dilemma. The wide and common use of the automobile is resulting in a constantly diminishing riding public; and any increase from the present rate of fare might well run into the law of diminishing returns.

Public mass transportation is, nevertheless, a necessity. It is not worth its salt unless it can meet the demands of the peak hours. Consequently, it must maintain a system geared to meet the fullest demand, and that reduces the possibility of major economies.

The time is fast approaching, in my opinion, when mass transportation systems all over the country will be subsidized, whether they be operated by public authorities or privately owned.

It is just as necessary that we have a mass transportation system in a heavily-populated urban center as it is to have good roads and highways, and, very likely, the same source of funds for the construction and upkeep of roads will have to be used, if constitutionally permissible, for the support and maintenance of our local mass transportation systems. I reiterate that this is a problem of growing concern to our cities, and no real solution of it is possible unless the state government becomes party to solving it.

No discussion of this kind would be complete if mention were not made of the number one problem of most cities—that is, the traffic problem.

Here again it is necessary that the resources of the state government be called upon to bear the cost of the major improvements which must be made to prevent the complete strangulation of its cities. It is the rare city, indeed, which can assume the expense of land-takings, street construction, new bridges, overpasses, underpasses, street widenings, and other heavy costs incidental to traffic improvements.

As a general rule it is the state government which is the sole recipient of the proceeds of automobile registration and license fees and the gasoline tax. Consequently, the means to provide for the free movement of motor vehicles is reposed in the state government.

In former years, in my state, very little of these proceeds was spent in the 39 cities of the commonwealth.

Happily, that is no longer so, for the state authorities now realize that a policy of creating beautiful highways throughout the state which end at the doorstep of the city is a policy which could mean the demise of the city, with the state as the chief sufferer. At the present time, in Boston, the State Public Works Department is in the process of building a central artery through the heart of the city, connecting with other main highways, the cost of which will be in the vicinity of $65,000,000.

STATE HIGHWAY AID.

This is the kind of state highway aid which will enable my city to breathe, to untangle itself from an intolerable, costly traffic situation. It is the kind of aid which most cities should receive, for, in my judgment, every street or road in a city which is a primary or secondary link in a state-federal highway system, should be constructed or reconstructed through state-federal funds.

In the field, however, of facilities for off-street parking, there is no question that this is a matter of local responsibility. In most of the cities there is a crying need for parking facilities, and unless they are provided, there will be a further shrinkage in the real estate valuations. Because the construction of off-street parking facilities can be a self-liquidating venture, there should be no hesitancy in going forward with their construction.

I think I have tried your patience long enough. There are many other matters of equal importance with those I have mentioned, but they must remain for some other occasion, and I would advise, for a more articulate and profound speaker.

One point I should like to emphasize is this—city officials must not, in the seeming imponderables of local problems, seek to transfer the responsibility for the solution of those problems to higher levels of government. In our desire to make certain that there is an equitable sharing of the cost of providing for public needs, let us not attempt to shirk our own responsibilities, or let George do what we should do ourselves. Our case of justice will be immeasurably stronger if we accept, without whimpering, the primary duties and responsibilities which are rightfully ours.

Let me close by stating that I believe one of the chief weaknesses in municipal government is the lack of proper, intelligent, and mature planning.

Most cities have grown up like Topsy—sometimes without rhyme or reason—and until late years without any plans for the future. For example, it was not until 1924 that my city had a zoning law, and by that time, after almost 300 years of haphazard development, a great amount of permanent damage was done.

Since I have been Mayor, I have broadened the powers and the authority of the City Planning Board, and now no major municipal project of any sort can begin unless it has approval of the Planning Board, whose membership is unpaid and unpolitical.

STRONG PLANNING BOARD.

A strong, influential Planning Board is an offset to the lack of continuity in the executive direction of a city. Mayors come and go—some of us to higher places, some to the scrap-heap—but your Planning Board goes on its uninterrupted way.

I hope I have contributed something to your meeting. Whether that is so or not, I have gained something, for no one can be in this Old Dominion State, this great Commonwealth of Virginia, without hearing the echoes which still bounce back and forth in the hills of Monticello—without hearing the echo of the inspiring words of many of your noble sons.

Because of them and other gallant souls of long ago, liberty is ours today. It is the most precious thing we possess. It is the heritage passed to us because brave men of Virginia and brave men of Massachusetts led the way in its attainment.

Let you and I keep faith with those brave men who have preceded us. And let us, above all else, and in the same spirit of the forefathers, place our hopes and our aspirations and our trust in the future at the feet of the great King of Kings, who created us—who who will not forsake us if we do not forsake Him.

MAYOR HYNES ADDRESSES NEW NEIGHBORHOOD REHABILITATION COMMITTEES.

have been organized. It is my hope that all of the committees will be established before the end of the year.

It has been my policy to name as the members of the district committees only the pastors of the churches, bankers, business and professional men. The reason for limiting the selections to such men is obvious. They know intimately the physical, social, and economic problems of their respective districts, and their very names give prestige and confidence to such a movement.

After the district committees have been organized, it is my intention to name a District Advisory Committee composed exclusively of the chairmen of the district committees. Out of this committee should come a set of bylaws guiding the operation of the local committees and a long-range practical program of value to every district.

Proof of the value and need of the Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program is the enthusiasm with which it has been received in every one where it has been named. Out of the 175 leaders who were asked to serve on committees every single one has accepted. Their response has been most encouraging and most gratifying to me.

NEEDED IN ALL SECTIONS.

The need of the Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program should be apparent to every thoughtful resident. In every section of our city, particularly in the older residential areas, blight and decay have set in, and unless we act promptly to check them, the future of Boston as a successful residential, commercial, and industrial center is endangered.

Frankly, the movement to check blight and decay in this city should have started at the beginning of the century. If it had, Boston today would still be the domicile of many thousands of desirable residents who are now living in municipalities adjacent to our city and the city's tax values would not have shrunk to their present level.

This Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program should not be confused with the Urban Redevelopment Program now being contemplated for a few of the older sections that are beyond repair. It is intended exclusively for those sections where the houses and buildings are structurally sound and only need paint or repairs or both to rehabilitate them. Many, many thousands of our dwellings and business properties are now in that plight.

As a means of getting the program started in a prompt and effective manner, a city-wide Pilot Area was established by my Advisory Committee in the central part of South Boston. The Pilot Area is bounded by East Broadway on the north; Dorchester Bay on the south; I street on the east; and F street on the west. Famous Dorchester Heights is in the center.

Because of the summer vacations, the South Boston Committee, as such, has not yet been able to organize its local program scientifically, but despite the unavoidable delay many residents, both within and without the Pilot Area, have repaired and repainted their properties. The South Boston banks report a record number of applications for repair loans during recent weeks.

The success of this movement depends on the cooperation of real estate owners, bankers, and other businessmen aided and assisted by the clergymen. Under the leadership of such men, owner and mortgagee cooperation should not be difficult to obtain. It is a campaign of persuasion, pure and simple.

Many efforts were made over the years by bankers with mortgage interests in nearby homes to induce the owners to repair and repaint property without success. Among the obstacles was the fact that the owners live in New York and were inaccessible at all times to discuss the matter. Letters to them appealing for their cooperation were ignored.

An example of what clergymen can do to help the program was the action of the Right Rev. Monsignor Harry O'Connor, pastor of St. Augustine's Church in South Boston, a member of the South Boston District Committee. The first Sunday after the South Boston Committee had been named, he appeared at all the Masses, acquainted the congregations with the purpose of the Rehabilitation and Conservation Program and urged them to cooperate. Overnight throughout his parish residents were cleaning up, repainting, and repairing their homes as never before.

A corps of trained building inspectors found that all of the properties, with the exception of a few structures that have been condemned, met the heating and plumbing standards of the Building Commission. Two hundred sixty-eight of them, however, were not in conformity with the building code in the matter of egress. As the Building Department is a law enforcement agency, all of the owners of these properties were notified to conform to the law and to conform promptly.

The city is also cooperating with the South Boston program in other ways. It has already let contracts for the repair of eleven streets and sidewalks that are in disrepair; it is making arrangements to replace 70 antiquated gas lights with modern electric lights; it is making arrangements to resod the Dorchester Heights embankment and to repaint the surrounding fence and, during this month, it plans to plant decorative shade trees on a number of the streets. All these improvements will be in the Pilot Area. The city stands prepared to perform similar service in all of the 15 health and welfare districts. However, because of limited funds and manpower, we cannot do it all at once. As soon as we get the District Advisory Committees set up, we plan to establish a system of priorities that will assure every district getting its share of city assistance and in order of need.

As I stated before this is a long-range permanent program. I do not expect overnight accomplishments. It will take four or five years before we make substantial gains. But if each committee will approach the problem with a will and determination to achieve our aims, we can't but meet with success.

The time will come, I think, when each of the committees will want to create, with the aid of local property owners, business interests and mortgages, a limited profit building corporation for the purpose of expediting its program.

Gentlemen, I am asking all of you to take a serious and active interest in the Neighborhood Rehabilitation and Conservation Program. I know that it will take time and effort, but what is more satisfying than playing an important role in improving the physical appearance of one's own city and helping to make it a better place in which to work and live?

I have named my Industrial Advisor, Paul Hines, as my lieutenant, in promoting this movement. He will serve as your liaison with all city departments and will coordinate the activities of the departments in giving you assistance. Call on him if the city can be of aid. He can be reached at my office daily.

Similar movements are now under way in more than 300 municipalities throughout the nation and have been, in some instances, for years. A number of them have met with marked success, notably in Washington, Baltimore and Charlotte, North Carolina. All of the latter cities had blighted areas even more serious than those of Boston. If those cities can succeed, I'm certain Boston can also. At any rate, I am glad to be a leader in accepting the challenge.

NORTHERN AVENUE BRIDGE CLOSED FOR REPAIRS.

Public Works Commissioner George G. Hyland has announced that Northern Avenue Bridge, over Fort Point Channel, will be closed to all vehicular traffic, from 8 A.M., Saturday, September 19, until 4 P.M., Sunday, September 20, in order that repairs may be made on the mechanical end lift units.

During this period, the commissioner stated, vessels may pass through the draw of the bridge without interference.

ASSESSING DEPARTMENT.

Boston, July 28, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR SIR:

An original proposal to inaugurate and supervise an anticipated revaluation program for the property of the City of Boston presented by Cuthbert E. Reeves, consulting engineer, Liberty Bank Building, Buffalo, New York, was projected to the point of conference with him and members of the Board of Assessors only. The entire program, due to failure of funds to be appropriated, has been temporarily postponed.

However, Mr. Reeves has received two small payments and has sent a request for final payment of $1,300 under the original proposal for expert services indicated formally for a larger sum under date of December 15, 1952, but never consummated to contract.

In view of the effort expended by Mr. Reeves and his conferences with members of the Board of Assessors pending the anticipated appropriation for the entire program it is respectfully requested that your Honor approve this final payment of $1,300 under the special appropriation granted early in 1952 and which is still available in present unliquidated reserve account.

Respectfully,

BOARD OF ASSESSORS,
by EDMUND J. BURKE,
Chairman.

SUPPLY DEPARTMENT.

Boston, September 3, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Water Division of the Public Works Department has submitted a requisition for one Burroughs new class 2-1700 electric D. C. duplex adder.

Burroughs Corporation, the manufacturer of this machine, has submitted a price on an informal quotation form. Authority is requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to Burroughs Corporation. Owing to the fact that this company is the manufacturer, it is my opinion that no advantage could be gained by publicly advertising for bids.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,527.30, net.

Respectfully yours,

JOHN V. MORAN,
Superintendent of Supplies.

Boston, September 8, 1953.

HON. JOHN B. HYNES,
Mayor of Boston.

DEAR MR. MAYOR:

The Fire Department has submitted a requisition for radio tubes and vibrators for the repair shop. Informal requests for prices were solicited among several companies, and four companies submitted prices.

DeMambo Radio Supply Company, Inc., submitted the lowest bids. Authority is therefore requested to dispense with publicly advertising for prices and award a contract, without public advertisement, to DeMambo Radio Supply Company, Inc. It is my opinion that in this way the best interests of the city will be served.

Approximate total amount of contract will be $1,168.75, net.

CIRCULAR LETTER.

To All Department Heads.
GENTLEMEN:

Although the hostilities in Korea have come to an end, at least temporarily, world peace still seems far away. Recently it was announced that the Soviet Union is in possession of the H-bomb. This is ominous news, for there seems to be no change in the objective of the Soviet Union to conquer the world for Communism.

In view of this situation, we cannot relax in our civil defense efforts. It is the primary duty of the city government to take every precaution and every step for the protection of our people and our properties.

A recent report of Mr. Joseph L. Malone, the Director of Civil Defense for the City of Boston, discloses that much more help and cooperation is needed from various city departments. Herewith are some of his recommendations:

1. That a representative from each of the vital services, that is, the Fire, Police, Public Works, Building, School, Hospital, Health, Traffic, and Welfare Departments, be assigned to civil defense activities on a full-time basis.

2. That civil defense plans for each department be revised, and all members of the department be made familiar with such plans.

3. That key personnel be prepared to accept additional responsibility in civil defense activities and that the resources of city departments be used to maximum extent possible in civil defense.

4. That fire auxiliary units be organized and trained.

Our civil defense efforts revolve around the general cooperation of our citizens and especially the cooperation of certain city departments.

I therefore hereby direct that all responsible city officials give prompt attention to matters of civil defense which involve their respective departments, and comply with the requests made by the Civil Defense Director, to the end that our city will be prepared to meet any eventuality. If there is any uncertainty in your mind relative to your cooperation with the Civil Defense Director, please resolve that uncertainty by conferring with Mr. Malone.

Respectfully,

JOHN B. HYNES, Mayor.

PROCEEDINGS OF CITY COUNCIL.

Monday, August 31, 1953.

Regular meeting of the City Council held in the Council Chamber, City Hall, at 2 P.M.; President AHEARN in the chair, and all the members present.

The Reverend Wilfred Dewan of the Catholic Information Center, Park street, was escorted to the rostrum.

INVOCATION BY REV. WILFRED DEWAN.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost.

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of Thy faithful. Enkindle in them the fire of Thy love. Send forth Thy spirit and they shall be created and Thou shalt renew the face of the earth.

Let us pray. O God, Who by the light of the Holy Spirit, didst instruct the hearts of the faithful, give unto us that same Holy Spirit to love and to relish what is right and just, and always to live in His consolation. Through Christ, Our Lord, Amen.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee, blessed art thou amongst women and blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Prayer of St. Francis of Assisi:

Lord, make me an instrument of Thy peace: Where there is hatred, let me sow love; Where there is injury, pardon; Where there is discord, union; Where there is doubt, faith; Where there is despair, hope; Where there is darkness, light; Where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled as to console; to be understood as to understand; to be loved as to love, for it is in giving that we receive; it is in pardoning that we are pardoned; and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

The meeting was opened with the salute to the Flag.

Municipality.	Employee's Monthly Deduction in $1,000 of Insurance.	Number of Employees Currently Enrolled.
Belmont	75 cents	419
Framingham	57 cents	433
North Andover	70 cents	108
Randolph	63 cents	1,283
Somerville	62 cents

According to insurance officials with whom I have conferred, the two main factors entering into the determination of the monthly premium are, first, the average age of the enrolled group, and second, the percentage of total employees actually enrolled. It can be definitely stated that the lower the average age, the better premium can be quoted; and it may be assumed that a lower premium will be possible under a 90 per cent enrollment rather than under a 75 per cent, since the latter or minority enrollment figure will embrace a larger percentage of employees in the upper age brackets than would be the case under a 90 per cent enrollment.

The plans in operation in the five municipalities listed above do not make any distinction between types of employment. In other words, firemen and policemen are included in the group plan at the same deduction rate as all other municipal employees.

I am advised that it would be undesirable to apply the average cost reflected in the foregoing table to the Boston situation. Insurance officials state that each municipality must be considered on its basis and that the actual cost for any municipality could only be determined after a careful and comprehensive survey had been made of the range of ages within its employee group. The total number of Boston employees is so far in excess of those in the five municipalities listed that any attempt to estimate a deduction rate on a comparative basis would be unrealistic. It has also been pointed out that undoubtedly the cost of insuring employees in the Boston situation would far exceed that in these smaller municipalities, thus tending to preclude satisfactory comparisons.

To provide an additional payroll deduction column to cover group insurance would be an expensive proposition, since it would involve the re-estimating of payroll and the purchase of forms, but also a rebuilding of our various tabulating machines and wiring units. I have been unable to secure a definite estimate of this cost but have been advised it undoubtedly would run into thousands of dollars. One possible approach to the problem would be to attempt to eliminate one of the present nine payroll deductions now being made. A

APPOINTMENTS BY THE MAYOR.

Subject to confirmation by the Council, the Mayor submitted the following appointments, viz.:

Weighters of Coal, for the term ending April 30, 1954: Chester E. Carvell, 15 Princeton Avenue, Andover; Agnes L. Canavan, 7 Hastings street, West Roxbury.

DETERMINATION OF COST PER EMPLOYEE OF MUNICIPAL GROUP INSURANCE.

The following was received:

City of Boston,
The following was received:
To the City Council.

Gentlemen:

I am herewith communicating from the City Auditor relative to your order of July 27, 1953, requesting a study of municipal group insurance.

Respectfully,
J. B. HYNES, Mayor.

City of Boston,
Auditing Department, August 21, 1953.
Hon. John B. Hynes,
Mayor of Boston.

Dear Sir:

I submit the following statement in response to the order adopted in the City Council under date of July 27, 1953, relative to the subject of group insurance.

Contacts have been made with the four municipalities mentioned in the order as well as with four other communities who have indicated an interest in the subject. In the cases of Stoneham, Marlborough, and Cambridge, the 75 per cent enrollment of employees required by the statute has not, as yet, been completed so that at the moment no group insurance program is actually in operation in these three communities.

The following table indicates information received from the other five municipalities where programs of this character are now in operation:

Number of Employees Currently Enrolled.
433

possibility in this respect is the deduction now being made for "Union Dues." This deduction is made in the Column which is also utilized for "Blue Cross." This latter deduction occurs only once a month and is made on the payroll which embraces the last week of the month. The deduction for union dues is listed on the payroll in the weeks in which the Blue Cross deduction does not appear. This particular deduction is by far the smallest of the nine, involving in the course of a year deductions totalling approximately $43,000. Since the annual dues figure is $18 per member, this would mean that only 2,500 employees are covered by this deduction. In view of the small number involved, it might be possible to obtain consent from the officials of the four unions involved to replace this deduction with that which would arise if the group insurance plan was adopted. Such a proposal could be supported by the old argument: "The greatest good for the greatest number."

Respectfully,
CHARLES J. FOX,
City Auditor.

Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and Finance.

PROCEEDINGS OF SCHOOL COMMITTEE.

Apr. 30, 1953.

ANNUAL APPROPRIATION ORDERS

The Secretary read the following communication from his Honor, the Mayor:

City of Boston
Office of the Mayor
City Hall

Apr. 21, 1953.

Miss Agnes E. Reynolds, Secretary
Department of the School Committee,
15 Beacon Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

Dear Miss Reynolds:

I am returning the enclosed appropriation order adopted under date of April 6, 1953 by the School Committee and relating to appropriations for "Land and Buildings for Schools." You will note that I have indicated my approval of items 1, 2 and 4 as well as my disapproval of items 3 and 5. The first of the disapproved items relates to an appropriation to establish a reserve for the development of plans and the actual construction of school buildings. As you are aware, I have indicated to the City Council my willingness to approve a loan order of five million dollars for new school construction if the same is initiated in that Body. I have every reason to believe that such an order will be adopted by the City Council. In such an event, there would appear to be no necessity for the appropriation represented by item 3. I, therefore, feel it may be eliminated without interfering in any sense with your proposed building program.

I note in the long-range land and building program which was submitted by the Superintendent of Schools at a recent conference in this office that item "L" would apparently cover the description of the work to be performed under item 5 in the enclosed appropriation order. Item "L" should be reached for definite action in 1954. This being so, I feel justified in disapproving item 5, especially since, because of the difference in the amount of money shown in items "L" and 5, the appropriation which I am disapproving would not be sufficient to carry out the playground development desired.

Very truly yours,
(Signed) John B. Hynes,
Mayor.

Placed on file.

Chairman: The question now comes: Shall the appropriation for Land and Buildings for Schools—Item 3—Reserve for such items of land, plans and construction of school buildings as are or may finally be approved $536,792.87—remain in the budget, notwithstanding the disapproval by His Honor, the Mayor?

A roll call was ordered and the members respectively voted as follows:

YEAS—0.

NAYS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

Chairman: The question now comes: Shall the appropriation for Land and Buildings for Schools—Item 5—Charles Sumner District, Rosindale: Development of Poplar and Dale Street lot for additional play space for the George H. Conley School, $25,000.00—remain in the budget, notwithstanding the disapproval by His Honor the Mayor?

A roll call was ordered and the members respectively voted as follows:

YEAS—0.

NAYS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

The Chairman stated that the Mayor approved the order appropriating $233,401.60 for Land and Buildings which order reads as follows:

ORDERED, That in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 224 of the Acts of 1936, as amended by Chapter 117 of the Acts of 1949, the following appropriations are hereby made to meet the estimated cost of "construction and furnishing of new school buildings, both temporary and permanent, including the taking of land therefor, and for school yards and the preparing of school yards for use, and for rent of hired school accommodations" for the fiscal year 1953.

LAND AND BUILDINGS FOR SCHOOLS

Item 1—Rent of hired accommodations—	$41,050.00
Item 2—For acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses, now constituting, or hereafter becoming, approved school projects within the meaning of Mass. St. 1948, ch. 645, as amended, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses	157,351.60
Item 3—Lew's District, Roxbury: Development of side yard for play space, Roxbury Memorial High School (Girls)	35,000.00
Total for Land and Buildings for Schools	$233,401.60
The above sum of $233,401.60 appropriated for land and buildings is obtained as follows:
a. From the amount available under the $50 allowance	$230,074.00
b. From the unexpended balance from 1952	3,327.60
Total	$233,401.60

On roll call, the members approved the passage of the foregoing order by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

Miss Fitzgerald: There is assurance that the Council has approved the order, isn't there?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, with reference to this letter I would like included in the public record the remarks that were made by all members of the Committee in the conference concerning this item just a few minutes ago.

Secretary: $25,000 and $35,000?

Mr. Muchnick: That is the entire business, including the last statement concerning Dr. Foley and Memorial High School.

Mrs. Lyons: No objections.

The following is the extract from the Conference notes referred to:

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, does this item concern the two items which the Mayor has vetoed?

Mrs. Lyons: These are the two items which the Mayor vetoed, and I think probably there is an explanation on that.

Miss Fitzgerald: This is on accepting that veto?

Mrs. Lyons: That is true, and on the first item that is the one that we agreed that if the amount given to us was $5,000,000 we would allow it to go by this year for Land and Buildings. On Item (b)—

Miss Fitzgerald: There is no controversy on that, is there?

Mrs. Lyons: No I don't believe there is any controversy on that. Then on Item (b) the Mayor felt that where the recommendations in the new survey were that there would be in addition to the school at Polar and Dale Streets, the Conley School, when the addition is made this entire work could be done. That was his explanation for it.

Miss Fitzgerald: In other words, we could accept that veto without any reservations.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that we can in the light of the recommendations.

Mr. Muchnick: Madame Chairman, I think it ought to be pointed out and spread on the record that what is technically a veto by the Mayor of these two items was something that was agreed upon even before we sent the budget down to the Mayor—that any of these items that could be taken care of out of the loan or in other ways would be eliminated by veto because of the granting of the $5,000,000 loan, and that it was included in the first instance by way of appropriation only until such time as we had such assurance as anybody could reasonably have that the $5,000,000 could be voted and probably would be voted;

That we further agreed that if the prospects of the granting of the $5,000,000 loan looked in any way reasonably good and safe, there would be eliminated from the Land and Buildings appropriation all sums of money other than what might be needed for rent of hired accommodations and for making the down payment of the loan;

And the amounts represented here by the veto are all the sums, as I recall it, other than what is needed for rent of hired accommodations and for the down payment.

Mrs. Lyons: That is true, Mr. Muchnick. It is a very good explanation. Thank you, Mr. Muchnick.

Secretary: If there is no objection, it will go into the open meeting. First I should have the letter. I will read the letter of the Mayor on the veto and then I will ask the members: Shall the appropriation, Item 3, remain in the budget notwithstanding the disapproval of the Mayor. There will be a vote on that. Then I will ask: Shall the appropriation, Item 5, for the Charles Sumner District remain in the budget notwithstanding the disapproval of the Mayor. That will be voted on.

Then there is a new complete order, Land and Buildings with three items only, omitting those two items. They were numbered 1 to 5 inclusive. We omitted 3 and 5 and made it 1, 2, and 3, and then that will be passed.

Business Manager: Madam Chairman, I wonder: Could you go into public meeting now and pass these orders and then come back to conference?

Mrs. Lyons: We can do that. There is one more item, No. 3.

Secretary: The notice to the Board of Assessors.

Mr. Muchnick: Excuse me one minute, Madam Chairman. I would like to correct my statement. Item 3 of the $35,000 concerning the Roxbury Memorial High School land development for playground purposes was left in.

Mrs. Lyons: That's right.

Mr. Muchnick: And it was not to be taken from the loan money because of the immediate necessity for additional playground facilities in that section of the city.

Mrs. Lyons: Did you include that in your remarks at first? We were talking about Items 3 and 5.

Mr. Muchnick: No, I had not at first.

Secretary: Then next we have the notice from Henry Smith, the Business Manager, about the notice to go to the Board of Assessors of the amount to be raised by taxation, which will be placed on file, and then four orders carrying that into effect.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, we were perfectly willing in the Mayor's office to abide by these cuts in the various Land and Buildings items and also the Roxbury Memorial High School play area should have sufficient acreage there to take care of a playground, which amounted to about $35,000 to level off the ledges and what was now an unsuitable place for a playground. I think it was a good move on the part of the School Committee to keep that item in there.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, with reference to the playground at the Roxbury Memorial High School, I think that I am going to cause a little blushing, but I would like to point out that to my knowledge Dr. Foley has been trying to get that space straightened away for the sixth year now.

Dr. Foley: Twelfth year.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, to my knowledge it is six years, and I think that such perseverance ought to be commended.

Mrs. Lyons: I agree with you.

Dr. Foley: I think the School Board did a very nice job.

Mrs. Lyons: Are you happy now, Dr. Foley, with that?

Dr. Foley: I think the School Committee did a nice job.

Mrs. Lyons: We will go into public meeting for these two items and come back to the conference again because there are some things here that must be taken up. They are very short, though.

RULING OF LAW DEPARTMENT

The following communication was received:

City of Boston
Law Department

April 30, 1953

Agnes E. Reynolds, Secretary
School Committee of the
City of Boston
15 Beacon Street, Boston 8, Mass.

Dear Miss Reynolds:

This is in reply to your letter of January 8, 1953, relative to the validity of the following series of orders which were adopted by a single three-year two-year vote of the School Committee at its annual organization meeting on January 5, 1953:

"ORDERED, That the Rules of the School Committee, and the Regulations of the Public Schools of last year which involve the expenditure of money, are hereby adopted for the present year until otherwise ordered."

"ORDERED, That the Rules of the School Committee, and the Regulations of the Public Schools of last year which do not involve the expenditure of money, are hereby adopted for the present year until otherwise ordered."

"ORDERED, That until such time as the revision of the Rules and Regulations shall have been presented for final approval, they be amendable or waived or suspended by majority vote of the Committee rather than, in some instance a four-fifths vote."

When the present School Committee took office on January 7, 1952, is constituted the first School Committee elected under the new form of government which became fully effective in the City of Boston on that day. Hence, the present School Committee was on said January 7, 1952, under established principles of parliamentary law a new body without rules of procedure but with power to adopt, by majority vote, such rules of procedure, not inconsistent with law, as it deemed meet and proper. The minutes of the organization meeting of the School Committee held on said January 7, 1952, show that the School Committee exercised that power but only with respect to the then present year. Thus, when the School Committee met for its annual organization meeting on January 5, 1953, under established principles of parliamentary law it was again without rules of procedure but with power to adopt, by majority vote, such rules of procedure, not inconsistent with law, as it deemed meet and proper. It exercised that power by simultaneously adopting in a single vote the above-quoted series of orders. That is to say, the three orders were adopted as one unit, with the third order in the series as much an integral part of the series as the first and second orders thereof. In the circumstances, it is my opinion that the Chair was correct in declaring all of the above-quoted orders to have been duly passed.

Yours very truly,
(Signed) William H. Baxter
Corporation Counsel

BOND ISSUE FOR NEW SCHOOLS

The Secretary read the following letter to be sent to his Honor, the Mayor, John B. Hynes, with reference to a bond issue for additional school accommodations:

April 30, 1953.

Honorable John B. Hynes
Mayor of Boston
City Hall, Boston
Dear Mr. Mayor:

Public and private housing recently constructed, or in process of construction, in the City of Boston has brought about a need for new elementary schools.

With a view to meeting this need in the most efficient manner, the School Committee contracted with the Center for Field Studies of Harvard University's Graduate School of Education for a survey of Boston's school plant. The survey confirmed the need for the new schools, in addition to making other recommendations. The appropriate method of financing the new construction would seem to be by a bond issue.

Accordingly, the School Committee hereby respectfully requests that your Honor recommend to the City Council that it originate a five million dollar loan order for the purpose of acquiring land for, and constructing, public schoolhouses in the City of Boston, including originally equipping and furnishing such schoolhouses.

The School Committee will seek to have each of the above-mentioned schools approved by the Massachusetts School Buildings Assistance Commission under Mass. St. 1948, ch. 645 as amended, and thereby obtain a State grant of approximately 20% of the cost of each school to help meet the payments on such bond issue.

Respectfully submitted,

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to add a personal word of tribute and praise to the granting of that title of emerita to a very fine lady who did an excellent job during her term in the school service.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, may I add my few words in connection with Miss Gormley's retirement? I feel that Miss Gormley was principal of one of the finest schools that I had the privilege of attending.

If we may, I would like to have a suitable statement by the Superintendent spread upon our record—something that would bring this matter to Miss Gormley, and I am quite sure she would feel that we not only liked her but that we appreciated her work. That we probably take a little time to do because I would like this to be a very special one in view of the fact that she is a very special principal.

Mrs. Lyons: Will you take care of that, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: I will be glad to.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think the same should go to Mr. George Pearce of the Washington Allston District.

CASE OF MAX WEITZMAN

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, on Friday, April 17th, there were certain matters which came before the School Committee, and on Saturday, April 18th, there were certain matters which came before the School Committee.

With reference to what occurred on Friday, I offer the following:

ORDERED, That all the records of the proceedings other than those proceedings which the Superintendent, after a recess, asked us to have in executive, those being the records that pertain to the discussion and action concerning one Max Weitzman, be printed as part of the public minutes or the record of the public meeting; and be it further ORDERED, That the minutes of the proceedings that took place on Saturday, April 18th, with reference to the case of Max Weitz-man, which resulted in a suspension order and an order showing cause for dismissal, also be printed and be included in the records of the public meeting; and be it further ORDERED, That the motion offered by Dr. Foley and the discussion concerning that motion offered by Dr. Foley and the action on it subsequent to the suspension and show cause order, be also printed as part of the public records and in the public meeting records.

On roll call, the three orders passed by the following vote:

The following is the extract from the Conference Notes of Apr. 17, 1953, referred to:

Mrs. Lyons: I think we are all here. Would you—

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, before we start in this, I have one short motion I would like to present. A couple of nights ago there was a meeting of a certain group of people at which all members of the School Committee; at which the Superintendent and some Assistant Superintendents and various others from the administrative end of the School Department were also present.

At that meeting, the Superintendent stated substantially the following at one stage of the discussions—

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I ask if this is to be a meeting or a hearing to the custodians? I don't wish to interrupt the proceedings, but I wonder if this motion is particularly relevant at this time.

Mrs. Lyons: I think if one of the members wants to make a motion—

Miss Fitzgerald: I didn't understand that this was to be a meeting, and there was no public notice given. I understand in the near future we will have a School Committee meeting and this motion can be taken up at that time.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, just a few minutes ago we met in the Superintendent's office on something that wasn't scheduled for this meeting. This is even more unusual, frankly, if I may be permitted—

Miss Fitzgerald: I just wish to offer for the record—

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to proceed.

Mrs. Lyons: You may, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: There was stated at the time substantially the following: That the Superintendent, as he put it, had knowledge of that fact there was a member of the School Department personnel — I assume a member of the teaching force—who was suspected of or engaged in—I don't know the exact details of it—in Communist or subversive activity and that that information would become public within a short time.

Now, if it is a fact that the Superintendent or any other person has knowledge or reason to believe that any member of our teaching force or custodial force or any other division of the School Department is in that category, then it seems to me we should not wait until any Federal Government agency or State government agency brings that to our attention or to the public's attention.

It is our duty under those circumstances to move and to move as quickly as possible to eliminate from our school system that type of person. Therefore, I move, that the Superintendent be instructed to furnish the name and address of that person to the Chairman of the School Committee forthwith, and that the School Committee communicate with that person this evening and direct that person to appear before us here tomorrow morning at 9:30 to answer such questions as may be put to that person, and to show cause why that person should not be immediately suspended by the School Committee for engaging in that kind of activity; for conduct unbecoming a teacher and for any further reasons that may appear as a result of that meeting and hearing.

Miss Fitzgerald: I just want to say that this is a very serious motion; that it is not a full board, and I certainly can't be here in the morning at 9:30; and if there is anyone—and I certainly feel I, as an individual member, am as concerned as any of the other members over the presence of any Communist or other subversive personality who is in our teaching force. I didn't happen to have heard that remark made, although I was there, but had to leave early.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Dr. Foley.

Dr. Foley: It might be instead a good suggestion that the Superintendent get in touch with you, as Chairman of the School Board, and you, if you felt the problem was severe enough or of interest enough to the School Committee, could be delegated, I am quite sure, to inform the members of the School Committee whether or not it is of urgent character or what the particulars are.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I think the Superintendent—

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Fitzgerald, I will conduct this meeting. You are dictating to me altogether too much and I will decide who is to have the floor, and I will run this meeting. The person who is entitled to the floor will be recognized and they don't need you to tell them. I don't need you to tell me, either.

Mr. Superintendent, if you wish the floor you many have it now; but, Miss Fitzgerald, I don't need your suggestions. The Chair will handle the meeting very, very capably.

Miss Fitzgerald: I was only making a suggestion, Madame Chairman.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and members, at the present time I do not wish to reveal the name of the individual concerned. I have certain information at my disposal which was given to me through the proper channels. I have conferred with the Corporation Counsel in regard to the information which I have at my disposal, and following the advice of the Corporation Counsel, there is nothing for me to present to the School Committee or to present to anyone at this particular time.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't know what conferences the Superintendent or anybody else has had with the Corporation Counsel. I not only don't know, but I don't care. Under the law, under the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; as a matter of fact, in compliance with the oath we severally took the other night, it is our duty not only as citizens but it is our duty as public officials—members of a school committee—to run a School Department. It is our duty as well as the duty of the other people to see to it that the kind of person described in the motion; the kind of person referred to by the Superintendent just now; the kind of person referred to by the Superintendent at the meeting Wednesday night, doesn't stay in our school system for five minutes if the facts are as indicated just now by the Superintendent, and the other night by the Superintendent.

The Corporation Counsel isn't running the School Department. The Superintendent isn't running the School Department. The School Committee is obliged by law to run the School Department, and I press you, Madame Chairman, this motion that the Superintendent be directed as indicated in the motion first stated, as an employee of the School Department, the same as anybody else in the employ of the School Department, to furnish you with that name forthwith so that the necessary arrangements can be made to bring that person here tomorrow.

This isn't the kind of thing that waits on any situation. I, too, am busy tomorrow morning. If one cares to check my diary in my office, I have several appointments that are important to me in my professional capacity in which I earn a living. This is far more important than anything I personally have to do tomorrow; or, in my opinion, than anything that anybody has to do tomorrow.

Just because the Corporation Counsel has told the Superintendent not to do it now is in no way binding on the School Committee.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: The Superintendent is not working for the Corporation Counsel. He is working for the City of Boston. He is working for the City of Boston under the direction, supervision, and control of the School Committee; and, as he himself stated last Wednesday night in response to a question having nothing to do with this particular item—he said he didn't wish to get involved in a discussion with the members of the School Committee who were his superiors without it being for the record, as I remember the phrase. He knows that he is an employee of the School Committee and therefore, I ask that the School Committee pass that motion and direct one of its employees to furnish vital, necessary information to it as called for by the motion.

Miss Fitzgerald: May I ask the Superintendent this question through you, Madam Chairman?

Is there some reason why the Corporation Counsel stated that information should not be presented to the School Committee at the present time?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Miss Fitzgerald, the information which I have at the present time does not, I would say, incriminate the individual to the extent that I should make any accusation in any way, shape, or manner toward him.

When the facts in the case were before me, I followed the advice of the Corporation Counsel and I acted in the best interest of the service as the executive head of the school system.

Now, there is another problem before me, and I am certainly not going to reveal any name to anybody at the present time that in any way might affect the case or affect the proper dealing with this particular case.

Now, when the matter is of a nature that I feel it should be presented to the School Committee, I shall do so officially. I am not going to make any statement to any individual member of the School Committee until I am in a position to know more about the individual case.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick, Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it is not the province of the Superintendent or any single individual, whether it be a member of the Law Department or any other department in the City or State or anywhere else, to decide for himself or themselves what must be decided by the School Committee. The fact that the Superintendent says that there isn't enough evidence to incriminate Mr. or Miss or Mrs. X in his opinion is of absolutely no importance.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: Please, I would like to finish. The opinion of the School Committee is what counts, and it isn't a question solely of incrimination. The matter is one for the School Committee and it is the opinion of the School Committee as to whether the person presently unnamed, of whom we are speaking, is guilty of communistic or subversive activity or conduct unbecoming a teacher, or insubordination. The Superintendent has no right as Superintendent legally or morally to refuse to give this information or any information, Madam Chairman, to this School Committee who are his employers. Refusal, as a matter of fact, seems to me would be tantamount to insubordination on his part. The School Committee is the agency that runs the schools. I am not going to go into the question of the Superintendent's duty as a citizen, or this or that. That is something between him and his conscience.

As a member of this School Department, if this motion prevails, he has absolutely no right under the law, under our rules or under any conceivable or imaginable document or interpretation to keep confidential from the School Committee any information so vital affecting the schools. It is not up to him to decide as to whether there is or isn't sufficient information that will incriminate a person. That is the province of the School Committee.

Again, I repeat, I must press for a vote.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Dr. Foley,

Dr. Foley: I would say, at the meeting the other night, I think it was, an inference was made by the Superintendent that he had such a question now before him with regard to undoubtedly a subversive nature that was related somewhat to the Faxon case or was just the same as the Faxon case. I would say, Madam Chairman and Superintendent, that inasmuch as that was a public utterance to a public group, I think it behooves you to impart that knowledge to the recognized head of the school system.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and members, I have discussed the matter with the Corporation Counsel from the standpoint of affairs both in regard to myself and in regard to the individual concerned. I can say this: The individual concerned is being summoned to Washington before an investigating committee.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that was in the newspapers at the time of the Faxon case.

Dr. Foley: Why is it we are left in the dark and we don't—

Mrs. Lyons: May I say something?

Dr. Foley: (Continuing)—we don't come into your confidence, sit down in man fashion and discuss these things? Why run to the Corporation Counsel when you have five members of a School Committee who are interested in the welfare of the schools? We can sit down very easily and we wouldn't get second-hand information.

I knew nothing about it until you made the statement at the League of Women Voters the other night, and as the sponsor of this oath now going through the City of Boston, I felt I would have liked to have known what that information was. I think that there is something that should be corrected; that we should be in your confidence. I am not interested in—I am not a legal advisor, I am just a poor dentist. With that thought in mind, I would like to feel we know what is going on. I am not interested in lawyers; I don't care for them—even though Izzy is here—I don't care.

I would like to feel as though I know what is going on in the system, and I get a little put out if I don't.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Dr. Foley, as you have just said, there was a statement in one of the papers that there was another teacher from our school system—

Dr. Foley: I didn't see that. Mrs. Lyons: It was in the papers.

Superintendent: It was in the papers. Now, the information came to me and I in turn discussed the matter with the Corporation Counsel.

Madam Chairman, I certainly am very willing to reveal everything to the School Committee that I should. On the other hand, I don't want to make any accusations or have any names involved officially before the School Committee until the time comes where I feel it really belongs there. In other words, right at the moment the Corporation Counsel has said to me—"Well, now, in the meantime, there is no report that you will have to make at the moment."

Dr. Foley: The horse is out of the barn. The barn is burned down, the horse is gone.

Mrs. Lyons: May I say something first? I think the last time there was considerable resentment, Mr. Superintendent, on the part of the Committee members. Everybody seems to know a great deal about it but the School Committee; they were never taken into confidence. Until we were sitting at the public meeting, is the first time anyone of us knew what the story was about Mr. Faxon.

I think they felt—I know what their feelings were because people said to me—"You don't know anything about it?" I would say, "No, never discussed by the Superintendent."

Even the newspaper reporters I really don't feel believed me that night when I said that I didn't know anything about it. Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick. Mr. Muchnick: I can't get this business, frankly, of an employee of the School Department, regardless of title, taking things up with the Corporation Counsel and following the advice of the Corporation Counsel as to whether he should tell the people who are his superiors about anything that has to do in the School System which those people are obligated under the law to run.

I don't know of any person in the City of Boston who voted for William Baxter as the man to run the School Department. Good friend of mine that Teddy Baxter is, an able lawyer that Teddy Baxter is, he still wasn't given the responsibility and the duty of running the School Department.

I do not ask further that the Superintendent make any accusations. I merely ask that the Superintendent tell us or you, so that you can notify this person to be present, and the Superintendent can or cannot be present—as far as I am concerned—as he wishes. If the discussion that takes place with this school employee warrants the making of an accusation, I will be very glad to assume the responsibility of making the motion which involves making the accusation.

I for one, don't need any Congressional Committee to make the accusations for me. I think I know something about the ascertaining of facts from people. I think I know something about the applicable law in relation to the obtaining of facts and to the evaluating of facts. I do not ask that anybody make any accusation and thus put themselves on a spot. All I want is something to which we are not only entitled but which is our duty under the law to acquire and to acquire from our executive agent, the Superintendent—now that he has the information.

The mere fact that this person is currently being summonsed to Washington—and this is the first I have heard of that, was the discussion a couple of minutes ago—is added proof to the argument which I have been advocating during the last few moments.

Now, under our regulations it is the duty of the Superintendent to report to the School Committee everything that is of an unusual nature in connection with the school system as soon as that happens. It is not his duty to report it to the Corporation Counsel. The Corporation Counsel of the City of Boston happens to be one of the ablest we have ever had, but that does not make him and his department the be-all and end-all of all which is to be determined. The proof of that is that the Law Department was just up here asking our advice on a matter that is relatively minor and unimportant compared to this situation.

Now, we, under the law and under the rules, must have this information if this person is of the type who shouldn't be connected with our schools. We should act. We must act immediately, just as the Superintendent took action in the Faxon case in a matter of hours, just so, this case should be handled the same way if it is to be handled at all.

It does not, from the point of view of running a school system properly, it does not have to wait and mustn't wait on anything that happens in Washington, New York, or Chicago, or any place else.

There is as much brains in the Boston School Department as there is in Washington or any place else, and we can find out the facts for ourselves insofar as those facts apply to the proper functioning of a School Department. Nobody in this City, members of the Committee, or Governor, or Superintendent, or anybody else, has any right to keep that information from us, much less that person who is an employee of the Department, the School Department, and who is charged with the responsibility and duty of giving us information of any unusual incident.

I am sure that the Superintendent or nobody else will claim that the existence of a person in our employ who is of the type that I am afraid this unnamed person is, is the usual thing in our system. This is the kind of thing that we are trying to fight and trying to get rid of—not next week, not next year, and not 40 years from now—but today is when it should be done and must be done.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and members, you spoke, Madam Chairman, of "resentment"—

Mrs. Lyons: Yes, I did use that word.

Superintendent: I am sorry, Madam Chairman and members, if the Committee resented anything I did, for this reason. I turned over to you—and I think you will agree with me—through Miss Reynolds that very night, did I not?

Mrs. Lyons: The letter you had given Mr. Faxon?

Superintendent: Yes, and also the minutes of the meeting.

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

Superintendent: Miss Fitzgerald was here after the meeting and Mr. Ford came in and typed the minutes of the meeting. Miss Fitzgerald was here and Mr. Carr was here, and Miss Reynolds said she was going to see you at your house.

Mrs. Lyons: She sent it to my home.

Superintendent: And I said to you, "If you will wait, I will give you a copy of what transpired between me and Mr. Faxon."

Mrs. Lyons: I had to be at a graduation exercise.

Superintendent: And Miss Reynolds got it to you that night—

Mrs. Lyons: No, the next day.

Superintendent: She supposedly was going to give it to you that night.

Now, you had, Madam Chairman and other members who were here, the exact story of what transpired between me and Mr. Faxon. There was nothing I kept quiet from the School Committee once it became an official matter, and I had the public stenographer to take down the minutes of the meeting. Then, if you recall, at the next meeting I gave to you two copies to pass to Dr. Foley and Mr. Muchnick. You had, Madam Chairman and members, then, all of the data I had just as soon as I got it. Subsequently, I obtained the official data from the Jenner Committee, and in the meantime I had the other data which came to me from Washington which I sent for; so, there was no way Madam Chairman, that I kept the Committee in the dark. As you heard Mr. Kerr say in the informal conference that we had in Miss Fitzgerald's office—"You don't know what the Superintendent is going to recommend."

You recall that, all of you.

Dr. Foley: In fact, I think I said that.

Superintendent: Well, the Corporation Counsel has said it and on the basis that it was the legal way, it was the proper way to present it to you so that it would be without prejudice.

So, I am sorry, Madam Chairman, if there was any resentment because I turned over all the information I had to this Committee just as soon as I got it.

Dr. Foley: I would like, Madam Chairman, to get all this information possible before suspension orders are declared by the Superintendent. In the process of suspension, I believe that the process up to the time of suspension should be made known to us so that we would have the information before suspension.

I would just as soon that we have all the cases aired out so if there is any doubt whatsoever in the mind of any of the administrators, headmasters, that that question would be decided by us. I really believe that the Chairman of the School Board should be then informed that at least while they are working for us in these things, inform us before and not wait until suspension and then let us determine what the action should be.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that has been what has been done in other communities. I think in New York there have been several cases and it has come to the attention of the Board, and the Board didn't wait for the Jenner people to tell them or anybody else.

They brought those individuals before them and they said, "You can't ask those questions." The board said, "We are sorry. We are going to ask those questions."

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Dr. Foley.
Dr. Foley: I really don't believe in UNESCO or Federal authority setup. I do believe local boards should assume responsibility to track down those that are not fit as Americans and dispose, if it so sees fit, to take care of them. I don't feel we should wait for the Jenner Committee or any Federal group to so inform us as to who is in this group.

Then we are going under Federal authority which I really don't believe in. I believe local boards, local school boards, or any educational board that is set up, that is elected for the primary purpose of running local schools, should receive all this information as quickly as possible and dispose of it in the manner in which they see fit.
Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.
Mr. Muchnick: That is correct, Madam Chairman, and I would like to add that if I might. The Superintendent said once it became an official matter, he told the School Committee about it. Well, it becomes an official matter as soon as the Superintendent learns about it. That is the time it is to be told to the School Committee without any question, and it becomes an official matter if any person with the School Department learns about it, and those people should report it either to the Superintendent—who in turn should notify us at once—or they should directly notify us.

The headmaster and principal of whom Dr. Foley spoke—it is official as soon as anybody learns about it. It doesn't become official sometime in the future by action on the part of the Superintendent or headmaster or anybody else. It is something not only to which we are entitled to have information; it is something which the law compels us to know about and to act about, and properly so.

The Superintendent said something about the Law Department saying that we didn't know what the Superintendent was going to recommend. Well, suspension and dismissal are not in the sole province of the Superintendent. It is as much the province and the duty of the School Committee to suspend and dismiss improper people as it is the province of the Superintendent or anybody else.

There is one point that you made very well that I would like to elaborate on. Assuming this Committee in Washington never summonsed this person, or assuming the Jenner Committee never summonsed Mr. Faxon; if it were known to anybody in our system, that information should have been brought to us regardless of Senator Jenner; regardless of any Congressman, or regardless of anybody else.

Regardless of what the Federal Government does about these things; regardless of what the State Government does about these things; regardless of what the Municipal Government in Boston—outside of the School Department—does in these things, it is clearly the established policy—and again properly—of the School Committee that we don't want improper people teaching; whether that improper trait is based on communism or subversive activity or morals or anything else.

Once we have information or an inkling of information, we must act; and with reference to this specific information, if it is a question of communism or subversiveness, as you well indicated in your statement about New York; what we do here tomorrow—if we do it—may help whatever Congressional Committee there is that has summonsed this person, because the question of incrimination or desire not to incriminate under the Fifth Amendment—while it would apply with the School Committee as well—failure to answer that question—whatever the question might be, in claiming the privilege of the Fifth Amendment—while I believe it is a matter of constitutional law, the privilege could be exercised. It would amount to insubordination; and, incidentally, when I say it applies, I am not too sure that it applies even before the Congressional Committee on at least some of the questions in as far as Mr. Faxon is concerned.

It seems to me the proper kind of questioning might adduce certain facts that could be helpful in the overall attempt of the Federal Government to see if there is a pattern of subversiveness and communism fostered among school personnel, and might help the Federal Government in its search for the truth. But that being aside, I think it is even our province, as a school committee, to do that if we can, and obviously it is our province as citizens—but that being aside, there is no question but what it is our duty to act immediately in the situation that we have under discussion at the moment.

Miss Fitzgerald: I have been here since 4 o'clock. We were scheduled to have a hearing at 5. It is now ten minutes past seven, and these good gentlemen have been kept waiting all this time. I have been subjected to discourtesy and I don't intend to remain for the rest of it. I hope you will excuse me.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like a vote on the motion.

Mrs. Lyons: Would you call the roll?

(Roll call.)

Mr. Carr: Absent.

Miss Fitzgerald: Absent.

Dr. Foley: Yes.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, if the School Committee would call an official meeting, executive, I certainly will be glad and I am sure the Corporation Council will be—I want his advice—

Mr. Muchnick: Well—

Superintendent: Could I finish, please?

I shall tell the School Committee on the record in an executive conference all I know about the case, being careful not to incriminate the individual, hurt the individual, and also, not to hurt myself in any way.

Mr. Muchnick: There has been a vote taken by three members of this School Committee. If the Superintendent wishes to hide behind the potential technicalities of the fact that there weren't five members here—only four members here—that is entirely up to him. The vote does not ask him to provide any information which will incriminate him or will incriminate the unnamed person. The vote directs him solely without any additions to it at all to furnish to you a certain name without making reference to what that name stands for; and it doesn't ask that the name be furnished on the record.

If the Superintendent wishes to consult Counsel—whether it be the Corporation Counsel or any other counsel—that is entirely up to him. There is a vote by a majority of this School Committee directing the Superintendent to do something which in the proper performance of his duties, he should have done anyway.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: I for one can see absolutely no point to any further refusal on his part to furnish you with the name of the person so that you can call an extraordinary meeting for tomorrow morning—by "extraordinary" I mean one where you try to get the necessary personnel here even on a Saturday morning because, unfortunately, the circumstances involved in such situations are extraordinary and I don't see any point to discussion about technicalities or law department. We are faced with certain facts.

There is one person in our school system who is suspected of being an improper person to remain in the Boston School System. If that person is improper, he or she should be eliminated from the system. If that person isn't improper, that person should stay. Once we know that there is a situation, we don't have the right to dilly dally one minute, and I would like to see this carried forth tomorrow morning and telephone calls or telegrams or whatever the best means of communication are go out to the person involved immediately, to the five members of the School Committee, Superintendent, and any other person who the Chairman of the School Committee feels should be notified.

As for these good gentlemen being stalled here from five o'clock to a quarter past seven, I am sure that each of these seven good men are patriotic enough Americans—and there is no question about that in my mind—that they would be willing to stay here from now until 7:15 tomorrow morning and see this problem settled properly for the benefit of the school system and our City.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, I know you realize it, and through you I would like to call to Mr. Muchnick's attention, that this is not a conference of the School Committee. This was a hearing called for one purpose; it is not an official meeting of the School Committee. There are three members present at this hearing. Now, I want again to call Mr. Muchnick's attention, through you, Madam Chairman, to the fact that this vote has no standing whatsoever. Now, if the members of the School Committee wish, or if you wish, Madam Chairman, to call a meeting—whether it be a special meeting or not—and then if the vote is passed at the meeting requesting this type of information—the opinion of the Law Department and my opinion at the present time, being that it shouldn't be discussed—then after talking with the Corporation Counsel, certainly I will be very willing to fulfill the wishes of the Committee.

This is not a conference; this is not an official vote. This vote, Madam Chairman, is not binding in any way, shape, or manner upon the Superintendent.

Mrs. Lyons: I realize that, Mr. Superintendent. I know this is a hearing, but I think that Dr. Foley and I have both tried to be very pleasant about it and let you know the feelings of the Committee. It is a very, very serious charge. It has been in the newspapers, and I suppose every member of this Committee has been in the position of having many people talk to them and say—"Oh, I saw in the paper where you have more Communists in your schools."

You feel very inadequate when you have to say, "Well, we know nothing about it." I think Mr. Muchnick brought the point out we are in charge, with the duty of protecting the school system. I don't see any need of having this even come out in this type of meeting.

I think, as Dr. Foley suggested, it is important enough that you should have spoken to the School Committee and then all of this unpleasantness or whatever you want to call it, would be eliminated.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: For the life of me, I can't understand how the Superintendent keeps talking about—he will take it up with the Law Department and find out from them if he should report to his employers something, that the law puts a duty on him to report and a duty on us to act on. I can't understand that at all, and I can't understand how the Superintendent of Schools in this City or any other city can assume that the Law Department is the one that decides what is to be done in the running of a school system.

If we wanted to have a Law Department run the School Department, we could have hired a lawyer as Superintendent. We could have had an Assistant Corporation Counsel acting as Superintendent. The running of the School Department is in the hands of the School Committee; and I know, too; I am lawyer enough to know that this isn't a public meeting because it is a hearing; but I am also man enough to know that when you have an emergency situation, you act in accordance with the emergency, and, as far as I am concerned, if we have improper people in our school system for one extra minute, that is a matter of emergency. If we can eliminate—assuming this person is an improper person—and an improper person from our School Department, then every minute is important. I don't want my children exposed directly or indirectly to the influence of improper teachers, and I don't want that as a parent of two of the children of our schools, and by the same token, as a member of this School Committee charged with the responsibility of doing my part toward running the schools for 90,000 of other parents, I want them to have the same rights and privileges and the same freedom from abuses and improper situations, and improper teachers, as I want for my own children.

As far as I am concerned, this is an emergency; and in emergency conditions you don't hide behind technicalities.

Mrs. Lyons: We will have a meeting at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning—public meeting.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Superintendent.

Superintendent: Excuse me, Madam Chairman. Again I want to call to your attention that in order to have a meeting at 11 o'clock tomorrow, I think that all five members would have to waive their rights to a notice to have a meeting. Isn't that true?

Mr. Muchnick: That is true, Mr. Superintendent, and under the circumstances, Madam Chairman, I recommend that you send telegrams to four members of this School Committee—other than yourself—telling them of the extraordinary nature of the special meeting which you are calling for 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, and that you further send a telegram to the person whose name will be furnished to you by the Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Superintendent.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I made it clear that this vote has no standing in a hearing.

Mrs. Lyons: Well, we could request, Mr. Superintendent, that you have that person here in the morning.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Superintendent.

Superintendent: Not at a conference—

Mrs. Lyons: As members of the School Committee, Mr. Superintendent, I think you are being very uncooperative.

Dr. Foley: Irrespective of a hearing or whatever gathering we have here, we are the constitutionally elected officers of the School Committee and we can request other than at meetings or hearings. At any time we can request, Mr. Superintendent. We don't necessarily—

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Superintendent. Superintendent, Madam Chairman and Dr. Foley, I just wanted to be sure we would be following the letter of the law.

Dr. Foley: I don't think it is required of you to discuss the meetings or whether it is public. I think that is entirely in the hands of the School Committee. Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Dr. Foley: I think you should tell the Chairman. I think the rules and regulations—and I am quite sure the Chairman of the School Committee who is empowered to call meetings or discontinue meetings or, in fact, suspend rules—I think that is the gavel's—

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Dr. Foley: I think where they request, the School Committee, if only one constitutionally elected officer, has a perfect right to ask outside of meetings—the rules say specifically, you are not just at meetings or conferences, but two-year terms, and whether you have a meeting or not you are still a member of the School Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: The rule states that specifically, Madam Chairman, every employee of the School Department from the Superintendent down shall furnish information to any member of the School Committee upon request. The rule does not state that that information should be furnished only if the Superintendent feels like it, or if the Superintendent has been informed by the Law Department that the time is ripe for furnishing it. It says it shall be furnished on request. This is much more than a request. This is a direct order passed by three members of the School Committee, and I know that technically it isn't a public meeting and so forth and so on; but if nothing else, it is the joint request of three people who are members of the School Committee acting in accordance with the rules, and the rules state that the information can be requested and shall be furnished at any time—not just at meetings.

I can't understand the consistent refusal on the part of the Superintendent to comply with the rules; to comply with the statute, and to comply with a directive voted by three members of the School Committee.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Superintendent.

Superintendent: The Superintendent is not refusing to do anything.

Mr. Muchnick: Will you furnish the name?

Superintendent: (Continuing)—is not refusing the School Committee in any way. This Committee at this particular moment—the three members of the Committee, are not in a conference in any way, shape, or manner. The vote doesn't have any standing in any way, shape, or manner.

Dr. Foley: We are in conference for two years; irrespective of Rules and Regulations we are in conference for two years when we are elected. If I went down to Florida, I couldn't say to John Reardon, "You go up and vote for me." I can't do that; but I can request, being a member of the Committee, request information irrespective of conferences or meetings or anything else.

Mrs. Lyons: The Chair rules that we will have a meeting, an emergency meeting, tomorrow because of the circumstance which has arisen, which we feel must have immediate attention, and that telegrams will be sent to the various members of the Committee to that effect, and would also request of you, Mr. Superintendent, that you will be there and that you will furnish us the necessary information.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, the vote was that the information concerning the name be furnished tonight so that you might get a notice out to that person as well.

Mrs. Lyons: Miss Reynolds, tomorrow morning we are going to have a meeting which we feel wise because a matter of extraordinary nature has come to the attention of the School Committee. We would like to have a telegram go to the various members informing them of this meeting, asking them to suspend the rules of notice, and to be present at that meeting at 11 o'clock in this building.

This meeting will be an executive session, and I also request the Superintendent to furnish us with all necessary information. I think that covers it.

Now, I would also like to have that person present at the meeting tomorrow who is involved in this situation.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to know if there is a report on file in the Superintendent's office concerning this unnamed individual.

Superintendent: I can't say.

Mr. Muchnick: Is there any file, information on file, concerning this individual?

Superintendent: I can't answer that right now.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you received any report of it, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: I received a verbal report which I am sure of. Now, beyond that I can't recall.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, though any report you may have, Mr. Superintendent, under Section 75, Paragraph 1, is available at all times to members of the School Committee, I would like —

Superintendent: I can recall a verbal report—

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to have the substance of that verbal report relayed to us in accordance—

Superintendent: Read the rule. Mr. Muchnick: The applicable part—"Such report shall be kept on file in the Superintendent's office and be open only to the inspection of members of the School Committee."

Superintendent: Right at the moment, the report I am sure of is a verbal report.

Mr. Muchnick: Will you say there is no written report?

Superintendent: I wouldn't say that.

Mr. Muchnick: Will you check in your office and see if there is any written report on it?

Superintendent: You mean now?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, sir.

Superintendent: I can't recall—Mr. Muchnick: Check in your office and let us know one way or the other, and if there is, will you please make it available to the inspection of the Committee?

Superintendent: Do you want me to do it now?

Mr. Muchnick: Please.

Superintendent: Surely.

Mr. Muchnick: Anything concerning this matter at all, Mr. Superintendent.

(Discussion off the record.)

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I would like to suspend for a minute to find out if the Superintendent has a report.

Mr. Muchnick: The Superintendent went into his office to get a report on the matter we were discussing before.

Superintendent: At the advice of the Corporation Counsel, I shall talk to the Committee in an executive session.

May I ask a question?

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

Superintendent: Are you willing to give me an opportunity to go out and get a cup of coffee?

Mr. Muchnick: Well, this question of executive—is it going to be long?

Superintendent: I wouldn't know.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like if I might to suspend with this and go into the back room and see what the executive is going to be and see how long. I have some comments beyond eight o'clock tonight.

Superintendent: I was here at five this afternoon ready for the hearing. My day wasn't over. I haven't had any opportunity to have anything to eat of any kind. Mrs. Lyons: I haven't had anything to eat, either.

Mr. Muchnick: Shall we come back at nine o'clock?

Superintendent: It is entirely up to you.

Dr. Foley: I agree with that.

Mr. Muchnick: Shall we come back at nine o'clock?

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is probably satisfactory to everybody. All right, Mr. Superintendent.

(Recess until 9 p. m.)

The following is the extract from the Conference in executive session on Apr. 18, 1953, referred to:

Mr. Kantrovitz: I would like at the outset, Mrs. Lyons, if I may, indicate that Mr. Weitzman received a telegram last evening after eleven. He arrived home after twelve. As the result of receiving the telegram, he certainly had an unsettled night, probably together with some of you, and had too little sleep. This morning at 10:20, he received a special delivery letter which contained the very message contained in the telegram.

Actually, because of lack of sleep and other problems, he has been faced with, this is not the morning he would like to appear before this Committee—though he is here.

We would like to suggest, if we may, that this hearing, or whatever it may be, be deferred for one week, until next Saturday. Now, I don't think that will interfere with the school system, or with any of the urgent business that may be before this Committee.

Next week happens to be vacation week, anyhow, and the reason I say that is because there is no need concealing anything. We have no intention of so doing, but next week, as this Committee probably knows, Mr. Weitzman has been scheduled to appear in Washington before the committee of the House on Un-American Activities.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Kantrovitz, I don't think what we will have to ask Mr. Weitzman will be too disturbing. We asked him to come in here simply to question him, because we do have the responsibility of these schools on our shoulders and will feel before anyone else has the opportunity or takes that responsibility, it is ours.

We feel that we would like to ask Mr. Weitzman some questions, and we expect he will answer them.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Of course, I am not going to adopt the decision. It will be for this Committee here to determine, but I would like to ask that this matter be continued for one week. I think it will hold. I think we should not prejudice him. I think we should allow him to go down to Washington and prepare himself. This is a little precipitant, this action; and I think it is only reasonable—

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.
Mr. Muchnick: First of all for the record, I think Mr. Weitzman and counsel ought to be identified by full name and address. It seems to me that if, during the course of what few questions or discussions there may be, there arises any need for continuance, that can be taken up at that time.

The fact that Mr. Weitzman is going to Washington on some matter related to this, or not related to this, I shouldn't think would make much difference. I can understand Mr. Weitzman's concern over having received a telegram in the late evening last night. We are just as concerned as he is.

I don't believe any member of this Committee intended or wanted to pry into his private life in any way other than in that portion which may or may not affect his propriety as a member of the Boston School System.

After there has been identification—complete identification—of Mr. Weitzman and his counsel, I think we ought to proceed and go as far as we can. There are certain rights which Mr. Weitzman has, and I am sure his counsel either has advised him of them or will go on.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: I would like to inquire when Mr. Muchnick says, "We will proceed"—is there some information he has or that this Committee has, that is not known to two of the members? I don't know what the charge is. I don't know what activities Mr. Weitzman has engaged in that precipitated this call here this morning.

Mrs. Lyons: May I answer that by saying that the Superintendent was the one, Mr. Carr, that seemed to know about it and I think probably he may be able to answer that. First I would like to have Mr. Weitzman identify himself by name and address and the school he is presently in.

Mr. Weitzman: My name is Max Weitzman — W-e-i-t-z-m-a-n. I live at 72 Devon st., Dorchester 21, Massachusetts. I teach the 5th grade in the Audubon School of the Robert Treat Paine District in Dorchester 24, Mass.

Mr. Kantrovitz: My name is Gabriel Kantrovitz. My office is at 294 Washington Street, Boston, Massachusetts.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: In answer to Mr. Carr's question, it seems to me that a few questions asked of Mr. Weitzman and the answers to those questions will clear the matter up, or will help clear the matter up, not only for him but for all of us.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: And if I may—
Mr. Carr: May I interrupt and ask what—

Mr. Muchnick: If I may, Madam Chairman, I would like to direct a few questions to Mr. Weitzman.

Mrs. Lyons: You may.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Before you do, sir, don't you think, from a procedural standpoint, the standpoint of normal due process, that since the Committee itself is not fully apprised of the reason for the meeting—and from what I have learned, it is based on some information within the knowledge of the Superintendent here—possibly, we ought to hear from him first?

Mr. Muchnick: The reasons for the meeting have been furnished to Mr. Weitzman. If Miss Reynolds will give me a copy of the letter that was sent or the telegram, or if you will give me the original, I would be glad to read that into the record.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Here is the original.

Mr. Muchnick: And on the question of procedure Madam Chairman, I think that—

Dr. Foley: Can we wait and see? I would like to get a copy of it, too.

Mr. Muchnick: This is addressed to Max Weitzman, 72 Devon Street, Dorchester, Massachusetts. Dated April 17, 1953.

"You are directed to appear before the Boston School Committee at its Administration Offices, 15 Beacon Street, Room 93, at 11:30 a. m., on Saturday, April 18, 1953, to answer certain questions concerning your future relationship as an employee of the Boston School System, as may be then and there addressed to you by the School Committee or members thereof.

"Failure to appear as above directed will be considered by the Boston School Committee as insubordination on your part.

"Signed: Boston School Committee.

Alice M. Lyons, Chairman."

Now, in line with that notice, I would like to ask of Mr. Weitzman certain questions.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: First of all, I was unable to be here yesterday when this hearing was scheduled, that ultimately turned into a meeting wherein this matter here was brought up, precipitating the sending of telegrams, and resulting in Mr. Weitzman's presence here this morning.

I would like to get the origin of this matter and I would like to ask the Chairman how it was brought to your attention, and when it was brought to your attention?

Mrs. Lyons: It was first brought to our attention, Mr. Carr, inasmuch as at the League of Women Voters the other night the Superintendent mentioned that there were possibly people in our service who had been mentioned as being active in subversive activities, or in some subversive capacity.

That precipitated — I don't know whether it did to you; it did to me and other members—calls from various people desiring to know why something wasn't done about it. We asked the Superintendent last night if he knew—we just presumed that if he made that statement, that he did know of someone. He said Yes, he did know; he did have so information on it and we asked him the name of the person who was involved. He proceeded to tell us that last week Miss McAuliffe, who is the principal of this school, called him to tell him that Mr. Weitzman had informed her that he had been summoned to Washington to appear before an investigating committee.

We then asked the Superintendent if he would give us the name of this person as we felt as members of the School Committee who are directly responsible for the schools, that we would like to know who it was. The Superintendent asked, I believe, for a recess then—

Superintendent: The recess was only for me to get a cup of coffee—it had no bearing upon this matter, because the hearing was going on in connection with the custodians at that time.

Mrs. Lyons: The Superintendent did ask if it would be all right if he went to get a cup of coffee and we, of course, granted him that privilege. When we returned, he informed us that Mr. Weitzman was the individual about whom he was talking both at the League of Women Voters, and to us earlier in the evening.

Superintendent: Excuse me, Madam Chairman. I don't think that at any time I said Mr. Weitzman was the person about whom I was talking.

Mrs. Lyons: Well, you can use very fine language if you wish —
Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: I think that now that you have given the formal introduction, I would like to ask the Superintendent: Do you have any other knowledge of the activities of Mr. Weitzman aside from the — activities or things he has participated in — or solely, just the information he was to go to Washington?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Carr, there is one slight correction in what Mrs. Lyons said, and it was only a matter of time, so it is really not a fundamental correction.

Back some time ago, and not last week, Miss McAuliffe called me to tell me that Mr. Weitzman had reported to her that he was summoned to appear before an investigating committee in Washington. I gave that information at the request of the School Committee last night.

Now, this past week — and I think that is the connection Mrs. Lyons had in mind — she called me to say, and I don't remember the day, that Mr. Weitzman was not present in school this week because of personal business or because of strain —

Dr. Foley: You mean Miss McAuliffe called you? You said Mrs. Lyons.

Superintendent: Excuse me. Thank you, Doctor.

Miss McAuliffe called me to say that Mr. Weitzman was not present. I don't know what day she called me — it might have been Monday or Tuesday. She was not in the building. She was at the Steering Committee meeting at the time, and said Mr. Weitzman would not be present as a result of personal business or strain, or whatever word she used, I don't recall.

I reported that information, Madam Chairman and Mr. Carr, at the request of the School Committee to the School Committee last night.

Mr. Carr: That is the only knowledge you have concerning this?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Carr, at the time Miss McAuliffe telephoned to me, the first time in regard to Mr. Weitzman's telling her that he was to appear before this committee, I immediately went to the Law Department and conferred with Mr. Kerr and I think Mr. Baxter was there at the time. It was felt at the time that there was no evidence in connection with Mr. Weitzman, and that right at the moment there was no reason for me taking any action one way or the other.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Superintendent, if you or Mr. Baxter felt that the situation warranted it, the legal department would have taken steps, wouldn't they?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Carr, when I brought the matter of Mr. Faxon to the Law Department that afternoon following the radio announcement, we held a long conference — the three of us — as a result of the conference, I took the action which now is a matter of public record.

Mr. Carr: In this particular case, there was no such long conference or drawn out plan or procedure?

Superintendent: In regard to Mr. Weitzman, that is true.

Mr. Kantrovitz: This is entirely based on information —

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman? Mrs. Lyons. Dr. Foley.

Dr. Foley: You did not inform the School Committee at any time other than going down to the Law Department? Up to the time you went to the Law Department, you had not given the School Committee any information?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Dr. Foley, no. As a matter of fact, I didn't discuss this with the School Committee and, again, on the advice of counsel, until I was requested to furnish the name last night. I telephoned in the meantime to the Corporation Counsel and he said, "Yes, in executive," that I might do it.

Dr. Foley: At any time, did you inform the School Board in regard to Mr. Weitzman?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Dr. Foley, no, because there was nothing for me to inform the School Committee about other than what has been reported here.

Dr. Foley: Other than Miss McAuliffe called you, and spoke about that matter?

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Sir, just one moment, please. I wonder if I may at this time, based on what has come to light, once again, renew the request to defer the matter for one week until after the hearing which takes place in Washington on Wednesday? Again, I call your attention, Madam Chairman and members, that this coming week there is no school for the Boston school children, and I see no reason for a proceeding today. I see good reason for waiting until next Saturday.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: The mere fact that the Superintendent says substantially that he had no information which, in his opinion, or in the opinion of the Corporation Counsel, warranted taking any action, and that is the sole basis, or substantially that, of today's proceeding doesn't in any way affect this hearing.

That is why, Madam Chairman, I suggested earlier that we attempt to get directly at the facts as they may be. And there is no better way of getting at the facts than getting them from Mr. Weitzman, and I would like at this time to put a few questions to Mr. Weitzman that may, or may not, clear this matter up in five minutes.

Mrs. Lyons: You may proceed, Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I fail to see the urgency of it. I may be entirely wrong, but I do see the equity and propriety in allowing this matter to go over a week where there can be no possible damage, where there is no school next week, and allow this individual to go through this experience, which will be a matter of public record, and you will certainly be in a better position to proceed next Saturday than you will based on what has transpired here today.

Mr. Muchnick: I wish I could agree with Mr. Kantrovitz, but the information that will be adduced in Washington is for purposes best known to the people who are trying to receive information in Washington. Their purposes are not necessarily in any way related to the purposes of our situation. The information which they get may or may not be in any way pertinent to our information.

It would seem to me from Mr. Weitzman's point of view that he would want this Committee to know the facts, at least as he sees them, and have this problem solved rather than have further delay, and I for one oppose any continuance of this thing and I would like to have your permission to ask a few questions.

Mrs. Lyons: You may proceed. Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman —

Mr. Carr: I think Dr. Foley —

Dr. Foley: I thought we would go along in the usual manner as to why Mr. Weitzman was here. That is all. We have nothing to do with the Federal setup. We are a local board assuming obligations here, and it is our job, I would say, to interrogate our personnel. There is no need of waiting for anything. It can be answered today as well as Wednesday or Saturday.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I understand, therefore, that my request for deferment is denied? You are proceeding now with your interrogation, is that it?

Mrs. Lyons: That is true.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Now, I also want to direct the attention of the board and Committee to the limitations that I feel this Committee is well aware of in connection with matters of this kind — matters involving certain basic rights and privileges of Mr. Weitzman as a school teacher as well as a citizen. And I am going to assume — and I think rightly so — that you are well aware of these privileges and rights.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick, Mr. Weitzman: Madam Chairman, before a question is presented to me, I would like to present this and perhaps in the light that it would further enlighten or further throw more light on the matter.

As Mrs. Lyons said, this is an informal proceeding. Therefore, I presume I have the right to make a few remarks.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick has asked for the floor.

Mr. Muchnick: There is no doubt in my mind that Mr. Weitzman has the right to make certain remarks at some stage during this proceeding. There is no doubt in my mind but what there are certain limitations beyond which this Committee can't go.

There is, also, no doubt in my mind but what a member of this Committee has a right to ask certain questions and that the chronological procedure is something that is in the discretion of the Chairman. In view of the fact that I have been authorized to ask certain questions, I would like to ask a few questions, get a few answers, and if there is anything that Mr. Weitzman or Mr. Kantrovitz wishes to add or subtract from the questions and answers, I know very well, that this Committee will give them full opportunity to do it.

Mr. Carr: I would like—I don't know what questions Mr. Muchnick is going to ask—but I would like to get more or less a birds-eye view of Mr. Weitzman's background.

Mrs. Lyons: I think, Mr. Carr, Mr. Muchnick is going to proceed along those lines.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, how long have you been connected with the Boston School System in any capacity?

Mr. Weitzman: I have been an appointed teacher for three years, since March 1, 1950. I have held, in an intermittent manner, substitute positions not lasting very long in each particular case, dating back actually to—to be exact, and I recall this very well—to October 18, 1945—two weeks after I was honorably discharged from the service.

Now, I think—shall I address the Chair?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: Could I interrupt one moment? Do we have Mr. Weitzman's personnel folder?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Carr, we do. I don't know whether Miss Reynolds can locate it—

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, what grade does he teach, Superintendent?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Dr. Foley, he can answer, Doctor, Grade V at the present time.

Dr. Foley: Primary grade.

Mr. Weitzman: I meant to continue my trend of thought, and I will come back to it at the conclusion.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Am I correct saying that the personnel record of Mr. Weitzman has not been furnished for this hearing this morning?

Mrs. Lyons: That is right.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman, there was no request for it until this moment.

Mr. Carr: I was the first one to ask for it.

Mrs. Lyons: May I say it should have been given to the Committee inasmuch as it does seem rather too bad that the Committee has to work without having all of this information available to them and that they have to dig it out themselves.

Mr. Carr: I believe that it would have been furnished if anyone had asked for it. That is what prompted my asking for it.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't believe at any time I had yielded the floor, and I would like to continue, if I might, with the questions to which I have made reference several times.

Mrs. Lyons: I would like to have the questioning go on uninterrupted until Mr. Muchnick has finished.

Mr. Carr: May I ask that those questions—

Mrs. Lyons: The Chair rules you are out of order, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: I believe the personnel folder is relative to these questions. It is only for the sake of clarity I had asked for it, Madam Chairman.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you answered that question in full?

Mr. Weitzman: Not completely. In fact, I had meant to say that this is a matter of public record, and I think that in all fairness to me, it should have been submitted and I think it should have been at the disposal before making—

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: You are out of order, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't believe you have the right to assume that some members of this Committee haven't seen the personnel folder, and the personnel folder may or may not be germane to these questions and answers.

Now, if you have finished your answer to that question, I would like to proceed to another question.

If you haven't, will you please finish?

Mr. Carr: Madam Secretary, have you obtained Mr. Weitzman's personnel folder?

Secretary: This is his record up to 1950, or so. We then started a new system. I am going downstairs now to locate the rest of his record.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Kantrovitz: Would that list his jobs?

Secretary: Up to 1950.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, have you finished?

Mr. Weitzman: As best as I possibly could.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, have you ever held membership in the Communist Party?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object, and I want to have ruled out and I ask that this Committee rule out any questions in connection with political beliefs or affiliations. I say that because the law itself has placed a limitation on this Committee and upon any official connected with the Boston School Committee.

Miss Fitzgerald: Mr. Kantrovitz, I think there is a law in the statutes which says membership in the Communist Party is illegal.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I want to direct the attention of the Committee to General Laws, Chapter 73, Section 39, that says: "No public school committee or official shall inquire—"

Mr. Muchnick: Chapter 71.

Dr. Foley: It is Chapter 71.

Mr. Kantrovitz: (Continuing) "—or require or solicit from an applicant for a position in the public schools any information as to his religious belief, creed or practice, or his political opinions or affiliations; and no appointment to such a position shall be in any manner affected thereby. Violation of this Section shall be punished by a fine, etc."

This is a limitation on this Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: There is no question but that Mr. Kantrovitz read the law correctly. There is also no question that there are other sections in the statute which call upon the School Committee to determine the propriety or fitness of teachers, and, if Mr. Kantrovitz will reread the section of the law, he will see that it applies to applicants for positions, and to appointments. It does not in any way refer to activities subsequent to application, subsequent to appointment. In addition to that, while that was true at the time it was enacted, the Communist Party has been outlawed as a Party and as a political belief for purposes of this section, and while Mr. Weitzman and Mr. Kantrovitz have personal rights to rely upon, statutory or constitutional privileges, the law is also clear that failure to answer any proper question put to any member of the school personnel by the properly constituted authority is insubordination, and can be and must be dealt with in line with that.

I would press for an answer to the question as to whether Mr. Weitzman has at any time held membership in the past in the Communist Party.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I do not concur with Mr. Muchnick's interpretation.

No. 1. The law is specific, this Chapter 71, Section 39, refers not only to applicants, but as you read the various cases dealing with the rights of teachers, you find this is one of the sections where one's position cannot be affected by any inquiry.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, it isn't a question of whether Mr. Kantrovitz—

Mr. Kantrovitz: This statute—

Mr. Muchnick: If Mr. Kantrovitz' opinion of the law is correct and if my opinion of the law is incorrect, Mr. Kantrovitz knows that the courts will sustain his client, if refusal to answer the question is considered insubordination by this Committee; so that he can avail himself of every legal and constitutional right he has.

It would appear to me that Mr. Weitzman should either answer the question or refuse to answer the question, based on his right in the matter and put the burden in one case or the other on the School Committee, and I press for an answer to the question.

Mr. Weitzman: First, the question itself, Mr. Muchnick, is in a category of questions that, from reading the newspapers, is commonly being asked in Washington. And to return to an old matter, we discussed here, since it is, I think it would be in all fairness and in my right, not to be prejudged in any way and to defer the question.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing) Until such time —

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

I must interrupt you, Mr. Weitzman. This School Committee is concerned as a School Committee with your propriety and fitness as a member of the School Department personnel, regardless of what happens in Washington, and I press for an answer to that question now, not after you have been to Washington or any other time. I am concerned with the Boston Public School system today — not necessarily next Thursday.

I must insist that that question be answered, or that Mr. Weitzman tell us that he won't answer it, either way, but I would like to have direct response one way or the other to the question concerning Mr. Weitzman's membership at any time in the Communist Party.

Mr. Weitzman: Of course, I had meant to continue by saying that to my knowledge I never committed any act that in any way is offensive to my oath to uphold the Constitution.

Mr. Muchnick: May I ask that. Mr. Kantrovitz: Madam chairman, may his witness be allowed to answer the question?

Mr. Weitzman: I am in the process of answering the question and I think I am being interrupted in doing so. So, I wish to restate that I have not been at any time involved in any activity that would be contrary to the spirit of the oath which I took pursuant to my working for the Boston School Department.

Now, with regard to the question itself, I must do the following in view of principle and refrain from answering that particular question because it bears on principles of belief here and principles of derived associations. Irrespective of viewpoints that we may have—and we have divers viewpoints, and that is to be expected in this country as borne out—

Dr. Foley: May I get that again I didn't get that "refrain," can you refrain?

Mr. Weitzman: I say "refrain." I mean just that, sir.

Dr. Foley: You mean you refrain from answering the question?

Mr. Weitzman: I refrain from answering the question for reasons that in principle it would violate the idea of a freedom of association, freedom of beliefs, and I am here stating my reasons on the grounds of the First Amendment to the Constitution.

And, as a teacher, like any other citizen, I believe I have these same privileges and latitudes customarily accorded to other citizens under the Constitution.

And may I say the following — Mrs. Lyons: Well, —

Mr. Weitzman: May I continue? I have not yet completed the answer.

Mrs. Lyons: I think you have answered Mr. Muchnick's question.

Mr. Kantrovitz: He hadn't finished the answer. He wanted to give reasons for refraining from answering.

Mr. Muchnick: I asked a specific question, Madam Chairman —

Mr. Weitzman: I am giving an answer as specifically as I know how.

Mr. Muchnick: Now Madam Chairman, I would like to point out that Mr. Weitzman is an intelligent person, is a teacher, and if any pupil to whom he put a specific question requiring substantially a Yes or No answer attempted to evade the issue as he is attempting to evade this one, that pupil would not be permitted in any way to engage in a long harangue about various things. Now, the question is a very simple one, and it is a very specific one and it can be answered in one of several ways.

The answer is either Yes or No, or I refuse to answer. The reasons for refusal are not germane to the answer at the moment, if it is going to be a question of refusal. Mr. Weitzman has been informed that if there is anything that isn't covered in the question, either he or his counsel or both will be able to add or subtract at the conclusion of it. And I would like a direct answer—not a long generality speech about the question that was asked as to whether Mr. Weitzman was a member of the Communist Party.

He knows whether or not he held membership in that organization, and he either will or won't tell us.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Weitzman.

Mr. Weitzman: Yes, Mrs. Lyons, I have a right to decline to answer this particular question. As a teacher, I have that right under the State statute C71, S39.

Mr. Muchnick: Do I understand you refuse to answer that question on the legal rights, Mr. Weitzman —

Mr. Kantrovitz: On the specific grounds he stated.

Mr. Muchnick: Are you presently a member of the Communist Party, Mr. Weitzman?

Mr. Weitzman: For the reasons I have given before, I likewise refrain from answering—the same reasons.

Mr. Muchnick: By "refrain," Mr. Weitzman, do you mean refuse?

Mr. Weitzman: Asserting my privileges.

Mr. Muchnick: The privileges of not answering?

Mr. Kantrovitz: He is asserting privileges under the First Amendment and under this statute.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, have you in the past attended meetings of the Communist Party?

Mr. Weitzman: I refrain to answer that question on the same grounds—as a teacher, under the State statute C71, S39, and as a citizen under the First Amendment of the Constitution.

This Committee actually has no right to—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, will you let the Committee determine what its rights are?

Mr. Weitzman: Mr. Muchnick, may I interrupt?

I have committed nothing that would reflect on my position as a teacher.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Weitzman, I think probably we have been trying to tell you that under numerous decisions handed down by the courts, that a School Committee has the right to ask each and every one of their teachers, whether or not they have been or are members of the Communist Party, and they expect that teacher to answer if that teacher refuses to answer, then that is determined as insubordination.

Mr. Kantrovitz: Madam Chairman, are you aware of the decision that is based on an action on the part of a school committee faced with a statute similar to Chapter 71, Section 39?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would like to go back to probably where this whole thing should have started to give us—

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr—

Mr. Carr: I would like—

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr, I think we should continue in the line of questioning, and then—

Miss Fitzgerald: The Chair has ruled—

Mr. Carr: We are reversing the ordinary procedure, and I would like to find out who has been—

Mrs. Lyons: You are out of order, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: You were in the service as a radio—

Mrs. Lyons: I refuse to have that answered inasmuch as Mr. Muchnick has the floor and has not yielded, and Mr. Carr is presently out of order.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, you took the floor from him. He yielded the floor to you; and I insist in asking these questions. I think they are basic in fairness, and I think we should know who we are interrogating. It was an oversight on your part that you did not ask for this folder.

Mrs. Lyons: You are out of order, Mr. Carr.

Will you proceed, Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: Did you, Mr. Weitzman, ever solicit persons to join the Communist Party?

Mr. Carr: I might say for the information of those present, that if this is democratic procedure, it is the strangest procedure I have ever seen.

Mrs. Lyons: You are out of order, Mr. Carr.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, did you ever solicit membership or members for the Communist Party?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object on the ground that you are in violation of the law every time you repeat these questions.

Mr. Weitzman: I think it should also be stated that I have never committed any offense—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman—

Mr. Weitzman: I have never committed any action or offense that could be considered offensive to the oath of allegiance I took or to the Constitution, I have answered that question.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you ever solicited—

Mr. Weitzman: I have said that I have not participated in any activity of any kind that would reflect adversely on my—

Mrs. Lyons: Would you answer that question?

Mr. Weitzman: I have answered it, Mrs. Lyons.

Mr. Muchnick: Will you answer the specific question put to you, Mr. Weitzman?

"Have you ever solicited members for the Communist Party?"

Mr. Weitzman: You want specific information pertaining to my specific activities which pertains to my teaching propriety—propriety as a teacher, integrity, and competency as a teacher—I must again say that I have never committed—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman—

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—any offense that could be interpreted in any way to have violated—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman—

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—my oath and I wish to reaffirm my loyalty and devotion to the Constitution of the United States.

Mr. Muchnick: Now, will you answer the question: Have you ever solicited members for the Communist Party?

Mr. Weitzman: I am refraining to answer that question on the moral grounds I have just given, and on the grounds of the First Amendment, to which I am entitled as a citizen and also on the law which is called C71, S39.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you ever recruited members—

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object to this whole line of questioning as a violation of this law, and of the spirit of the First Amendment and its equivalent—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, have you ever recruited members for the Communist Party?

Mr. Weitzman: This is a question insinuating a means of impugning my personal integrity and poisoning my relationship to friends and with my pupils and my fellow teachers and my school principal, and community at large.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you ever recruited members for the Communist Party, Mr. Weitzman?

Mr. Weitzman: I still, because of the character of the question which seems to impugn my devotion and my integrity—

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Weitzman, would you answer the question?

Mr. Carr: He is answering the question.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr, we are, as a body—

Mr. Weitzman: I am a devoted teacher to my school and community and—

Mrs. Lyons: Would you wait just a minute?

Mr. Weitzman: Are you questioning my work as a teacher or are you—

Mr. Muchnick: I am asking you—

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—or are you throwing out questions that mean to—

Mrs. Lyons: I will have to ask you to answer the question.

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—detract from the dignity of my person.

Mrs. Lyons: I will have to ask you to refrain from just trying to—in some manner—

Mr. Weitzman: You can't blame me, Mrs. Lyons, for this reaction of mine because it is a very sincere and genuine reaction. It strikes at the very roots of my entire work as a teacher—

Mr. Muchnick: That is why the questions are being asked.

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—and relationship with the school system and my loyalty to the school system—

Mr. Muchnick: And that is exactly why the questions are being—

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—and to the administration and to the pupils, and to the parents—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, have you ever attempted to solicit or recruit members for the Communist Party?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object.

Mrs. Lyons: Do you wish to answer that question, Mr. Weitzman, Yes or No?

Mr. Weitzman: May I confer with counsel?

Mrs. Lyons: Surely.

(Mr. Weitzman conferred with his counsel.)

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr, I would like to say I am the Chairman, and I would like to make a remark—in the Boston schools, and I think that you are doing everything that you can to prevent this Committee from getting the necessary information; and as a member—

Miss Fitzgerald: I object to the remark of the Chairman.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object to that characterization.

Miss Fitzgerald: There are two members that are doing everything they can for the benefit of this Committee and knowledge—

Mr. Carr: I want to inquire now if the Superintendent or the Secretary—

Mr. Muchnick: I have not yielded the floor to anyone.

Miss Fitzgerald: The Chairman recognized Mr. Carr.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick, proceed.

Mr. Muchnick: I would like to have the answer to the question that was put to him, and I insist on that answer.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, inasmuch as you recognized me, I feel compelled to repeat the question to the Superintendent or the Secretary, if you have in your files a card where Mr. Weitzman—

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Carr, we have an oath of allegiance taken by—

Mr. Muchnick: I have not yielded the floor.

Mr. Carr: Mr. Muchnick yielded the floor and you recognized me, Madam Chairman, and I insist that I would like to see that card, Mr. Superintendent.

Mr. Muchnick: May I ask that Mr. Weitzman answer the question that has been put to him, please?

Mrs. Lyons: Would you kindly answer Mr. Muchnick's question? Mr. Weitzman: Yes, I wish to answer it in this way—

Mr. Muchnick: The question was, Mr. Weitzman, did you attempt to solicit or recruit members for the Communist Party at any time?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object to this whole line of questioning and I would like to have the record reflect that.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Kantrovitz, you may object but I still want to remind you that the courts have handed down many decisions to the effect that a school committee may ask its teachers if they are members of the Communist Party despite all of this objection.

Mr. Muchnick: May I have the answer to that question?

Mr. Weitzman: Mrs. Lyons, in answer to that question I believe I would be a party to the violation of C71, S39, if I were to answer that question. I would be saying in actuality that a public school committeeman or an official can ask an applicant, or as it infers here, a teacher, any information as to his religious beliefs, creeds, or practices.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you, therefore, refuse to answer the question?

Mr. Weitman: And by answering this question, I would be violating the letter of this particular statute.

Mrs. Lyons: Once again—

Mr. Muchnick: Do you refuse on those grounds to answer the question?

Mr. Weitman: On the grounds that I would be a party to the violation of C71, S39, and moral grounds I have stated, and I would be a party to the violation of the First Amendment to the Constitution.

Mr. Muchnick: And those are your reasons for refusing to answer the question, Mr. Weitman?

Mr. Weitman: I wish to confer with counsel.

(Mr. Weitman conferred with counsel.)

Mr. Muchnick: For those reasons, do you refuse to answer the question?

Mr. Weitman: Those are the reasons.

Mr. Muchnick: Those are the reasons—

Mr. Weitman: I have answered the question.

Mr. Muchnick: And for those reasons, you refuse to give an affirmative or negative answer?

Mr. Kantrovitz: That is his answer.

Mr. Weitman: And my counsel's response.

Mr. Muchnick: Have you been summoned to Washington to appear before a legislative committee?

Mr. Weitman: I have been, yes. That has already been discussed in this informal hearing, and is the reason for which I have asked a deferment.

Mr. Muchnick: What committee have you been summoned to appear before?

Mr. Weitman: What is the question?

Mr. Muchnick: What committee have you been summoned to appear before?

Mr. Weitman: Well, the summons mentioned the House Committee.

Mr. Muchnick: Which House Committee?

Mr. Weitman: Un-American Activities.

Mr. Muchnick: Did it give any information as to the nature of the hearing or the reasons for the hearing?

Mr. Weitman: Not at all. It has given me no indication—has given me no indication of what kind of questions will be put to me.

In fact, that is essentially the point that I have made to my superior, Dr. McAuliffe, that I cannot conjecture in advance what the Committee will ask me; that I should not be prejudged until that time occurs. It is merely a summons to appear in Washington, but the reason for that summons is omitted.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Weitman: I have no way of conjecturing—

Mr. Muchnick: Have you ever been summoned to appear before?

Mr. Weitman: No, I have not.

Mr. Carr: Is it possible to ask the defendant another question?

Mr. Muchnick: I have only two more questions, Madam Chairman, and I very frankly resent the use of the word "defendant."

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object. I think it is descriptive.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, I would be very happy to have it stricken from the record.

Strike that from the record, please.

Mr. Muchnick: Before whom did you appear, if anybody, when you took your oath as a teacher?

Mr. Weitman: Well, I appeared in body with other teachers, raising my hand, swearing my allegiance to uphold the Constitution of the United States and the Commonwealth.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you recall when you took that oath?

Mr. Weitman: I do not recall the exact date, but please let me answer the question as to before whom.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Mr. Weitman: I have taken the oath. It was before the Superintendent and I am no—

Mr. Carr: If you would allow me to interrupt here, I think I might clarify the situation.

Mr. Muchnick: Was the oath true at the time you took it?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I don't quite get the question.

Mr. Muchnick: All right, I will rephrase it.

Did you swear truthfully to the oath when you took it?

Mr. Weitman: I have sworn to uphold—

Mr. Muchnick: Did you swear truthfully to the oath when you took it?

Mr. Weitman: I have sworn in the same manner to that oath as everybody else that was there.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you swear truthfully?

Mr. Weitman: I swore to the text and veracity of the oath.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you swear truthfully to that oath when you took it? It is a very simple question.

Mr. Carr: Do you remember the text of the oath?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Weitman, will you answer Mr. Muchnick's question?

Mr. Muchnick: When you took that oath, did you swear truthfully to it?

Mr. Weitman: Yes, I swore truthfully.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you know what —

Mr. Weitman: I just repeated the words like —

Mr. Muchnick: did you know what was in it?

Mr. Weitman: To uphold the Constitution of the United States and of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you know what was in the oath when you took it?

Mr. Weitman: The actual wording — I cannot quote it now verbatim —

Mr. Muchnick: I am not talking about quoting it now verbatim. I am—

Mr. Weitman: I understood the spirit of the oath.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you understand and know the oath when you took it?

Mr. Weitman: I have understood and appreciated the spirit of the oath and of fidelity to the Constitution.

Mr. Muchnick: And that is the way you want to leave it?

Mr. Carr: To go back, and for the sake of the record, I would like to offer this as an exhibit here, and it is the copy of the oath of allegiance taken by a temporary teacher, Max Weitman, on the 24th day of May, 1948.

This oath in text says:

"I do solemnly swear and affirm I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of the position of temporary teacher at the Taft School."

I would now like to ask Mr. Weitman if he recognizes that as his signature?

Mr. Weitman: That is, sir. That is my signature, Mr. Carr, and my signature is my bond on this particular oath.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Dr. Foley.

Dr. Foley: Madame Chairman, I would like to ask Mr. Weitman a question.

Have you ever attended any group meetings of the Communist members to your knowledge?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object to the question.

Mr. Weitman: Well, my counsel has spoken for me. On the grounds of the First Amendment and on the grounds —

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, objecting to a question by a lawyer is not the same thing at all, and Mr. Kantrovitz knows it, as a refusal on the part of any witness to answer a question.

Now, if the objection on the part of the witness by Mr. Kantrovitz is adopted by the witness, as a refusal on his part to answer for the reasons stated, or for any reasons, that is acceptable to me, at least, as an answer to the question. If that isn't adopted by the witness as a refusal to answer the question, then I must ask that he specifically answer the question put to him by Dr. Foley, or state his refusal and his grounds for refusal.

Dr. Foley: You notice I said to the best of your knowledge.

Mr. Weitman: The question in its entirety, Dr. Foley; the question in its entirety, in principle I refrain from answering under C71, S39.

Mr. Muchnick: Do you use the word "refrain" to mean refuse?

Mr. Weitman: Well, I would say it is a term that would be synonymous with decline.

Mr. Kantrovitz: An assertion of privilege.

Mr. Weitzman: To refrain from answering.

Mr. Muchnick: You use the words "refrain from answering" on the grounds of privilege in the same manner as has been commonly used, the phrases "decline to answer on the grounds of privilege" or whatever the privilege may be, or "refuse to answer?"

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object to that, Mr. Muchnick, because he declined or refrained on the basis he stated — the First Amendment and Chapter 71, Section 39.

Mr. Muchnick: I am asking him now: What distinction, if any, he makes between the use of the words "refrain, decline," and "refuse"?

Mr. Weitzman: They are all, the expressions are all based on the same legal grounds.

Mr. Muchnick: And do you make any distinction between the words "refrain, decline," and "refuse" as used by you in your several answers to the questions this morning?

Mr. Weitzman: Well, as one who teaches English, the fact that those three words do exist, there must be some distinction from the point of view of English.

Mr. Muchnick: Will you tell what the distinctions are that you make in the use of those words?

Mr. Weitzman: But I am using them to assert my privilege.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, will you tell us what distinctions, if any,—

Mr. Weitzman: Under C71, S39.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, will you tell us as a matter of English, especially from the point of view of one who teaches English, what distinctions, if any, you make and have been making in your answers to these questions, among the words "refrain, decline," and "refuse," or are you using them interchangeably?

Mr. Weitzman: Well, Mr. Muchnick, it is another way of asserting my privileges under the First Amendment and of C71, S39. My use of the term "refrain" is to assert my privilege,—

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, I have asked—

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—to refrain from answering the question.

Mr. Muchnick: I have asked you a question of English, not a question of evidence, not a question of law or anything along those lines. Will you tell us what distinction, if any, you make now or have been making in your answers to these questions, among the words, "refrain, decline," and "refuse" or have you used them interchangeably?

Mr. Weitzman: Well, I have used the word "refrain" to assert my privileges under the statute C71, S39, and the First Amendment. Now, these terms could be used interchangeably.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you use them interchangeably?

Mr. Weitzman: I have not used them interchangeably; I have only used the word "refrain" and the reason I am using the word "refrain" is to assert my privilege on the grounds —

Mr. Muchnick: Will you tell us now what distinction there is in your mind among the words "refrain, decline," and "refuse," if any?

Mr. Weitzman: At this moment I cannot make a distinction that would agree with an authoritative theoretical textbook of the English language.

Dr. Foley: May I get a question?

Mr. Weitzman: If you wish me to do it, I will be glad to present something on that as far as English is concerned, but I am in no — well, shall I say,—no frame of mind now to discuss the fine points of English.

Mr. Muchnick: In your present frame of mind, do you have any distinction?

Will you listen to the question?

In your present frame of mind, Mr. Weitzman, do you have any distinction among the words "refrain, decline," and "refuse"? Do you, or don't you?

Mr. Weitzman: I think you are begging the question, sir.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, will you answer the question?

Mr. Weitzman: They are all related to the one question—the question of asserting my privileges which I have as a citizen.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman, in your present frame of mind, is there any distinction in your mind among the words "decline, refrain" or "refuse"?

Mr. Weitzman: Well, I can only answer that this way, and I am answering according to the best of my ability and I hope you will bear with me, Mr. Muchnick. I have given enough years of devoted service to earn some courtesy and some indulgence in the answers I have given. None of them have shown any discourtesy, any lack of cooperation, and I am asking you to accept an answer which is my answer, and which I, as an individual, Max Weitzman, am able to do.

Mr. Muchnick: I ask you now to answer the question, Mr. Weitzman, that was put to you?

Mr. Weitzman: And when I use the word "refrain"—this is like tightening the screws, we would say, of an inquisitorial apparatus. You know one can do only what one can do; he cannot take blood from a stone.

I can only answer that question this way: By asserting my privileges on these grounds, I am using the word "refrain."

Mr. Muchnick: Now, will you answer the question?

Mr. Kantrovitz: Are all three words synonyms?

Mr. Weitzman: The three words are synonymous.

Mr. Muchnick: And that is the way you have used it today?

Mr. Weitzman: They are synonyms. I have used them as synonyms, yes.

Mr. Muchnick: In answering the question today?

Mr. Weitzman: In answering the questions.

Mr. Muchnick: In answering the questions today, you have used the three word synonymously?

Mr. Weitzman: I am not a Philadelphia lawyer—

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman.

Mr. Weitzman: I cannot—

Mr. Muchnick: I am not a Philadelphia lawyer, either, but it is a very simple question.

Mr. Weitzman: I have already said they are synonyms.

Mr. Muchnick: You have used them—

Mr. Weitzman: By the way, you have asked me a question and I have answered it, and you have gone on to something else. You have asked me as a teacher of English, whether those three words are synonyms, and I said, "Yes, they are synonyms."

Mr. Muchnick: Now, have you used them as synonyms in your answers to the questions today that have been put to you?

Mr. Weitzman: I do not know what the—you see, a person in my position, and I am practically—well, you can say defenseless. Now, I am very vulnerable and, as all teachers are vulnerable, I, being a teacher, am also vulnerable, and could always forget or be hazy about some spot or point that might make an answer that would reflect on years of teaching.

Mr. Muchnick: Just to the best of your memory, knowledge, and belief?

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman? Madam Chairman?

Dr. Foley: Will you yield?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes.

Dr. Foley: Did you know a Mr. Faxon in any way at all? Whether you had contacted him at meetings or did you know him very well?

Mr. Kantrovitz: I object on the same grounds.

Dr. Foley: Did you know a Mr. Philbrick at any time?

Mr. Weitzman: Madam Chairman,—

Dr. Foley: That is just a Yes or No answer.

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—being a member—

Dr. Foley: You don't have to answer.

Mr. Weitzman: I would like to answer. I think it is important to answer.

Dr. Foley: All right, finish.

Mr. Weitzman: This will bear out some history of my people, the Jewish community has always regarded the person who informs on others—well, as a creature that would be earning the contempt of his fellow men. I would be earning that contempt, and I would not be able to live with myself, with my conscience, if I were to answer that question, because it would make me, to my family and to my community, particularly—well, to everyone—an informer, and I do not wish to be one who is associated with informers.

Dr. Foley: Then you knew Mr. Philbrick, did you? Or didn't you?

Mr. Weitzman: The question that you asked me is the same question and I cannot answer, and I am continuing to state my position.

Dr. Foley: Then you didn't know him?

Mr. Weitzman: That question, again, I must state my reasons for not answering, because it would make me an informer, and it is a violation of my right to know people or not to know people.

Dr. Foley: But you, I take it, did know him?

Mr. Weitzman: And also on the grounds of C71, S39, and the First Amendment.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, have any other members a right to ask questions?

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: I would like to inquire whether inasmuch as this is an executive session and where Mr. Weitzman is to appear in Washington before the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee—

Mr. Kantrovitz: It is not the Senate, it is the House Committee.

Mr. Carr: Well, the newspapers said the Senate Internal Committee, Madam Chairman, I was wondering, is this testimony that we are hearing here now to be made public or is this bound—

Mrs. Lyons: This is in executive session, Mr. Carr, and as an executive session, it is the property of the School Committee alone.

Dr. Foley: And I am going to move that it be made public.

Mr. Carr: I wonder if you would take the consensus of the Committee now and see if they are going to release this to the public and newspapers or not?

Mr. Muchnick: That is something that seems to me ought to be discussed among the members of the School Committee after—

Mr. Carr: Well, Madam Chairman, I think it would be relevant to this hearing right now that we should know this. There are some members here that are probably hesitant, not knowing whether it is going to be made public or solely confined to the information of the Legal Department and the School Committee. I would like to see this Committee recess, and I think it is a fundamental question before we even conduct this meeting, that we understand where this information is to go.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Carr: And I would like to see a vote taken on it.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: I have no objection to a recess and a vote on it and so forth, but before we do, I would like to comment on one comment that was made by Mr. Weitzman in response to a question by Dr. Foley.

Reference was made by Mr. Weitzman to the attitude of his forebears and his current co-religionists, and people of similar background, toward informers. As a member of that particular faith, I pride myself on the contempt that Jewish people have for informers. That contempt isn't limited to people of my faith. It is true of peoples of all faiths, and all national backgrounds. There are other fundamental characteristics of the people of most faiths, including the people of my faith and others, which are equally as important and probably more important than the one to which reference has been made. And among them are loyalty to their God and their country, which is of far greater importance, and I see no point to the attempt to drag in that kind of a potential issue for want of a better word. Particularly, when the question concerning one's acquaintanceship or knowledge of, or friendship with one Herbert Philbrick can be in no way interpreted, or misinterpreted to be of the nature of an informer concerning Mr. Philbrick. There is no question about informing on Mr. Philbrick in anybody's mind in this country.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mr. Muchnick: And the use of that kind of shield, or attempted shield, leaves me a little disgusted.

Mrs. Lyons: There will be a recess for five minutes.

(Short recess.)

Mr. Weitzman: Can I say something? Some inference was made by Mr. Muchnick with regard to my loyalty, and I think it is only in fairness—

Mrs. Lyons: I don't think it is in regard to your loyalty—I think it is a general statement.

Mr. Weitzman: It probably was an impersonal statement but in the present context of this hearing, I can not draw any other conclusion—

Mrs. Lyons: I think that was a general statement—

Mr. Weitzman: I would like to say—

Mrs. Lyons: Would you recognize the Chair, please?

I think that was a general statement probably on your part when you made yours, and I think it was a general statement on Mr. Muchnick's part.

Mr. Weitzman: I would like also to ask why it has not been inquired into—the work I have been doing in the Audubon School since I have been appointed. The type of instructions—

Miss Fitzgerald: We have Mr. Weitzman's ratings right here.

Mr. Weitzman: (Continuing)—how my morning begins and my day ends.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Mr. Weitzman and his counsel were both informed by this Committee that at any time after whatever questions the Committee wanted to put to them, had been put and answered, Mr. Weitzman would be able to add anything or subtract anything that he wished to.

If he wishes to at this time, I for one would like to hear from him.

Mrs. Lyons: Is there any objection?

(No response.)

Mr. Kantrovitz: I think it might be important if I put a question to Mr. Weitzman, namely: How he conducts his class; his relationship with the class; and the students in the school?

Mr. Weitzman: First I set the proper atmosphere in the classroom by the usual morning exercises—reading the Bible, singing patriotic songs, "Hail Columbia," the fourth stanza to America, which has been authorized recently by the School Committee; the singing of the fourth stanza, and singing "Hail, Columbia." Then we proceed with the regular day's work such as reading—I divide my class, which is a large class, oversized, as a matter of fact, where we had extra chairs put into the class room. I began with 44 pupils, 25 of which were boys, and I have endeavored to give the best kind of instruction in reading, dividing the entire class—I hope you appreciate the class—into three separate reading groups, and give them—after preparing the night before three separate reading lessons, seat work, and recitation work—to each group one at a time, and preparing three separate types of tests, based on three textbooks, based on three separate types of lessons, I prepared the night before.

I have always spent the night before my classwork with plenty of preparation. My notebook at the present time and for all of the three years, is chock full of daily lessons beginning with the morning exercises I have mentioned, and with conclusive evidence of the day's work and whatever is assigned to me by the authorized schedule of work.

After reading that, we have geography and in geography I try to impart to the children an appreciation of our country's natural resources and inventiveness. I apply the reading skills that I teach to geography lessons as well as trying to get a full appreciation and love for the subject of geography and love for the country, and the material resources and inventiveness.

According to schedule, I teach American history, too. This being very close to my heart—being my first love, because I have majored in the subject and spent a great deal of college time studying the subject and therefore I cannot help but impart the love to my children that I have for this particular subject, American History.

Essentially, I demonstrate by teaching the principle of greatness, the principles of our founding fathers, the cultural heritage of our founding fathers. Again, I apply the reading skills that I teach in the morning to this history lesson, formulating questions the night before; well prepared and put on the board for them to ponder over and work upon.

I consciously intersperse any rigorous day with the children with physical education, and I have been commended by the Physical Education Director on many occasions for my work in this field, with exercises to relax the children so they can pursue and continue their work again.

After the first recess, during which time I am out in the yard, supervising the work of the children and looking after their safety—that they don't fall and trip, and so forth, and fight—I go upstairs with them and I am ready for arithmetic lessons. Therefore, I follow the point by point authorized course of study, directed and authorized by school authorities and my school superiors.

I reteach a subject. I drill on a subject matter to assure that the subject is fully, fully mastered, where those children cannot or do not—for one reason or another—fully master the subject. I spend time—with the parents' permission—after school helping them in the area of their weakness of the subject work.

By that time, it is already ten minutes to twelve and we have music. While I have a poor ear for music, I do the best I can to impart an appreciation for music. I don't sing very well, but I do sing with the children and I have taught them many educational, patriotic songs that would be uplifting to their morale.

I may spend the rest of the ten minutes that may be left by dictating English—such as English technicalities which children are commonly weak on in this particular grade. After we have lunch, and you know I eat with the children, and that is quite an ordeal, to be able to eat and digest one's food with 40 or 44 children, and supervise them at the same time. I wish also to mention the fact that I assign almost every child in my class a task, a specific duty. I believe this is a very important thing in developing the sense of cooperation and sense of fellowship towards others in the sense of good citizenship and loyalty to the school. Therefore, every child in my class has a chore of some kind—some may be minor, some may be interesting, and some may not be so interesting, but they all do it with the same type of spirit which is a good spirit.

I don't have too many—in fact, I don't have a discipline problem in all my classrooms at all. I demonstrate by my method of teaching and my self-behavior that—well, it just leads itself to good discipline. I have no problem, no discipline problem. I have no complaint about the discipline of any of my children. In fact, I am proud of the work I am getting out of my pupils because more than a dozen or so of my pupils have been retarded at least once since the first grade, and that is quite a difficulty that I have coped with and have worked very hard with, and I believe I have made some valuable progress in raising their efficiency in subjects.

As far as discipline is concerned, I haven't any—in fact, I have felt less tired on the job with more children this year than I did the first year I was appointed.

I think that is due to experience that one gets, and I am very proud of this fact, that I do not tire at the end of the day as I have in the past, and yet give them more than I have in the past, which means I have economized my time, by teaching time, and I teach more efficiently.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Dr. Foley.

Dr. Foley: Would you care to inform the Committee of your outside activities after school?

Mr. Weitzman: I have mentioned my outside activities in one instance involved in preparing school lessons, marking papers, and doing a host of paper work as is commonly associated—

Dr. Foley: And that consumes all your time? Will you care to let the Committee know of any organizations you are a member of?

Mr. Weitzman: I don't think any professional person consumes all of their waking hours—

Dr. Foley: May I ask what professional groups you are a member of? You don't have to answer if you don't want to. Any clubs, or any groups that you happen to be a member of? Are you a member of any particular group?

Mr. Weitzman: Shall I consult with my counsel?

(Mr. Weitzman confers with counsel.)

Mr. Weitzman: What I meant is—I hope you don't mind the interruption—I would like to see the entire picture in my mind. The Boston Elementary Teachers Club.

Dr. Foley: Anything else you happen to be a member of?

Mr. Kantrovitz: Anything beyond the teaching of schools, I think is improper, based on Chapter 71, Section 39, and the First Amendment.

Dr. Foley: That is all right.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that is all.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I wonder if I might submit a few remarks, Madam Chairman, and members of the Committee?

We have here this morning a 5th grade teacher that, based on the record, has done a good job with the children who are at a difficult age; and since the School Committee's dealing with the activities of the teachers of our schools ought to be judged by the record, I think it was a little disturbing to see, at least at the outset, a copy of his personnel record was not available.

This meant that the attention of the Committee was directed to matters beyond school activities, to his responsibilities and privileges, and so on, not as a teacher, but as a citizen. I want to reaffirm some of the things that have been said.

Namely, that a teacher is a citizen, and as a citizen has rights even as a teacher.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, could I make an observation?

Teaching in the Boston schools is not a right of an individual; it is a privilege accorded to an individual and that privilege is accorded by a School Committee.

Mr. Kantrovitz: That is true, but once being granted that privilege, I submit, he does not lose any of his rights and privileges as a citizen of the United States.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: Nobody has attempted to indicate that he loses any privileges or rights as an American citizen. But in the exercise of those rights, and rights of a citizen asking for immunities guaranteed by the Constitution, in some cases in response to the questions put here this morning; but not in all of the cases, incidentally, as I see it, in the exercise of those rights as a citizen with which nobody complains, he may or any person may put themselves in the position of violating their rights as a teacher, or to employment as a teacher. I don't say that this man has or hasn't violated or given up such rights or such privileges as he may have as a teacher, by what has happened earlier today; but merely because one has a privilege on the one hand of being a teacher afforded to him by a School Committee contract of employment and by statute, that right is not permanently existent for all purposes and may be waived. And that privilege—if it is a privilege rather than a right—may be given up by the teacher concerned by the exercise or manner of exercising certain rights, guarantees, immunities, privileges, or what you will, given to him or her as a citizen under the Constitution.

I don't say that those necessarily follow one from the other, the two things don't necessarily protect each other.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I do say, however, that this Committee ought to act only on the basis of affirmative evidence; not on the basis of hearsay evidence, which has not been positively and affirmatively presented here, or any inferences that may be drawn from the rights that the individual may have and asserts.

Now, the questions that have been raised here are not simple questions. I remember reading of the Puritans, why they—who are proud people—but who were, at least in England, a persecuted people, and whose views were not quite in conformity with the prevailing view at the time.

They would have been quite proud to say that they had a particular view—if they were Puritans—except that in context, the had connotations that were given to certain actions, the intolerance, and the strong passions that prevailed, they couldn't very proudly proclaim their Puritanism or proclaim views which may or may not have coincided.

Some of these questions are not simple. They are not simple when you take them in context with the world today. The United States today is just as black in one of the senses indicated—the strong passions that have crept in and are wearing down on some of civil liberties, and I say it is the real responsibility of the School Committee not to be carried away by these passions, but to resist them and make sure our schools afford our children a full education, and do not result in a type of conformity that makes for decadence.

I was reading not too long ago the essay on Liberty by Mills, which points out a number of reasons why we ought to tolerate differences of opinion, and one of the basic ones is that unless—if you separate truth and deny it to be exposed to the conflict of error, it will become merely dogma and wither. It has got to be revitalized on the basis of error or be tolerated on the basis of seeking the truth and vitalizing the truth.

These are some of the things we have to be aware of, and this is a very responsible Committee, and I say our School Committee in Boston, with a wonderful, wonderful old tradition of tolerance; of forwardness; of innovation of new ideas; of tolerated differences of opinions. It was not by accident that Boston was called the Hub of the Universe. It was not because of its physical arrangement of place, but principally because of the cultural center of the world—Boston and its counterpart of Concord.

What are the things I am talking about? In principle, in respect to Mr. Weitzman, he says any questions in relation to his privileges and associations are in violation of this Chapter 71, Section 39, which prevents school officials from inquiring—we say, Madam Chairman and ladies and gentlemen, we say that this applies not only to applicants but also to teachers having tenure.

Secondly, we say that the rights of the individual to his opinion—and by the way, I say this is perfectly consistent with the whole tradition of Massachusetts—tolerating the widest diversities of views as the best guarantee that our school system, our cultural heritage, will perpetuate itself.

Thirdly, the First Amendment, and, I think, the 12th Article of the Massachusetts Declaration of Rights with respect to freedom of speech.

Today, questions that might indicate that the individual has been not quite in agreement, has had differing, unpopular, nonconforming point of view, are dangerous. Cases have been called to my attention in which Judges in various types of cases dealing with prosecutions under the Smith Act have allowed some strange types of evidence to get in there bearing on the subject matter.

An individual attends a meeting where they oppose the Taft-Hartley Bill. Someone attends a meeting where they gave some money to a P.A.C. to fight for the defeat of certain members of the Legislature and so on. These were held as evidence in respect to a serious charge.

I say that today the questions that would not only be simple once, in the present day conflict of circumstances, are not quite simple. I want to say that there is no positive evidence here on which this Committee can reasonably rely. I think the thing it should rely on is the positive evidence contained on the personnel record and which is borne by the testimony of Mr. Weitzman in relation to his activities in the schoolroom.

My last word of caution from a moral standpoint and as well from a citizen's standpoint, I think, and I believe firmly, that if we begin by leaving out someone because he has an unpopular point of view, we will weaken our entire school system and endanger democracy.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick.

Mr. Muchnick: I don't want to engage in debate with Mr. Kantrovitz, particularly in view of the very able argument; but in the argument Mr. Kantrovitz both assumes the question and begs the question by discussing liberalness toward different points of views, by discussing the tolerance for opposing viewpoints, wide diversity of views, it seems to me he assumes the very questions which we are attempting to find out about.

He assumes that Mr. Weitzman is of the opinions or the views that our—that are different from the views held by the majority of people in this City or this Commonwealth and country; and from the tone of argument based on the questioning, it seems to me he assumes that Mr. Weitzman is a member of the Communist Party, and that we should allow for that wide diversity.

Mr. Kantrovitz: I made no such assumption.

Mr. Muchnick: Please, Mr. Kantrovitz, I didn't interrupt you. That is the inference which I drew from the line of argument.

That was pointed out by Mr. Kantrovitz that many people have different points of view, and he talked about the Puritans and Massachusetts. The question having been raised by Mr. Weitzman about his forebears, I would like to point out to Mr. Weitzman that his forebears, when they had points of view that differed from the majority point of view in Spain, didn't attempt to hide behind constitutional immunities and privileges but very proudly suffered the tortures and the deaths of the Inquisition proclaiming their points of view, and didn't attempt to hide.

Mr. Kantrovitz: That was not my assumption, and I would like to so state.

Mr. Muchnick: If that is so, and if that is Mr. Weitzman's point of view, I should think he would tell us that was his point of view and not necessarily defend himself for his point of view because he is entitled to any point of view that he, as an individual, wants to have.

If that point of view is in conflict with the law as the School Committee sees it, or with the desirability of Mr. Weitzman as a teacher, under the circumstances as the School Committee sees it, Mr. Weitzman, in defense of that point of view—if that is his point of view—should be very willing and should be happy to take whatever consequences flow from the adopting of a point of view which he feels is the proper one.

Mr. Weitzman: There were no privileges under the Constitution.

Mr. Muchnick: There were no privileges constitutionally, but there was the privilege of giving up the point of view for which those people very proudly suffered tortures and died. But that isn't the issue here at all. The issue is that certain questions have been put to Mr. Weitzman, those questions he has refused to answer on the grounds sufficient at least in his opinion, and his counsel's opinion, to justify the refusal. Those grounds may be sufficient in the opinion of the School Committee to justify the refusal; I don't know, at this moment, what further discussion will bring forward, and it is completely possible that as a result of discussion everybody, or a majority, will be satisfied that the grounds claimed by Mr. Weitzman and his counsel, for the failure to answer questions are proper grounds.

However, that is the issue. Whether the refusal to answer certain questions put by the School Committee to one of its employees is or is not insubordination on the part of that employee, regardless of whether that employee is or isn't a Communist, regardless of whether that employee is or isn't a Republican or Democrat or Hottentot or anything else.

The issue here primarily—there are other issues, but the primary issue—is one of whether an employee has been insubordinate, and I think we ought to address ourselves to that question.

Mr. Weitzman: I just want to comment on a speech and reference he has made to Jewish history. The question of individual rights—this was before the age of reason—I think you will understand that, Mr. Muchnick, before the principle of the Bill of Rights was fully recognized on this side of the Atlantic or the other side.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Weitzman, I don't think we need to go into that.

Dr. Foley: Madam Chairman, I think if he wants to explain something, I think it would be perfectly all right.

Mr. Kantrovitz: This I do want to say, that I would like to suggest that this Committee address itself to the Legal Department of the City of Boston for an interpretation of Chapter 71, Section 39, before it proceeds.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Kantrovitz, we will determine the best policy to follow. Today, I want you to understand that we did not ask Mr. Weitzman in because we were prejudging him. We asked him in here merely to answer some questions, and I think that ends it.

Mr. Kantrovitz: May I also suggest—that it is merely a request—that there be no release of any publicity other than the record. I am not too happy about releasing the record, not that there is anything to hide in it. In the context of today's passions, I don't know what it would contribute to. I would have to evaluate it. I would like to request that if there is a release, that there be a release only of the record.

Dr. Foley: Would you have any objection to us releasing what went on here?

Mr. Carr: I don't think that is relevant.

Mr. Weitzman: I think in respect to my privacy and having been for a length of time a devoted public servant, and hope to continue in that capacity, I would appreciate that you would grant me that opportunity, not to publicize the proceedings of this session—that is, this afternoon's session.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that after this question has ended, the Committee will probably discuss further, and it will be a matter of whatever they decide.

Mr. Weitzman: Those are the grounds on which I am making that request.

Mr. Muchnick: Just before the hearing suspends, I was wondering if there were anything that the Superintendent would want to ask about or would want to add to what has taken place?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, I have no questions.

Mr. Muchnick: Is there anything you want to present, Mr. Superintendent?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, in this particular case there is nothing.

Mrs. Lyons: Thank you, Mr. Superintendent.

Mr. Muchnick: May I then suggest that the hearing part be discontinued?

Mrs. Lyons: It has been discontinued.

Mr. Muchnick: I am sorry, and that we remain in session.

Mr. Kantrovitz: May we depart?

Mrs. Lyons: Yes.

(Hearing to Mr. Weitzman and his attorney adjourned at 1:40 P. M.)

Dr. Foley: Are we in conference now? Do we intend to go into public meeting?

Mr. Muchnick: I think, Madam Chairman, that we should go into public meeting.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that if we are going to determine what action to take—

Dr. Foley: Then, you will have to invite the press in.

Mr. Muchnick: Prior to that, I would like to have a discussion off the record, a sort of executive discussion.

Mr. Carr: Let's have it right here now.

(Discussion off the record.)

Mr. Muchnick: I am prepared in public meeting to present an order calling for the taking of a vote on June 29, 1953, on the question whether Max Weitzman, teacher, elementary, be dismissed as a teacher of elementary schools for the following grounds: Conduct unbecoming a teacher; insubordination; being an unfit and improper person to teach in the Boston School System; for the good of the Boston School System; and for conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A of Chapter 71 of the General Laws of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, or for any of those causes.

Mr. Carr: What conduct is that? Conduct here this morning?

Miss Fitzgerald: Refusal to answer certain questions put to him by the superiors? Is that it, specifically?

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, but I don't think it should be put in that specific language. I think it ought to be put under the general headings that I have indicated; and I would, so that there would be no question of the propriety or legality of the public meeting, suggest that as soon as the public meeting is called, everybody waive notice and we go into the public meeting, act on that matter, and I will present the motion formally at that time for whatever action there is.

Just before we do that I want to ask the Superintendent one question: Did you find any records or papers or anything at all connected with Max Weitzman?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick. This is the report given to me by Mr. Herlihy, which, in essence, was the same as the verbal report given to me by Miss McAuliffe.

Mr. Muchnick: Did you find any writings connected with Mr. Weitzman?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick—

Mr. Muchnick: There was a question in your mind last night as to whether there might be some of them at your home or whether there might be some here in the office, and if you have them, I for one would like to see them.

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, this was the report which Mr. Herlihy gave to me.

I might say, Madam Chairman and members, that following the anonymous telephone call—as I mentioned to you yesterday or last night; if I didn't mention it, I mentioned it by inference by asking a question—I conferred with Mr. Kerr of the Law Department and furnished him the information dealing both with Mr. Weitzman and telling him the facts about the anonymous telephone call. Now, in conference, as I said last night, it was determined advisable that I should not proceed in the case of Mr. Weitzman.

However, that I should immediately make a very careful investigation, as far as I could, of the entire school system. Now, over the weekend—that weekend—I took immediate action. I telephoned to the Assistant Superintendents—Daley, Bond, Hearn, Gillis—excuse me, Gillis, no, I wasn't able to contact him—Corcoran—and assigned to them the problem of visiting all high, junior high, and elementary schools during the next three days. In Tuesday, March 31, 1953, I conferred personally with Mr. Gillis and asked him to visit his two schools—the Horace Mann and the Godwin.

I broke up the elementary schools among three Assistant Superintendents so they could canvas them quickly. Mr. Daley covered all the high schools; Mr. Corcoran, junior highs. Three, in general, divided the others, and Mr. Gillis took his own. The purpose of these interviews by the Assistant Superintendents was to discover, if possible, if there existed any subversive activity or any individuals that the school administrators might have information about or any suspicion in connection with that, and then the Assistant Superintendents made their reports to me.

Now, the reports were negative with the exception that Mr. Herlihy—if I may put it this way—found out independently what I had heard verbally from Miss McAuliffe. I did not tell Mr. Herlihy anything about this. In fact, I was not sure he was going to visit that particular school. I did assign certain schools the first day to get them started because I did it over the telephone. Then, the second day, which I think was Tuesday of that week, I let Miss Hearn and Mr. Herlihy and Mr.

Bond make whatever division that would be the most expeditious to canvass the city. So Mr. Herlihy did not know about this incident at all, and he returned to me this short report here dealing with Mr. Weitzman.

Mr. Muchnick: Is that the only paper you have connected with Mr. Weitzman?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, that is right.

Mr. Muchnick: Nothing else?

Superintendent: Madam Chairman and Mr. Muchnick, except, I think, I have one in my own handwriting which I made as a notation at the time of the telephone call from Miss McAuliffe, March 27, 1953. A conference with the Law Department the same day; spoke to the majority of the Assistant Superintendents over the weekend, spoke to Mr. Gillis on March 31st, he having only two schools.

Mr. Muchnick: And that is all there is in your possession?

Superintendent: That is right.

Mr. Muchnick: Concerning this matter?

Superintendent: That is right.

Mr. Muchnick: I move that we suspend the conference and go into public meeting.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: These—once, two and three—are all based on his conduct here this morning, isn't that right?

Mr. Muchnick: Not necessarily.

Mr. Carr: Well, you have here "conduct unbecoming a teacher." Do you know of any other?

Mr. Muchnick: As far as I am concerned, the conduct unbecoming a teacher is borne out by the activities here this morning.

Mr. Carr: Well, that is what I asked you.

Mr. Muchnick: No, I say it is not necessarily that because if between now and the time the vote is taken, there is further conduct unbecoming a teacher—

Mr. Carr: We are suspending him now on these grounds.

Mr. Muchnick: Yes, we are suspending him now on these grounds, and if in the future there is further conduct unbecoming a teacher, you would not be, in my opinion, and I may be all wrong in evidence and law, you wouldn't be prohibited or in any way limited from introducing the evidence or anything that were to happen from now on in.

Mr. Carr: Insubordination and being an improper and unfit person—

Mr. Muchnick: And another one for conduct inconsistent with the oath taken by him under Section 30A, Chapter 71, of the General Laws.

Mr. Carr: How did he violate that?

Mr. Muchnick: I don't believe—

Mr. Carr: You heard him say the other night that he was invoking the provisions of the Constitution of Massachusetts and of the Fifth Amendment, and in doing that, he was supporting it.

Mr. Muchnick: That was one of the grounds used by the Superintendent and one of the grounds recommended by Mr. Kerr in the Faxon case, which, so far as the evidence to date appears, are in pretty much the same category, excepting that one was refusal to answer a Congressional Committee, and the other was refusal to answer us.

Mrs. Lyons: I think before we go into public meeting, Miss Reynolds would like to have what you have read there typed up.

Executive session—Apr. 18, 1953—adjourned.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mr. Muchnick: This is on the same kind of matter. Madam Chairman, when we were in executive discussing budget proposed changes, I made a motion with reference to the operation of the Department of Physical Education in conjunction with the cuts that had been made in the budget.

ORDERED. That the motion in executive session with reference to the operation of the Department of Physical Education in conjunction with the cuts that have been made in the Budget, and all discussion and action in connection with that motion be made a part of the records of the public meeting; and that there be a vote taken on the motion itself again in public meeting.

Mr. Muchnick: I ask that a vote be taken in the public meeting if the Chair thinks that it is necessary. I myself do not think that it is.

Mrs. Lyons: I think that if there are no objections I cannot see why it can't be done.

Dr. Foley: Spreading it on the record would be enough.

Mrs. Lyons: If there are no objections, it could be spread upon the record. I do not see why it has to go through public meeting.

Secretary: Spread on the records. No objections.

Mr. Muchnick: We ought to have a vote on whether that should be included in the public meeting.

On roll call the order passed by the following vote:

YEAS—Miss Fitzgerald, Dr. Foley, Mrs. Lyons, and Mr. Muchnick—4.

NAYS—0.

ABSENT—Mr. Carr—1.

The following is the extract from the Conference notes referred to:

Business Manager: Now, Physical Education. I don't know whether you want to go into that or not, but we are ending up by taking $15,634 off of Supplies and $59,366 off of Salaries.

The biggest item there—and we are having a rainy spring and we are saving money on playgrounds on the spring program—is in that playground item.

Dr. Foley: That is part of what—your $67,000?

Business Manager: Yes. We are cutting the playground budget $23,000. We got a lot of rainy days and we are picking up money that way, using, we will say, two teachers in a playground instead of three and cutting down the coverage. They will be covered, and Mr. McKenney thinks it is all right, but we are saving teachers here, there and everywhere.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, I move that Mr. McKenney be instructed to institute no personnel cuts in any playgrounds from 3 to 2 people, or from 2 people to 1, or to attempt to effect any savings of any kind unless he is firmly convinced in each instance that it does not in any way interfere with the proper and efficient operation of the playgrounds.

And also that he make no cuts in the purchase of the number of items or quality of items of any of the supplies unless he is just as firmly convinced that a reduction in the number of supplies or a reduction in the quality of supplies will in no way impair the physical well-being of any of the users of the supplies, and will in no way impair the physical education program as we have it;

And that if and when in November or December we are faced with any problems such as the newspapers have been screaming about during the last several days, we will meet that problem if it exists, and I am inclined to doubt that it will exist unless it is manufactured, by the necessary and appropriate action at that time.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, I fail to see where it is necessary to make a motion of this sort. In the first place it is unnecessary because I think Mr. McKenney is a competent enough administrator and is conscientious enough so that he won't recommend any cuts to be made if he feels in his conscience that the safety program or any other part of the physical education program will be seriously damaged.

I just do not think the motion is necessary.

Mr. Muehnick: Madam Chairman, I don't know whether or not Miss Fitzgerald read the letter that the Mayor received from Mr. McKenney, nor do I know whether or not she has read the newspaper articles.

Mr. Carr: I agree with Miss Fitzgerald. I don't think that Mr. McKenney would make cuts where it is placing the welfare of the children who participate in these playgrounds in jeopardy. He has stated before the Committee in public that he would not cut any equipment, especially in contact sports, and take the responsibility for the children.

I do not see any need for this motion as put by the former speaker; I think it is irrelevant to this entire question. The question tonight is voting on this overall picture, in order that we can inform the assessors.

I think the motion is out of order. It has no place in this discussion at all, on telling department heads how to run their departments, or where to make the cuts.

I think the time to tell them when to make the cuts was at the time we made the cuts, or when the Committee saw fit to instruct them to cut it this much.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, if Mr. McKenney was accurately quoted in the newspapers, and if I got the inferences which I think were reasonably to be gotten from the text of the letter that he sent to the Mayor, then there is no question in my mind that Mr. McKenney has been inferring to the general public of the City of Boston that the physical education program, has been, or is being ruined by the action of the School Committee in cutting his budget, and that that action not only is contributing to the ruin of the physical education program, but is contributing, or is going to contribute to the increase of juvenile delinquency in this city.

As far as I am concerned, that is the inference that I drew. As a matter of fact, in the letter to the Mayor, it doesn't even have to infer it; and, further, as far as I am concerned, that is at complete loggerheads with the truth of the situation.

When Mr. Carr talks about competent directors doing things, it is the province and the responsibility and the duty of a school committee to tell a director or anybody else in the school system what to do and how to do it, if it doesn't have confidence in what that particular person is doing, and it has reason to believe as I have that there are other items extraneous to the particular item under discussion that at least in part motivate the statements and the letters and everything else.

And, therefore, Madam Chairman, in the interests of running the physical education division of the School Department as best we can, despite any obstructions, or attempted obstructions, I press the motion.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman?

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Muchnick has made a motion—

Miss Fitzgerald: Miss Reynolds has it. It is probably three paragraphs long and has a great many personal observations and personal motivations of the maker of the motion.

Mrs. Lyons: I would go along with Mr. Muchnick's motion because I think he has expressed what all of us feel. We felt that this year it was necessary to cut the budget to some extent.

Every single department in the schools has suffered some sort of a cut, and each one has taken it and has done the very best to go along with it and to work out their own problems except Mr. McKenney.

Mr. McKenney has gone to everybody. He has gone to the Chamber of Commerce. He has run to the Mayor; he has run to the City Council. It was brought up down before the City Council this morning. The impression was given that this particular program was going to be ruined, and I think that Mr. Muchnick's motion is very much in order.

Miss Fitzgerald: I would like to hear the motion Madam Chairman, in full. I think, as I said before, that there are dozens of personal opinions in there.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, before we vote on this motion I would like to have the floor.

Mrs. Lyons: Mr. Carr.

Mr. Carr: Madam Chairman, the former speaker said that in cases where we find that the Director is not competent and we do not have confidence in him, it is our duty to direct him.

I feel it is more than our duty to direct him, if we do not have confidence in him. And we do not believe he is capable. I don't think we should employ him, and if people feel that way I should think they would take measures to get rid of him and get a director who is competent in there.

As far as ruining this physical education program as set up by our director is concerned, nowhere in the paper was it inferred that it would ruin it. It would only, naturally, mean curtailing some of our activities, and in the paper it told specifically where it was going to be necessary to curtail it.

One item in particular stands out in my mind where they said it would be a policy of passing the hat, to take up contributions to send the boys to the Amherst relay games.

If the members of this Committee feel that this director is not competent and not capable of running his own department, they should get rid of him and never mind all this loose talk.

Mr. Muchnick: Madam Chairman, if I felt that this activity during the last seven weeks on the part of Mr. McKenney constituted sufficient conduct to ask for his removal, I would ask for it. I do not think it goes quite that far.

I do think, however, that it goes far enough,—the observations that Mr. Carr makes about passing the hat and such other observations that appeared in the newspapers and elsewhere clearly indicate that Mr. McKenney's suggestion as to what cuts should be made, where they should be made, and that there should be curtailments or there would have to be curtailments, are such that this year, at least, Mr. McKenney needs the guidance and the direction and the suggestion of the Board of Directors of this corporation, namely, the School Committee itself; and it was because of that that I made the motion, and it is because of that and the other items that have been mentioned that I press the motion.

Business Manager: Madam Chairman, there were just two items that I have not had a chance to.

Mrs. Lyons: All right, Mr. Smith. Did you want to have that motion acted on first, Mr. Muchnick?

Mr. Muchnick: Do the other items refer to this department?

Business Manager: I think I had better give you the picture first before you vote on the motion, in justice. For instance, there is a thousand-dollar cut suggested in transportation of teams to attempt to make this up.

That may mean that towards the end of the year the youngsters may be called upon to pay their own transportation to a game, I mean their own car fare.

Mr. Muchnick: Or to the Amherst relay games.

Business Manager: I don't know when that is coming. The other thing, in the cutting of the amount of money allocated is to coaches and play teachers. It may be necessary to cut out JV football next fall.

Mr. Muchnick: And that I would like included in the motion that these cuts not be made as well. If it becomes necessary for the City of Boston to pass the hat for transportation in November or December, let's face it at that time. Let's not assume for any purpose that Mr. McKenney's estimate of this is infallible even for the purpose for which Mr. McKenney would like to assume it.

On the question of the JV football, if that is a desirable activity in our high schools—and I for one feel that it is—let's not discuss now when we are having baseball with the whole summer to go and with potential rainy days in the summer, as well, where money might be saved as well.

Business Manager: No, we don't save it in the summer, Mr. Muchnick, on playgrounds. They pay them.

Mr. Muchnick: Well, whatever it might be. Let's not assume that the world is going to come to an end athletically or by way of physical education, just because Mr. McKenney chooses during these couple of weeks to be a pessimist.

Mrs. Lyons: The way that I feel about it is this: Every other department has taken it. They made a supreme effort to co-operate, and on the other hand Mr. McKenney has taken every step he can to be most unco-operative; and I think, too, as I said this morning — and you heard me say it down there — there was no one who criticized him as being not capable. They just feel that the other departments can do it and he can do it.

Miss Fitzgerald: Madam Chairman, may I inquire what was the session of the Council,—was it a general information session or what?

Mrs. Lyons: Yes, it was, Miss Fitzgerald.

Miss Fitzgerald: On the supplementary budget.
